

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

MARY EVELYN de NISSOFF, Editor

TELEPHONE 692-6512

MISS ANGELYN STOKES, BRIDE-ELECT
COMPLIMENTED AT BRIDAL LUNCHEON

Miss Angelyn Stokes of Greensboro, whose wedding to John B. McMillan, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert M. McMillan of Southern Pines, takes place next Saturday evening, August 22 in Greensboro, was complimented at a luncheon today given by Mrs. Lamont W. Brown and Mrs. E. Nolley Jackson at the Brown home on East Indiana avenue.

The 28 guests attending included friends from Raleigh,

Greensboro, Carthage and Winston-Salem. Mrs. McMillan and her two daughters, Julia and Mary, will be in Greensboro this Saturday for a luncheon and tea honoring Miss Stokes. Mrs. Laura Stedman of Greensboro and Mrs. B. S. Jones of Leaksville will be hostesses for the luncheon, and Mrs. Henry Latham and Miss Mary Horney are giving the tea

Lattimore Weds
Miss Huffman
In Rowan Church

Charles D. Lattimore of Carthage, Conservation Aid in Moore county since June 1963, was married Sunday to Linda Huffman of Kannapolis. They were married in the old historic Christ Episcopal Church at Cleveland, in Rowan county. Lattimore will leave his present position in mid-September to resume his studies at N. C. State leading to a B.S. degree in agricultural engineering.

+ In And Out Of Town +

Returning home last week after a vacation at Pawley's Island, S. C., were Mr. and Mrs. John C. Ostrom. During their stay there, they had as house guests her daughters, Mrs. John Owseichik, her husband and their children of San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. Henry Ziegler, with Mr. Ziegler and their young son of New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. James Besley have returned from Montgomery, Ala. where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Roy Bowden and family. They went especially to visit their newest grandson, and to bring back to Southern Pines with them for a visit, their grandchildren, Cindy and Steve Bowden. They will be here about two weeks.

Mrs. Eugene McKenzie and her son, Norman, left Wednesday to drive to St. Petersburg, Fla., where they will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Renfrew.

The Rev. and Mrs. Leighton McKeithen of Elk River in town Sunday, visiting friends and relatives. Mr. McKeithen will be guest minister at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church for the worship service Sunday, August 23.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Ray spent the weekend in Greensboro, where he was in the wedding party of Max Waiser and Peggy Kendall, who were married Saturday night. The Waisers are coming to Southern Pines later this week and will be living at 848 North Leak Street. He will teach at Fort Bragg and his bride will be on the faculty of the East Southern Pines elementary school.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith, their four children, and her mother, Mrs. Jennie Teeter, of West End, have returned from a week's vacation at Cherry Grove, S. C.

Returning to their home in Savannah, Ga., are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howard and their children, who will be Sunday overnight visitors with her mother, Mrs. James S. Milliken, en route from a vacation trip to Darien, Conn., where they visited Mrs. Howard's sister, Mrs. Deane M. Evans and family.

On vacation in the Adirondacks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alwin Folley, Jock and Dana attended a two-day Maple Syrup Festival, formerly held in the Spring but changed to summer, and terminated by an oxen roast. With Mrs. Folley and the children is Mrs. Charles Webster.

Mr. Folley returned home Sunday. His family will return after visits with friends in Hanover and Warren, N. H., with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones in New Canaan, Conn., and stopoffs en route to see Mt. Vernon and Williamsburg. On the way to the mountains, the Foleys visited Mr. and Mrs. Wolfgang Lansewische (she is the former Priscilla Coleman of Southern Pines) at their home in Princeton, N. J.

Mrs. Charles A. Pitts and her three children have just returned from about a month at the Coral Ridge Hotel which the Pittses own in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Mrs. Frank Schmeizer and her daughter, Miss Blanche Sherman, returned Saturday from New York State, where they spent two weeks visiting relatives and friends in Genoa and Homer, L. I., and Mrs. C. H. Donnell and children, Douglas and Susan, are arriving tomorrow for a visit with her mother, Mrs. W. T. Medlin, at her home on West Vermont avenue. The Donnells have been stationed in Paris, France for the past three years, but expect to be in Washington, D. C. this fall. They have been spending the past week with his parents in Ardmore, Pa.

Mrs. Sidney Isenberg and children, Sidney and Miriam, of Orange, Ct. arrived Tuesday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Sidney Windham, at her home in Aberdeen. Her sister, Mrs. William Benson, is having a few friends in for coffee Friday morning at her home on North Bennett street to meet and visit with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Harmon and young son, David, have moved from their apartment on Leak Street to Mrs. Charles Loup's home on Midland Road, The Harmonsons are from Statesville and came to Southern Pines last December. He is associated with Professional Management, Inc. Miss Alice Farris of Newport News, Va. is arriving tomorrow evening for a visit of several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marsden L. Farris at their home on Ridge street. She is coming especially for the Tolar-Parks wedding Saturday, when she serves as Miss Tolar's maid-of-honor.

