Here and Away

Here last week visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. P. Thompson, and Mr. and Mrs. True P. Cheney, was former Pinehurst resident, Mrs. Thomas L. Black of Durham.

Thomas R. Rudel of New York City was the weekend guest of his mother, Mrs. C. M. Rudel.

Here this past weekend as guests of the Countess of Carrick were her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schlax, who were en route from their summer home in Cleveland, Ohio, to their winter place at Clearwater Beach, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Porteous have arrived from Portland, Maine, and are occupying their home here for the winter months.

Getting here today, Thursday, from Scituate, Mass., are Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Bartholet and Anne, who will spend about a week with Mrs. Bartholet's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Warren at The Casements.

Mrs. C. Louis Meyer arrived last weekend at her place on the Airport Road for the season. She has been at her home in Lake Forest, Ill.

Mrs. Walter D. Hyatt is back from her summer home at Rangleley Lakes, Maine, and is at her place here for the coming season.

News is half composed of people and events. The other half consists of someone looking at the world around with curiosity and interest.

BARRETT, VEST AGAIN ON TEAM

Basketball Season Starts Friday For Rebels, 1963-'64 State Runners-Up

By GERALD GARNER
On Friday, November 6, the Pinehurst Rebels will take the floor against the warriors of Seagrave High School at Seagrave. This will start the Rebels on another 26 game season which looks as promising as the one of last year.

The Rebels finished the 1963-'64 season with a 34-1 record and the title of State Runner-up. The Rebels have a record of 65 wins against 2 losses for the past two seasons.

Returning from last year's starting lineup will be two seniors, Wiley Barrett, a 6-5 center, who led the Moore County Conference in total points last year, and Don Vest—a 6-2 forward, one of the leading percentage shooters in the Conference. Two more seniors and main substitututes of last year, are Johnny Williamson, 6-foot forward and Mike Lunday—a 6-foot guard.

The other guard spot will be filled by Steve Horner—a 5-11 junior. Supporting these "Five" will be two seniors, Charles Currie and Tony Yearby; five sophomores, Ronnie Currie, Ricky Frye, Hubert Michael, Bobby Hunt and Bobby Beddingfield; and two freshmen, Austin Bryant and Kemper Fitch.

The players are enthusiastic about their chances this season and are expecting their biggest competition from Aberdeen, Southern Pines and Union Pines High Schools.

The Rebels will travel to Hoffman, Wednesday, November 11, and will play their first home game Friday, November 13. The girls' game will start at 7 pm and the boys' game immediately following.

Pinehurst Resident Honored On Birthday

On her 76th birthday, October 25, Mrs. A. E. Teague, who lives in Pinehurst with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John L. McKenzie, was honored at a dinner party in Hamlet. In addition to Mrs. Teague and the McKenzies, other family members present were Mrs. Teague's other daughters, Mrs. Thomas V. Horner of Pinehurst, Mrs. Lewis Frye, her husband and daughter, from Fayetteville, and Mrs. W. Z. Horn and her husband, of Whiteville.

300 LIMIT AT DINNER-DANCE

Decorations chairman for the elegant Candelabra Dinner-Dance, to be held Friday, November 13, at the Pinehurst Country Club, is Mrs. Norman K. Toerge, Jr. Dinner and dancing at the annual fall benefit staged by and for the Moore Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, begins at 8. Table reservations must be made by Thursday, November 12, with Mrs. Daniel O. Delany at 294-7541. Limit for reservations is 300. General chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Taws, Jr. Guests of the Pinehurst hotels are invited to attend the affair, which is for auxiliary members of the country club.

Mrs. Brown Wins Williamson Memorial Trophy

Mrs. J. Stuart Brown, Jr. of Sewickley, Pa. posted 40-42-82 yesterday to take low gross of the field in the sixth Gertrude Jones Williamson Memorial Tournament. The tourney, played on Number One Course, with an entry of 61 members, honors the memory of the first S. F. Club captain.

Pinehurst cottager Mrs. Elbridge S. Sidway and Carolina guest Mrs. Durand Churchill, of New York City, tied at 72 for low net of the field.

A play-off will be held at a later date to determine the winner. In Class A, Pinehurst cottagers Mrs. John W. Rettew, and Mrs. Michael T. Pishko, tied for low net with 73's.

On matching cards backwards according to handicap, Mrs. Rettew was declared first place winner.

Due to the low net of the field playoff between Mrs. Sidway and Mrs. Churchill, 1st and 2nd low net winners in class B and C will be announced later.

