JODY SCULL IS EAGLE SCOUT. In a ceremony at Antioch Presbyterian church, Hoke county, last Tuesday night, Mrs. John Scull of Raeford pins the coveted badge on her son while his father looks proudly on. Also proud of Jody were his grandmother, Mrs. Walter Edwards, and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Ruggles, all of Southern Pines. Jody, whose mother, the former Eleonor Edwards, lived here before her marriage, is a member of Troop 410 of the Cape Fear Valley Council, a sophomore at Hoke County High school, and member of the Key Club, Junior Classical League and Junior Varsity football team.

Arctic Hills, Owned By Mrs. Cardy, Earns $17,350 In Race At Woodbine

Arctic Hills, a colt owned by Mrs. Vernon G. Cardy, former Sandhills resident who was prominent several years ago in equestrian activities here, captured the 74th running of the Breeder Stakes at Woodbine, Ontario, Canada, last month.

Ridden by Dick Armstrong, Arctic Hills earned $17,350 for his owner, scoring a half-length victory over Willow Downs Farm's Fast Answer on the mile and a half turf course.

Arctic Hills comes into the news again this week, with nomination to run in the Mason-Dixon Handicap $20,000 added for three-year-olds at Laurel Md., Saturday, November 7. The race will be one mile on the turf.

The Breeders Stakes is the third leg of the "Canadian Triple Crown." Including his victory in that race, Arctic Hills had earned $30,564 this year. Mrs. Cardy and her husband, who is president of the Cardy-Alpine Inn at Ste. Marguerite Station in the Laurentian Mountains of Quebec, formerly owned the training farm, off Bethesda Road, that is now the property of Miss Eleonora Sears.

Under the Cardy ownership, the place was known as Vernon Valley Farms. Miss Sears renamed it The Paddock, a title it has borne before. Mr. Cardy bought it after World War II.

MOORE RECORDERS COURT

Proable Cause Found On Arson Charge Against Sanford Man; Three Acquitted

Probable cause on a charge of arson was found in Moore Recorder's Court at Carthage Monday against William Hayden Harrison, 26, of 107 North 2nd St., Sanford. He was accused of setting fire to the dwelling of his parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bennett of Highway 27 west of Carthage, where his wife and three young children, along with her parents, were sleeping the night of October 26.

Judge J. Vance Rowe ordered the release of Ray Worley, 32, of Sanford, George White, 36, of Sanford Rt. 6 and John Wade White, 24, of Olivia, as he found no probable cause against them on charges of aiding and abetting in the arson attempt. All four men pleaded not guilty.

Chief Deputy Sheriff H. H. Grimm testified concerning the fire, which was put out by neighbors before it damaged the house greatly, and read a statement which had been signed by Harrison to the effect that he had been drinking that night, and that he had set the fire to try and frighten his wife into coming back to him.

Harrison took the stand and admitted going to the Bennetts' late that night and piling kindling wood against the rear of the house. However, under instructions from his court-appointed lawyer, he declined to be more specific. He also responded vaguely to questions of the prosecution designed to implicate the three other men with whom he had admittedly driven to or near the Bennett home.

Testimony of Ray Worley was that he had driven Harrison and the others in his car that night, but that he thought Harrison meant only to "talk things over" with his separated wife. He said he parked some distance down the road, at a spot where Harrison later returned to the car, because he thought "there might be a fight" and he didn't want to get involved.

Judge Rowe ordered Harrison held for grand jury action at the criminal term of Moore superior court next week, setting no bond for him. He was tried Monday also on a charge of abandonment and non-support of his wife and three young children, aged two, four and five. He had been arrested first on a capias on this charge following the arson attempt, and the warrant for arson had been served on him in Moore County Jail.

Pleading not guilty, he was found guilty and sentenced to six months on the roads, suspended on payment of costs and $25 per week toward his family's support. The defendant notified of appeal and bond in this case was set at $350, which he did not immediately make.

Other cases disposed of Monday: Judson Maynard Key, Carthage Rt. 3, driving without license, prayer for judgment continued on payment of $15 and costs; Jerry Mark Buchanan, Lillington Rt. 3, speeding 65 in 55-mile zone, $10 and costs; Benjamin David Sineath, Carthage, driving while drunk, unlawful possession of illicit whiskey, 60 days or $150 and costs, license suspended; James Hoover Patterson, Vass Rt. 2, driving without license, prayer for judgment continued on payment of $10 and costs; John Irving Jones, Southern Pines, speeding 85 in 55-mile zone 60 days or $50 and costs, license suspended; Lonnie Buck Lee, Eastwood, public drunk, disorderly conduct, 30 days suspended for six months on payment of $25 and costs, not to appear in public place in drunken condition; Josiah Thomas Spence, Eagle Springs RFD, driving while drunk, pleaded nolo contendere to careless and reckless driving which the State accepted, 30 days or $25 and costs, defendant to pay or cause to be paid damage to other car; Nelson Marsh, temporary larceny of auto, judgment absolute against bondsman.
