PAS DE TROIS—Three local young people took time out from their busy schedules to pose together at St. Anthony's School Auditorium. The three, from left, Mikki Ballard, Anna Dell Smith and Buddy Smith, are members of the N. C. State Ballet Company and will take part in the two performances of the company next Wednesday, November 18, at the Pinehurst School Auditorium. Mikki, daughter of Maj. and Mrs. Robert S. Ballard, studied for five years with the Krasnoff Studio in Albuquerque, N. M., when her father was stationed at Saudia Base. He is presently with the 18th Airborne Corps at Fort Bragg. Mikki, a sixth grader at St. Anthony's School here, is 11. She will dance with the Ballet's Junior Company at the free matinee performance for students of the Moore County schools. Anna Dell and Buddy, children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, are both students at the Southern Pines High School. Members of the NCSBC's First Company, they will appear in the company's Showcase performance, which begins at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday. There are a few tickets left and these will be sold at the door on the night. Mrs. Alfred N. Derouin of Pinehurst is NCSBC president. (Pilot photo)

Clubwomen Tour Furniture Stores

Home demonstration club members and their guests toured two furniture stores at Carthage Monday, following up a study of woods and furniture styles which had been made in their club work.

R. G. Frye conducted the tour at the Carthage Furniture Store, which was remodeled from the fine old T. B. Tyson mansion, and at the Marion Furniture Store, L. L. Marion, owner, had several assistants. These were representatives of Black's Upholstering Shop at Landis, Bassett Furniture Co. and Sandhills Furniture Co., who showed samples of their products.

The tour was valuable in teaching the homemakers how to plan their furniture purchases and to know good style and quality, said Mrs. Jean Hubbard, home economics agent.

CAROLINA BANK

A charter was obtained June 17, 1914, and a lot was purchased where the bank's home was built, next to that where the present building stands.

The Bank of Pinehurst opened its doors for business November 5, 1914, with F. W. VonCanon as cashier. Charles B. Hudson was the first depositor.

So far as can be determined, only one of the original stockholders, Dr. Myron W. Marr, of Pinehurst, is still living.

The business grew steadily and by 1919, the deposits had grown to $345,000. In line with sound banking principles additional stock was issued to make a total of $100,000. The capital stock is now $400,000.

Thriving Institution
The Carolina Bank today is a thriving institution with total assets of over $12,700,000. It has loans in excess of $5,300,000, deposits of over $11,200,000, and capital and reserves of over $1,200,000.

Officers of the bank are: Wilbur H. Currie, president; Joe H. Allen and E. O. Freeman, vice presidents; L. B. Creath, executive vice president, who are also directors, along with J. B. Edwards, J. Hawley Poole, J. M. Taylor, William C. Sledge, Earl McDonald, Neill M. McKeithen and H. Clifton Blue.

The bank has had only four presidents in its 50-year history: John R. McQueen, F. W. VonCanon, Richard S. Tufts and Wilbur H. Currie.

L. B. Creath, executive vice president, joined the staff in August, 1943, succeeding F. Shelburne as executive vice president in early 1945.

Jack Morgan of Vass is vice Jr., W. A. Johnson, Jr., J. H. Assistant to Mr. Creath, and is in charge of loans. Neill E. McKay, of Southern Pines, is also a vice president.

The Pinehurst personnel includes: Thomas J. Connolly, assistant vice president; Jack B. Bryan, cashier, and Mrs. Ann Bryant, Mrs. Mary J. Crissman, Mrs. Catherine Cole, Mrs. Dorothy Cameron, Mrs. Doris Dennis, Mrs. Dana Frye, Miss Patsy Michael, Mrs. Sarah Moore, Miss Maggie McKenzie, J. T. Shepherd, MISS SARAH MAE WADDELL is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Waddell of Southern Pines, who announce her engagement to Don Carlos McNeill, son of Mrs. Laura McNeill of Winston-Salem. The bride-elect is a graduate of the West Southern Pines High School and attended Winston-Salem State College. Mr. McNeill is a graduate of Dudley High School, Greensboro, and also attended Winston-Salem State. A December 27 wedding is planned.

McCaskill Will Again Head Moore March Of Dimes

J. Frank McCaskill of Pinehurst will again serve as Moore County March of Dimes director for the 1965 campaign, to be held in January, according to Paul Butler, chairman of the Moore County Chapter of The National Foundation-March of Dimes.

In announcing the appointment, Butler said, "We are fortunate in having a man of Mr. McCaskill's leadership abilities to direct the Moore County's efforts against birth defects which afflict one out of every ten American families."

Mr. McCaskill, owner and operator of the Pinehurst Laundry, has directed the March of Dimes campaign in Moore County for the past eight years.

Aberdeen School News

Last week Mr. Utley's ninth grade Civics class started working on a special project for the semester. This project is a study of Aberdeen and Pinebluff's history, businesses, civic organizations, government organizations and the population. The basic purpose of this project is to get a greater understanding of civic life. The total current history or information about Aberdeen and Pinebluff will be compiled into one document. The student will turn to the citizens of their community for information, material and assistance. The ninth graders would like to thank all of the people who have already contributed to the success of this project.

Before last week's election Mr. Jr., Richard Highland, and on the management committee, Harris Blake, J. W. Sheffield, W. J. Morgan, W. C. Sledge and L. E. Creath.

The Aberdeen office includes: Francis Pleasants, cashier; Robert C. Tallon, assistant vice president; Mrs. Ethel M. Pleasants, assistant cashier, and Mrs. Nell Bowman, Mrs. Grace Houston, Mrs. Patsy H. Richmond, Mrs. Jane Sessoms, and Miss Susan Steimle. C. L. Guion, J. D. McLean, J. M. Taylor, E. O. Freeman and J. B. Edwards are members of the management committee.

