VOL.-45 No. 34

TWENTY PAGES

PRICE: 10 CENTS

Sandhill Furniture Co. Of West End Sold To Big Stanley Firm, Virginia

Furniture Co. by members of the VonCanon family to the Virginia

The Sandhill Co., nationally known manufacturer of bedroom and dining-room furniture, and known as "the world's largest

Public Invited To Camp Easter Open Wight, vice-president and secretary; H. Keith Williams, vice-president and plant manager; Eugene G. White, Jr., controller; W. J. Sutphin egistent with the president and plant manager; Eugene G. White, Jr., controller; W. J. Sutphin egistent with the president and plant manager; Eugene G. White, Jr., controller; W. J. Sutphin egistent with the president and secretary in the president and plant manager; Eugene G. White, Jr., controller; W. J. Sutphin equal to the president and plant manager; Eugene G. White, Jr., controller; W. J. Sutphin equal to the president and plant manager; Eugene G. White, Jr., controller; W. J. Sutphin equal to the president and plant manager; Eugene G. White, Jr., controller; W. J. Sutphin equal to the president and plant manager; Eugene G. White, Jr., controller; W. J. Sutphin equal to the president and plant manager; Eugene G. White, Jr., controller; W. J. Sutphin equal to the president and plant manager; Eugene G. White, Jr., controller; W. J. Sutphin equal to the president and plant manager; Eugene G. White, Jr., controller; W. J. Sutphin equal to the president and plant manager; Eugene G. White, Jr., controller; W. J. Sutphin equal to the president and plant manager; Eugene G. White, Jr., controller; W. J. Sutphin equal to the president and plant manager; Eugene G. White, Jr., controller; W. J. Sutphin equal to the president and plant manager; Eugene G. White, Jr., controller; W. J. Sutphin equal to the president and plant manager; Eugene G. White, Jr., controller; W. J. Sutphin equal to the president and plant manager;

All interested persons in Moore treasurer. County are invited to an Open | The Stanley expansion is the event have been sent out over braced a new office building, the state, she said, and several completed in July, 1964, and a hundred persons are expected to completed in 1963. The company in the big new lodge at the camp, The more than 30 children at the camp for the second of three 10- School Calendar For day sessions will continue their activities during the afternoon.

Hosts for the occasion are the officers and directors of the ciety, with their husbands and including the dates of Christmas the county board also hold membership on the state board, W. P. Davis and Mrs. Graham Cul-

Comprising the host group will be: Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Davis, Dr. Mark Liddell, Dr. Vida McLeod, Mrs. Graham Culbreth and Sam-

MRS. F. G. LOGUE

Florida Accident Fatal For Local Resident, Sunday

Mrs. Elizabeth Mulligan Logue of Inverness Road died Sunday morning of injuries received mitted June 28 near Pinehurst, when the Volkswagen station and an attack with a hammer on wagon in which she, her husband, an elderly woman which resulted Frank G. Logue, and four chil- in her death two days later, were dren, were driving from Southern Pines to St. Petersburg, Fla., left Chief Deputy H. H. Grimm at the road and overturned in Seriously injured in the early thage, Saturday. Sunday morning accident was the couple's daughter, Joann, 11, who was treated at Starke and then was taken by ambulance to a Baltimore, Md., hospital.

of Southern Pines for close to the Lexie Smith store and service two years. They moved here from Baltimore when Mr. Logue of about $500 in cash and checks and the murder of Mrs. Smith. with Proctor-Silex. They are members of St. Anthony's Catho-

Mrs. Logue was active in St. Anthony's Women's Club, the grand jury action at the August term of Moore County Superior the Girl Scouts.

Survivors are her husband, four sons, Mark, 17, Jack, 14, Jim, eight, and Bryan, three; two daughters, Mary Beth, 20, and Joann, 11. and two brothers. Funeral services and burial took place today in Baltimore.

THE WEATHER

peratures for each day of the past their trial in August, if indicted week were recorded as follows at then by the grand jury, as exthe U. S. Weather Bureau obser- pected. vation station at the W E E B studios on Midland Road.

SOUTHERN PINES, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 8, 1965

TWENTY PAGES

General Assembly.

30 cents per $100 valuation.

seven-member board.

West End committee.

State Senator Voit Gilmore,

meeting briefly with the commissioners, went over the bill, sec-

ing with them on their invitation were Jere McKeithen, chairman

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16

County-wide Vote

On School System

Merger, Tax Set

An announcement this week | space. from Thomas B. Stanley, Jr., president of the Stanley Furniture Co. at Stanleytown, Va., confirmed what West End resident of the manufacturing marketing or the manufacturing, marketing dents had been hearing for some and distributing operations, actime—the sale of the Sandhill cording to the announcement. Included in the transaction were two other corporations, with manufacturing hardwood dimension stock. New officers of the firm have been named as follows: Thomas manufacturer of beds," has for B. Stanley, Sr., who is a former many years been the economic governor of Virginia, chairman of the board and treasurer; It employs about 300 people and has 180,000 square feet of floor dent; John David Stanley, executive vice-president; H. N.