Mrs. C. B. Gale and two grandchildren, Mrs. Donald Traylor, Sr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Chandler, Sr. went to Manteo the first of the week, they attended the play, "Lost Colony," Monday evening and Tuesday, on the way back home, they came by Elizabeth City and had a nice visit with Mrs. Walter Spaeth, Sr. Mrs. Spaeth is a former resident of Southern Pines, when she and the late Mr. Spaeth and their family resided on Ashe Street. Their son, Walter, Jr., is a practicing physician in Elizabeth City.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Ratliff, Jr. are vacationing this week at Cherry Grove beach in South Carolina.

Weekly guests of the Howard Butlers at their home in Weymouth Heights were Mrs. Butler's sister and brother-in-law, the Milton Enkstoms, of Lake Worth, Fla. They were enroute home from California where Mrs. Engstrom was a Florida committeewoman at the Republican National Convention.

Among out of town people here last Thursday for the funeral services of Mrs. Frank E. Walker were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mountcastle, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Noblit, Brockway, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. John Walker and family, Indianapolis, Ind.; Mrs. Nan Taylor, Mrs. Basil Boyd, Stoneboro, Pa.; Mrs. Jean Kaltenbaugh and Mrs. Joan Kaltenbaugh and daughters, Susan and Maxine, Sandy Lake, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Causey and daughters, Helen and Sally, spent last weekend with Mrs. Causey's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Keister, at their island home on Lake Murray, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McDonald and daughter, Laura Lee, of Wilson were guests last weekend of his mother, Mrs. Mildred McDonald. Their young son, Kendall, who had been visiting his grandmother for several days, returned home with them.

Joseph S. Hiatt, III arrives tomorrow from Duke University where he has been attending summer school, and will be with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Hiatt, Jr., at their home on Midland Road for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris L. Hodgkins and Mr. and Mrs. Hodgkins, Jr. were in Charlotte last Saturday for the professional football game.

Paul C. (Pete) Butler, Jr. is arriving tomorrow evening from Portsmouth, Va. for a two week's vacation with his family at their home on Midland Road. Pete, who is on the faculty of Wilson High School in Portsmouth, has been teaching summer school there.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tackabery and children, Bill and Patty, of Libertyville, Ill. were guests of her mother, Mrs. J. I. Neal, for a couple of days last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert McMillan, with Julia, Mary and Robert, spent last week vacationing at Pawley's Island, S. C. at Mrs. Fred Page's cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Cole and children are spending this week in the North Carolina mountains. Last Tuesday and Wednesday mornings, Mrs. Cole entertained at a coffee hour for a large group of friends at her home on North Weymouth road.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin R. Cornell and son, Marvin, Jr., are leaving tomorrow for Islamorada on the Florida Keys for ten days deep sea fishing. Marvin, Jr., a rising junior at Pfeiffer College this fall, is studying marine biology, and the family has been going to Florida for several summers for water sports—particularly fishing for the large species off the coast. Marvin won a trophy last year for catching one of the largest jacks of the season. He is taking scuba diving lessons again this year, also.

Miss Polly Miller left New York City by plane last Friday morning for a two months' tour of the European continent. She is with a group of friends from Statesville. They plan to visit seven or eight countries, and will return to the States about the first of October on the Queen Mary.

Miss Flora Chapman left last week for Canada for a six weeks' visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Meyer and daughter, Leslie, of Allison Park, Pittsburgh, Pa. have returned to their home after a week's stay with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Schumacher, in Knollwood. The Schumachers will have as their guests several days next week, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Barnes of Palm Beach, Fla., who are en route to Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Pollard are leaving tomorrow morning for a week's vacation at Miami Beach, Fla. and a boat trip to the Bahamas. Their daughter, Susan, will spend the week visiting friends in Winston-Salem. Susan, who graduated from Greensboro College in June, plans to teach music in the Hillsboro Junior High school this fall, and will live in Chapel Hill. She spent several weeks this summer as counselor at Camp Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Avery and children, Mike, Pete and Patty, are leaving tomorrow for Sterling, Colorado where they will make their home. Mr. Avery, who has been there for several months getting his new business, Avery Auto Parts, started, came home last Saturday to help get his family moved. They have lived for a number of years at their home on Maples road and have been active in all phases of community life. They are members of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Avery's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Walter S. Sargeant, reside on Pinegrove road.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Hayes, Jr. and children, Peter and Christian, have returned to their home in Weymouth Heights after a week's stay at the Tip-Top Inn, Pawley's Island, S. C.