At Carthage, the staff includes: Wilton Brown, vice president; and Richard W. Blue, Mrs. Marion Brown, Mrs. Gail Pressley, Miss Ann Shaver, Mrs. Barbara Whitaker and Mrs. Elizabeth Williams. Clinton P. Campbell, Joe H. Allen, Wilbur H. Currie, Earl McDonald and C. M. Patterson are on the management committee.

At Vass, J. Elvin Jackson is cashier, with W. B. Frye as assistant. Others: Mrs. Joanne Atkins, Miss Carol Foster and Mrs. Jo Ann Hipp. The Vass management committee consists of A. L. Keith, Paul Thomas, M. W. Harbour and N. M. McKeithen.

At the West End office, the personnel includes: Billy McKenzie, assistant vice president, and Mrs. Alda M. Blue and Mrs. Elizabeth W. Pusser. On the management committee are A. A. McDonald, W. M. Thompson, r., W. A. Johnson, Jr., J. H. Poole and Lynn Martin.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Cadette Girl Scout Troop 393 of Pinehurst had a busy month of October, according to reported Linda Maness, who has contributed the following account of the various activities. Mrs. Pauline Ballard is troop leader.

On October 5, Mrs. J. C. Grier, Jr. told us about our overnight camping trip, to be held the following Friday. Everyone immediately started making plans for the weekend campout.

On Friday, the troop met at the Community Church after school in their camping clothes.

Dr. Stone Speaks At Civic Club On Proposed College

Dr. Raymond Stone, president of the Sandhills Community College, spoke at the meeting last Monday of the East Southern Pines Civic Club. An interested audience enjoyed hearing about the proposed new community college, to be built near Pinehurst, not far from the Southern pines - Pinehurst Airport.

This will be a junior college, said the speaker, taking high school graduates for the first two years of college work and serving also the needs of all adults in a large variety of subjects, these to include nursing, medical and laboratory technicians, trade courses, civil engineering and adult education, with both full and part-time staffs.

There will be no dormitories, Dr. Stone said, which will make the tuition charge very reasonable as Moore County students will live at home and commute.

Mrs. John Cline, Mrs. Harry Gebhard, Mrs. W. O. Spence and Mrs. M. E. Arhart served tea. Mrs. Gebhard poured and Mrs. Dean Dorman provided flower arrangements.

FORMALLY 'CAPPED' AT AGNES SCOTT

Nancy Jane Auman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Auman of West End, was "invested" last weekend during the traditional capping ceremony of Investiture weekend at Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Ga.

In this ceremony the academic cap is formally bestowed on each member of the senior class, in recognition of the attainment of senior status. Dr. Eleanor Hutchins, associate professor of English, made the address for the Investiture Service Saturday, and Rev. Thomas H. McDill, Jr., of Columbia Theological Seminary, preached the Investiture sermon Sunday.

From the church, we hiked the road by the Carolina Hotel, through Marshall Park, past the Woman's Exchange, past the golf course to the dirt road which finally led us to our destination—Camp Gertrude Tufts, where we camped overnight under the supervision of Dr. and Mrs. Grier. We learned many camping skills by preparing two delicious meals. We had a beautiful fire for our evening ceremony. The girls slept on cots in tents, five girls to a tent. We left soon after breakfast, leaving the camp as tidy as it had been when we arrived.

On October 11, Mrs. G. B. Baines, a nurse at Moore Memorial Hospital, came and talked to us about First Aid skills in emergencies. This information helped the girls on the emergency preparedness challenge and the First Aid Badge on which they have been working.

Our Scouts are also selling all occasion cards, calendars, thank-you notes, napkins and stationery, at reasonable prices. The cards, stationery and thank-you notes can be monogrammed, if desired. We have a wide selection of these items.

Garden Club Replants All Window Boxes

The Southern Pines Garden Club has re-planted all the window boxes in the business district, some 85 in all, with attractive evergreens and other appropriate plants, and the members plan to keep them in good condition during the coming year.

However, said Mrs. Dorothy McMillan, club president, they can't get around to perform such routine chores as watering the plants, and they are requesting that the merchants look after this themselves.

Plants, plant food and other expenses of the window boxes have cost the Garden Club about $1,200 and will cost more, so the merchants are asked to do their part to keep them attractive with regular watering.

Mark J. King, Jr. presented his picture program, "A Trip to Hawaii," Tuesday afternoon at the monthly meeting of St. Joseph's Hospital Guild, held at the hospital. Guild president Mrs. Audrey K. Kennedy presided and Mrs. Herbert Todd was hostess.

Members discussed plans for the annual buffet and card party, to be held December 9 at the Mid Pines meeting hall. Mrs. Frank Cosgrove is chairman of this benefit.

Mr. Himmeltreib Passes Monday

Christian Science service for Harry Himmeltreib, 70, of Whispering Pines, who died Monday at the Pinehurst Nursing Home, was read Wednesday afternoon at the Powell Funeral Home by Roland Delano of Pinebluff. Burial was in Mt. Hope cemetery.

Mr. Himmeltreib, who formerly owned and operated a department store in Michigan, sold his business and retired two years ago, moving to Whispering Pines to make his home with his half-sister, Mrs. Robert T. Morse, and her husband. He became a patient at the nursing home about a year ago.

He was a native of Pennsylvania, a veteran of World War I and member of the American Legion. Several brothers and sisters survive, also the half-sister Mrs. Morse.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Alice B. McNeill wishes to express their thanks to the staff of Moore Memorial hospital, neighbors, friends, relatives and casual acquaintances for their very generous kindnesses and thoughtfulness, with gifts, cards, flowers and food, during the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother. May God bless you all.
