YOU CAN HELP

The Government will mint 4.3 billion coins this year, and more than twice that many next. But still there is a shortage. You can help alleviate this temporary shortage by keeping the coins you have in circulation.

Funeral Services For J. R. McIntosh Of Lakeview Held

Funeral services for John Robert McIntosh, 55, of Lakeview who was found dead Monday morning near his place of business in Vass, were held Tuesday at 4 pm at Union Presbyterian Church, between Vass and Carthage, conducted by the pastor, the Rev. H. L. Wilson. Burial was in the church cemetery.

A native of Moore County, Mr. McIntosh was owner and operator of McIntosh's service station in Vass. Surviving are his wife, the former Ellen Oldham; three daughters, Mrs. H. Hershel Hughes of Southern Pines and Mrs. Tommy Garner and Miss Estelle McIntosh, both of Lakeview; three grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Katherine Hardee of Vass and Mrs. John Schutte of Southern Pines; and four brothers, Walter, Colon, and James, all of Vass, and Armour, of High Point.

Mr. McIntosh's body was found Monday morning, behind his service station. The death was ascribed to natural causes, by Moore County Coroner W. K. Carpenter of Pinebluff, after examination by a pathologist established that death had occurred at least eight hours before the body was found.
