By MRS. CHARLES CAMERON

Wedding
A ceremony at the Post Chapel at Fort Bragg united Miss Verbel Lorine Davis and A3c Wayne Gordon Van Etten, July 5 at 7:00. Capt. Malcolm Smith, Post chaplain, officiated and a reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davis of Vass. Her husband is a native of Syracuse, N. Y., stationed with the Air Force at Pope Field.

The couple was attended by A2c Keffier Harwell as best man and Miss Carolyn Holder, maid of honor. They are at home in Vass. Shower

Mrs. Van Etten was guest of honor at a recent miscellaneous bridal shower at the Vass Community House given by employees of the Reservoir Department of Proctor-Silex Corporation. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening to the band organized by members of the Department.

Bible School Commencement
On Friday evening at 7 o'clock a commencement exercises and picnic supper climaxed the week's activities of Vacation Bible School at the Vass Methodist Church, with parents and friends attending.

Mrs. Horace Mullinix, school director, gave the welcome, which was followed with a congregational hymn.

The Junior Department was in charge of the scripture and benediction. The Rev. Charles Wooten, pastor, led in prayer. The Kindergarten Department contributed songs. A litany was presented by the Primary children. A portion of the program was a film strip, "Palestine in Jesus' Day," by Mr. Wooten. Awarding of certificates was made by the teachers.

The School, with evening sessions from 5:00-7:00 p. m. held in the new children's classroom building, had an enrollment of 54 with a daily attendance of 47. Mrs. S. R. Smith was director of music and Mrs. C. L. Tyson and Patsy Callahan were pianists. Mrs. James Hudson and Mrs. Charles Cameron, assisted by Mrs. Bobby Lassiter and Mrs. William Duffey, were in charge of the Kindergarten Class. In the Primary Department, Mrs. Robert Coffey and Miss Carol Foster taught, assisted by Miss Jeanette Mullinix. Mrs. Wooten directed the study in the Junior Department; Mrs. H. M. Klingenschmidt was in charge of the crafts, and Mr. Wooten led a song session. Mrs. Lewis Frye served as chairman of the committee for refreshments.

Circle Meets
Mrs. G. E. Griffin was hostess to Methodist Circle I for the August meeting Tuesday evening in the Church Fellowship Hall. Mrs. Charles Gschwind, chairman, presided and conducted the routine business session. The program topic, "Music Contributes to Christian Growth," was led by Mrs. Russell Bullock. Assisting the leader with related parts were Mrs. S. R. Smith, Mrs. R. R. Thomas, Mrs. H. A. Borst and Mrs. Griffin. The hostess served refreshments to the 15 members present.

MYF Outing
As a planned part of their August program members of the MYF of the Vass Methodist Church enjoyed a trip Sunday at Carolina Beach, complete with a picnic lunch. Members making the trip with their MYF counselor, Miss Jeanette Mullinix, were Linda Frye, Stevie Frye, Ann Thomas, Pat Coffey, Danny Williams, Marjorie L. Bullock and Harold Blake. Accompanying the members as guests were Larry Matthews, Jimmy Hutchinson, Debbie Johnson and Mrs. Russell Debbie Johnson and Mrs. Russell Bullock, who also assisted with transportation.

Miss Mullinix is serving as counselor for the MYF while she is home for summer vacation from UNC-G, where she will be a senior this fall.

Attends Funeral
Mrs. Charles Gschwind attended funeral services for an aunt, Mrs. Annie Stanton at the Antioch Presbyterian Church near Raeford Sunday afternoon.