W. J. Sutphin, assistant vice-pres-House On Sunday secretary-treasurer, and Roy Swearingen, assistant secretary-plants at Maxton and Gibson,

House at Camp Easter in the latest of a series that started in Pines, just north of Southern 1957, when their Plant No. 2, Pines, Sunday, July 11, from 2 to with 300,000 feet of floor space, 4 pm, Mrs. Mark Liddell, coorwas built. Several additions have dinator of the camp, said this been made to the plant since the n. Some 2,000 invitations to the Most recent expansions emcamp for handicapped persons that is owned by the North Carolina Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Refreshments will be served than $35 million.

'65-'66 Again Listed

The calendar of important dates of the 1965-'66 school year Moore County chapter of the So- for the Southern Pines schools wives, of which Mark Liddell is and Spring vacations—appears again on page 17.

The Pilot has received some and Mrs. H. A. Peck, Mr. and the Christmas holiday ("Close Mrs. E. J. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Dec. 21—Re-open Dec. 29"). Supt. queries about the listed dates of W. E. Samuels, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jenkins confirmed this week these dates are correct.

PLAYOFFS PLANNED

Committees are working on Thursday. plans for the Little League baseplans for the Little League base-ball area playoffs to be held events per player, 340 entries defend its principles and prohere July 21-23, sponsored by the from 157 individual players—117

Merchants Council Full details will be announced next week.

WATERMELON TIME— Lt. Gov. Robert W. Scott of Haw River (center) and his daughter, Susan, 8, sample the watermelon at Saturday's patriotic raily here, when Scott gave the main address. At left is Dr. Raymond A. Stone of Southern Pines, president of Sandhills Community College, who was master of ceremonies for the event at the Southern Pines Country

Many Youngsters

Here For Junior

Tennis Tourney

other finals are expected to be used for the final events.

Club - Elks Lodge picnic area. Mrs. Scott accompanied her husband to Southern Pines but Susan was the only one of their five children with them. The others are Mary and Meg, nineyear-old twins; Kerr Scott II, named for his grandfather, the late governor and senator, and Janet, two years old.

(Humphrey photo)

AT PATRIOTIC GATHERING HERE

Lt. Gov. Scott Says Pioneer Spirit Still Lives In Actions Taken Today

The N. C. State Junior Closed tournament, largest tennis meet with speeches and watermelon pioneering spirit of our forefathever held in the Sandhills, opened for everybody, was held here Sat- ers is still with us, but exemplihere Tuesday and is well under urday afternoon, featuring a visit fied in different ways, day) morning, as a result of Wednesday night's downpour.

The tribute Definition Frecinct
Committee of which Woodrow McDonald is chairman Other McDonald is chairman. Other One division, the boys' singles precinct officials, county office 12-and-under, had played its holders and visitors joined local rooms, free elementary textquarterfinals, with semifinals set area for the festivities As printed last week, the calHodgkins, Jr., tournament chairStone, president of Sandhills Presiding, Dr. Raymond A. endar contained a typographical error in the days named for the Pinehurst courts will probably of the rally when he read sections heliday.

Hodgkins, Jr., tournament chair-broken contained a typographical man. Both Southern Pines and Community College, set the tone pinehurst courts will probably of the rally when he read sections from the Declaration of Inc. tions from the Declaration of In-The 12-and-under and 14-and- dependence and the late Presiunder boys' singles opened the dent John F. Kennedy's inaugural tournament Tuesday, with the boys' 16-an-unders and 18-and- Introd Introduced by State Sen. Voit unders. and girls' singles in all Gilmore of Southern Pines as a four divisions, getting under way young man who is "already a Wednesday. Doubles in all eight great North Carolinian and one divisions were booked to start who is close to Moore County," Lt. Gov. Scott said, "There is no

Merchants Council. Full details boys and 40 girls from all parts He praised the U. S. Congress

An old-fashioned patriotic In- calling these bodies "democracy dependence Day rally, complete at its best," and said that the Sponsoring the event was the he said, were such actions of the men of the Southern Pines and start building the Area III high thorizing 600 hospital beds for to attend but were out of town subject only, he said, to delays retarded children, funds for school science labs and classpeople at the Southern Pines books and hot lunches for all for Friday and finals Saturday. Country Club-Elks Lodge picnic pupils, reduction of class size in the 1st through 3rd gra additional highway patrolmen and other items of legislation.