Miss Karen Botcher of Towson, Md. will be the weekend guests of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Neilsen Botcher at the home of Mrs. Botcher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gordon-Mann, in Knollwood, Mrs. Botcher and baby

Miss Doris Ann Taylor, whose engagement to Aubrey Leon Keith, Jr. is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Watson Taylor, Sr. of Vass, Mr. and Mrs. Keith, Sr. are also of Vass. The wedding is planned for September 27.

MISS DORIS ANN TAYLOR, whose engagement to Aubrey Leon Keith, Jr. is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Watson Taylor, Sr. of Vass, Mr. and Mrs. Keith, Sr. are also of Vass. The wedding is planned for September 27.

DR. COCKBURN WILL BE GUEST SPEAKER AT CHRISTIAN WOMENS CLUB LUNCHEON

Dr. S. Herbert Cockburn, A. B., B. D., ThM and ThD, professor of languages and political science at University of North Carolina and Campbell College, will be the guest speaker at the monthly luncheon meeting of the Sandhills Christian Women's Club to be held at Whispering Pines Restaurant Wednesday, at 12 noon.

Miss Taylor Joins
Friend For Trip
To World's Fair

Miss Mary Ann Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Taylor of Aberdeen, is leaving next Friday by plane for Houston, Tex. where she will join a school friend, Miss Gayle Stokes of Corpus Christi, for a trip to New York City and the World's Fair. The trip for two was won by Miss Stokes, and Mary Ann was the lucky recipient of the invitation to go along for the all-expenses paid week. The girls will be staying at the New York-Hilton hotel.

Upon their return to Texas, Mary Ann will leave from there for Tucson, Ariz., where she enters her senior year at the University of Arizona.

Weekly Notes From United Church of Christ

The sermon theme for Sunday, August 16, "Institution & Faith: A Unique Relationship."

Roger Gibbs, former Choir director now living in Greensboro, will be guest soloist.

Promotion Sunday for Church School is set for August 30.

"Teleprayer" to resume September 1.

The Youth Fellowship Program to reorganize for the winter beginning September 13.

Opening date for weekday kindergarten taught by Mrs. Ralph Chandler, is set for October 1.

daughter are with her parents while her husband Lt. Botcher, is on a tour of duty overseas. Here last weekend from summer school at Chapel Hill was Betty Gordon-Mann, who returns this fall to her studies at Bryan Mawr, Pa.

Guests of their grandmother, Mrs. R. S. Durant, this week are Robbie Durant of Ashboro and Jimmy Durant of Lumberton. The boys, both 12 years old, are sons of Mrs. Durant's sons, Robert and Dick Durant.

Miss Rosie Chandler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chandler, Jr., has arrived home from Cedar Mountain near Brevard, where she was a counselor at the waterfront at Camp Burgis-Glenn this summer. She returns to Meredith College for her senior year this fall. The Chandler's older daughter, Judy, who has been living with them for several months, expects her husband, Airman 2nd Class Kenneth M. Reid, to return home about the first of next month from a tour of duty in Athens, Greece. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reid of Southern Pines.

Guests of the Warren Bells at their Knollwood home this week are Mr. Bell's two nieces, Mary and Ann Bell of South Bend, Ind. and Mr. and Mrs. James Kirk and three children of Pompano Beach, Fla.

Mrs. Hannah Feted
At Bridal Shower

Mrs. Tony Hannah was honored at a bridal shower given Saturday at the Aberdeen Legion Hut by hostesses Mrs. Lee Winecoff, Mrs. J. D. Stephenson and Miss Judy Livengood.

The recent bride was the former Jean Hunsucker, daughter of Mrs. Leroy McInnis of Southern Pines, who was among the 25 guests present.

Decorations were in pink and white and gifts were arranged on a table at the end of the room. Refreshments of punch, cake, mints and nuts were served by the hostesses. Mrs. Winecoff poured punch.

Hamels To Leave
For Memphis For Son's Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald A. Hamel of South Valley Road are leaving Tuesday morning for Memphis, Tenn. to attend the pre-wedding festivities of their son, William, and Miss Linda Lee Wiley, whose marriage takes place next Saturday, August 22 in the McLean Baptist Church there. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brady Wiley of Memphis.

Mr. Hamel's sister, Mrs. Kenneth Witham and daughter, Lynn, of Waterbury, Vt. came down this week for a visit and will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Hamel to Tennessee.

