Sanford

and gone, but the spirit of love and joy continues with the beauty of Christmastime expressed on the doors and in the homes; with the continuous bubble of excitement within the hearts of the children; and with many persons from far and near united with their families and friends during this joyous season celebrating the birth of the Christ Child.

As always, the churches of Aberdeen helped to center the thoughts of their community on the true meaning of Christmas.

First Baptist Church had special Christmas music on Sunday evening before Christmas and the annual Christmas party for the children on Wednesday evening before Christmas.

Page Memorial Methodist Church highlighted their services of worship during the Advent Season with music especially adapted for the season.

Bethesda Presbyterian Church held its annual Joy Gift service on Sunday afternoon before Christmas with a lovely service in Scripture and Song. Following this, the entire church family gathered in the Fellowship Hall for a sandwich supper, with cake and punch provided by the Women of the Church. The children and youth choirs then went caroling in the community and the hospitals. A Christmas morning service was held at Bethesda Friday morning.
