Miss Rogers and Mr. Garrison Wed At Her Aunt's Home Christmas Eve

A Christmas Eve home wedding united Miss Susan Jo Rogers and Wesley M. Garrison, both of Pinehurst. The Rev. W. K. Fitch, Jr., pastor of Culdee Presbyterian Church, officiated at the ceremony, held at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Sgt. and Mrs. Dillard Southers.

After six months' service with the National Guard, the bridegroom, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Garrison of Pinehurst, is employed at the Carolina Hotel. The bride is a senior at the Pinehurst High School. The couple is living here.

A reception for about 25 guests followed the wedding ceremony, which was held in the den in front of the fireplace. Decorations of red and white carnations were used in the den and in the dining room, where the reception was held.

The bride, who was escorted by her husband-to-be, wore a floor length white satin gown, a fingertip veil of illusion, and carried red sweetheart roses. She designed and made her wedding gown.

Her attendant, Miss Nancy Lea of Pinehurst, wore a dress of green satin and carried a nosegay of red and white carnations. Billy Cole of Pinehurst was best man.