Miss Pearson To Visit Here Enroute
To Atlantic City

Miss Ann Pearson of Sacramento, Calif. is arriving tomorrow (Friday) for a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Annabelle Pearson, at her home on East Connecticut Avenue. Ann is a correspondent for United Press International, with headquarters in California, and is enroute to Atlantic City for the Democratic National Convention.

Miss Pearson also attended the Republican Convention last month. This is the first time in over two years she has visited her home town.

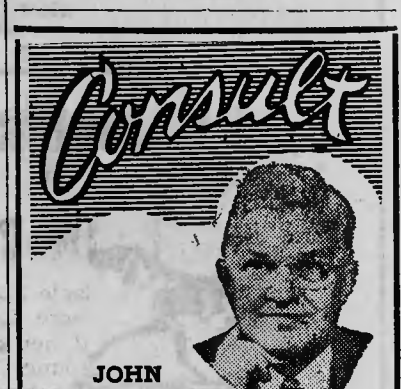

New Heir-Rivals

DEAN WALKER BUCHAN
Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Buchan announce the birth of a son, Dean Walker, on Sunday, August 9, at Moore Memorial Hospital, Pinehurst. The Buchans, who reside on East Connecticut avenue, have four other children, Linda, Pete, Donna and Amy.

Mrs. Donovan Wins
Par Seekers' Event

Mrs. William Donovan took first place in Wednesday's Par Seekers tournament at the Southern Pines Country Club. Tied for second place were Mrs. Roy Grinnell and Mrs. Richard Davis.

The tournament was played according to the Callaway system. With this method, handicaps are based on the day's gross score of each player.

JOHN RUGGLES

About this question
I sneezed and my upper plate flew out the car window and was crushed by a passing car. Can I collect for my loss under the "extended coverage" of my Household Fire Policy, which covers vehicle damage to my personal belongings?
For the answer to your insurance questions feel free to call

Barnum Realty & Insurance Co.
Southern Pines, N. C.
Citizens Bank Bldg.
WE ARE INDEPENDENT AGENTS!

Looking Ahead

WMU MEETS
The WMU of the First Baptist Church will hold a general meeting next Tuesday night, at 8 p.m.

BP&W TO MEET
The Sandhill Business & Professional Women's Club will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday, August 20, at 7:15 p.m., at the Holiday Inn. Dr. Raymond Stone, President of Sandhills Community College, will be the guest speaker. All members are encouraged to attend, and bring guests if they wish.

WOODMEN CIRCLE
All officers and team members of the Woodmen circle are asked to be present at the special meeting in the Woodmen Hall on Monday, August 17 at 8 p.m.

Hollywood Hotel
Resident Back After Visits With Relatives

Mrs. Lloyd Hunt, who makes her home at the Hollywood Hotel, has returned from visiting relatives in Washington, D. C., Santa Barbara, Calif. and Myrtle Beach, S. C.

Bingo Winners
The following were winners at bingo, Saturday night, Miss Hazel Macdonald, Mrs. Sidney Cole, Mrs. Monroe Rule, Mrs. E. F. Bentley, nad Mrs. William Smith.

Folk Singing Group Has Picnic And Get - Together

Guests last weekend of Al Butler and his sister, Jeanne, were Miss Joy Newberry and Rod Page of Lumberton and David Hedrick of Raleigh. It was the first time this summer the boys who are Campbell College students, have been together to practice their folk music, and a small group of their friends were together Saturday evening at the Taylor cabin in Aberdeen for a hamburger supper and "sing."

Miss Mary Ann Taylor and Al were hosts at the picnic. Out of town guests who came especially for the party included Ed Koster, Norfolk, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. John Humphries, Sanford; Miss Sally Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. "Skip" Sickles, Laurinburg; Carl Adams, Raleigh and Mr. and Mrs. Joe McDonald, Wilson. Russell Powell came in later in the evening with his mandolin to join in the "hootenanny."

NEW MATTRESSES
CUSTOM BUILT
PUT YOUR MATTRESS RENOVATING
IN CAREFUL HANDS

SANFORD MATTRESS CO.
Phone 776-1813
Box 672 Sanford, N. C.

PAPERBACKS
Just Naturally Seem To Fit Into
Summer Reading.
We Have A Selection For Most
Every Taste. Stop By STUDIO BOOKSHOP
105 E. Pennsylvania Ave.
Southern Pines

Cosmetic Sale
30%
Reduction
on Brand Name
Cosmetics
Through August

Offering the best pharmaceutical service available anywhere. — 24-hour service

Two Registered Pharmacists On Duty
JOE MONTESANTI, JR. WINSTON BURROUGHS

Broad Street Pharmacy
110 N.W. Broad St. Southern Pines Ph. 695-5411

Annual Midsummer SALE

Sat., Aug. 8
To
Sat., Aug. 22