Low putts prize was won by Mrs. John W. Lindsay of Pinehurst with 12, 17, 29.

ON FRIDAY

Dedication Of Given Memorial Library Slated

Mrs. Sarah Given Larson of Manchester, Vt., president of the Irene Heinz Given and John La Porte Given Foundation, Inc., will lay the cornerstone and unveil the name plaque tomorrow, Friday, at the dedication marking the official opening of the Given Memorial Library here.

The colonial structure, built by the foundation in the Village Green on land donated by Pinehurst, Inc., is a memorial to Mr. and Mrs. John L. Given, establishers of the foundation, who owned a home here and were among early Pinehurst winter residents.

Other trustees of the Given Foundation who will be present for the dedication, which begins at 11 am, are Mrs. Clifford S. Heinz and Frank Cliffe of Pittsburgh, Pa., Harold W. Conroy and Dr. M. M. Melcove of New York City, Robert J. Bruno of Stamford, Conn., and Eric Nelson of Pinehurst.

Following the dedication ceremonies, there will be open house at the library from 11:30 am to 5 pm and from 7:30 to 9 pm.

THE WINNER'S TROPHY—holding the cup she won Thursday is Mrs. John S. Haskell, 50, of Titusville, Pa., who posted 80-81-84-245 to win the three-day North & South Women's Seniors Invitational at the Pinehurst Country Club. She had never played here before. Tied at 247 for runner-up honors were Miss Betty S. Abernethy of Pittsburgh, Pa. and a former champion, Mrs. Harrison F. Flippin of Douglasville, Pa., who were awarded duplicate prizes. Mrs. J. C. T. Sihler of Simcoe, Ont. and Pinehurst, won low net of the field on a cut of cards. She tied at 222 with Mrs. Donald Baldwin of South Orange, N. J. (Hemmer photo)

Pinehurst School News

By JUDI MCKENZIE and KAYE GILMORE

Election Results
In the mock election held by Pinehurst High School students Tuesday, paralleling the actual voting procedure at the polls, President Johnson received 60 popular votes against Senator Goldwater's 52. In the gubernatorial race, Republican candidate Gavin received a 73 vote against 40 for Democratic candidate Dan Moore.

Science Club News
The Pinehurst High School Science Club executive meeting was held last week to discuss the qualifications for members. A meeting to discuss program ideas is being planned. After these two important meetings, the club can get underway with its activities and projects.

Basketball Game
The first basketball game for the Rebels will be held at Seagrave this Friday night beginning at 7. Everyone is urged to attend this game and boost our ball clubs on to victory!

FHA Rally
Some of the girls from Pinehurst High School attended the district three Future Homemakers of America Rally which was held at 71st High School, near Fayetteville, last Saturday.

The girls were proud to have their president, Janice Fields, on the afternoon program. Janice told of her experiences at the National Convention, held in Chicago the past summer.

Elaine Bryant also deserves recognition for being elected the first alternate parliamentarian in the state.

Entertainment for the rally was provided by two other Pinehurst girls, Sharon McDonald and Debbie Prince.

Pinehurst High School should be and is very proud of its active and progressive Future Homemakers of America club.

Senior Career Day
November 9, at 8:30, the seniors will leave for Union Pines High School to observe Senior Career Day. Representatives from almost all colleges and technical schools in the state will be there to aid the seniors in choosing their colleges and professions.

French Club
The French Club of Pinehurst High School met last Monday in Miss Brewer's home room. As the secretary called the roll, the members answered by quoting in French, a proverb or maxim.

The program theme was "French Impressionist Artists." Several of the second-year French students gave reports on such painters as Degas, Renoir, Monet, etc.

The treasurer, Mike Lewis, was appointed chairman of a committee to propose money-making plans for the club this year.

Pecos Pete Visits PHS
A favorite television character really came to life for the children, grades 1-7 at Pinehurst School last week.

Pecos Pete, a well known partner of the Old Rebel on WFMV-TV, Greensboro, visited the children at the request of Mrs. Livengood, a fifth grade teacher of Pinehurst School.

Pecos presented a health and safety program last Thursday as the young admirers watched in awe. By using magic, Pecos Pete showed the children the danger of playing with matches and fire. While presenting a demonstration of gun safety, he fired his six-shooter, and a few of the fortunate boys and girls participated in parts of the demonstrations. As Pecos played his guitar, the children sang with him, his famous theme song.

It is surely safe to say that the children at Pinehurst School will not soon forget this day.
