MOORE COUNTY TOURNAMENT

N. Hodgkins, Jr., Gail Miller Awarded Singles Trophies In Tennis Tourney

Trophies were presented to some of the winners and runners-up in the recent Moore County Tournament at a meeting of the Sandhill Tennis Association last week and Dick Kobleur, president, asked that others who won trophies come to his place of business, The Tog Shop, and get them.

The tournament has been played off over the past two months at times and places convenient to the participants. They were interrupted by the holding of the annual junior and adult Sandhill Invitational tournaments, and final matches were delayed by rains.

N. L. Hodgkins, Jr., was awarded the winner's trophy in men's singles, and Julian Pleasants whom Hodgkins defeated 6-2, 6-0, received the runner-up award.

To be presented later was the winner's trophy in women's singles to Gail Miller, while Hodgkins took with him the runner-up trophy for his wife Sara. Miss Miller's winning score over Mrs. Hodgkins was 6-3, 6-3.

Junior Winners

Keith Gernold and Charles Sneed of Pinehurst received the winner and runner-up trophies respectively in junior boys' singles. To be presented were those in junior girls' singles, Maureen Hassenfelt, winner and Susan Huntley, runner-up.

It was agreed the tournament had been a success despite interruptions, and plans were laid for a doubles tournament that is being run off before college opening time.

Kobleur presided over the meeting, held in the municipal courtroom. Hodgkins reported on the two Sandhill Invationals, junior and adult, held the first two weekends in August, which were among the most successful in the history of these events.

Officials Praised

The junior tournament matched last year's record with an entry list of practically 100, while the adult event had about 75. Hodgkins credited their smooth operation to the well organized work of John McMillan as tournament director. He also praised the excellent endeavors of Mrs. Dorothy McMillan in charge of trophies, and Mrs. Lillian Huntley, in charge of housing.

Only thing wrong was the all-day rain Sunday, August 9, which drowned out all the adult final events. These have been played off at various places about the State as reported in last week's Pilot, and will be completed here September 20, when senior (age 45 and over) singles and doubles will be reed off on the local courts, starting at 2:30 pm.

To Surface Court

Discussion was held of the present primary objective of the association, the all-weather-surfacing of one of the town courts, for which the local group is working to match funds of $1,500 budgeted by the Town. With more than $1,000 in the treasury—reported by Treasurer Bonsal, it was determined the STA still has quite a way to go. To have at least one court hardsurfaced will make play possible all winter and will be economical for the Town in that it will save maintenance costs. Membership fees and contributions are being sought to make up the desired amount. President Kobleur appointed Rocky Bonsal and John Gill McCullen as a fund-raising committee.

LISTEN AND LEARN

In the Philippines, 3,000 isolated villages without electricity have received transistor radios from CARE, so the people can listen to special rural information and education programs. Each radio is a $40 package subscribed by Americans through CARE, New York 10016.