One of the nation's great challenges, he said, is to see that traditional freedoms and institutions-such as the two-party

North Carolinians and American," he concluded.

The lieutenant governor was accompanied by his wife and eight-year-old daughter, Susan, one of the Scotts' five children. Highlights of the program were presentations of locally produced gifts to the visitors — a Proctor-Silex iron to Mr. Scott and an orchid to his wife. (See accompanying photo).

Introduced and speaking brief-y was Clyde Auman of West End, Moore County representa-tive in the General Assembly. Pinedene Precinct Committee members comprised the arrangements committee. All present and introduced they are, in addition to chairman McDonald, Mrs. Stanley Austin, Mrs. Henry Graves, John A. McPhaul, and (Continued on Page 8)

NEED IS GREAT

Connolly Named Co-Chairman Of Blood Program

Thomas J. Connolly of Pine-hurst has been named county cochairman of the Red Cross blood program, John Dibb of Southern Pines, county chairman, announced this week.

Also, he said, Joseph Sime, manager of the Pinehurst Motor Lodge, between Southern Pines and Aberdeen, has been appointed Southern Pines chairman.

four talks per week to civic clubs, in the coming two weeks, asking support of the blue specific control of the blue specific contro asking support of the blood program, prior to collections set at Carthage July 22 and at Southern Pines July 23.

He said there is danger of losing the program unless blood donations increase. For the year ending June 30, he noted, Moore County donations were short 369 pints of the amount used by this

The Moore County commission- places. rs, in regular meeting at Carth-Concern was expressed over age Tuesday (after Monday's misapprehensions which appearholiday) set Saturday, October ed to be continuing in the lower 16, for the countywide school part of the county that the city vote authorized by the recent units' tax supplements would be spread out over the rest of the The vote will be on two issues, county" and that "the county the merger of the three school doesn't have enough funds to administrative units operating in build the Area III school and just the county into one, and a school wants to get the city units in tax supplement with ceiling of to spend their school bond money.

The vote, if passed, would merge the city units of Southern Emphasis was placed on that section of the bill which states Pines and Pinehurst with that of that "tax supplement funds dethe Moore County system, to be rived from any area will be exadministered in three "areas" by pended only within that area." reorganized and expanded Such funds, as now, would be transmitted directly to the separate school committees by the county auditor, to be expended by them as budgeted by them, and without passing through the tion by section, as finally revised hands of the county board. They and enacted into law. Also meetwill be used for enrichment and expansion of the state-paid programs.

of the county board of education; Joe Lennon, chairman of the com-McKeithen noted that "we have bined Aberdeen-West End school $847,000 in county school bonds left for the Area III school, with committee; Kimes Blake, chair-$613,000 worth of state school man of the West End school committee, and T. J. Baldwin, of the bonds available as of July 1, and the expectation of capital outlay way, plagued by rain which disrupted early schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and again held up play this (Thursbare Democratic Precinct The schedules and the s funds from the county in the next two years' budgets. We could (Continued on Page 8)

BUT OPERATING BUDGET RAISED

$20,000 Marked For County Library Not Enough To Assure Federal Grant

The county commissioners up to three years to budget their meeting at Carthage Tuesday, ex- 69 per cent share ($75,077), thus system and freedom of elections and the press—are defended.
"We want our children and grandchildren to be able to hold their heads high proud to be system and freedom of elections and the press—are defended.

"We want our children and grandchildren to be able to hold their heads high proud to be system and freedom of elections and the press—are defended.

"We want our children and getting a $6,000 regional grant, but said they didn't believe they their heads high proud to be system and freedom of elections and the press—are defended.

"We want our children and grandchildren to be able to hold their heads high proud to be system and freedom of elections and the press—are defended.

"We want our children and grandchildren to be able to hold their heads high proud to be system and freedom of elections and the press—are defended.

"We want our children and grandchildren to be able to hold their heads high proud to be system and the press—are defended.

"We want our children and grandchildren to be able to hold the proud to be system and freedom of elections and the press—are defended.

"We want our children and grandchildren to be able to hold the proud to be system and freedom of elections and the press—are defended.

"We want our children and grandchildren to be able to hold the proud to be system and the press.

"This is the pressed willingness to up the bound of the bull to be system."

"This is the pressed willingness to up the bull to build a $116,000 library. This particular federal program, Evans but said they didn't believe they be system."

"This is the pressed willingness to up the bull to build a $116,000 library. This particular federal program, Evans but said they didn't believe they be system."

"This is the pressed willingness to up the bull to build a $116,000 library. This particular federal program, Evans but said they didn't believe they be system." could find the money for the pressed the commissioners' recounty's full share in financing grets as they apparently closed a new building, at this time. W. S. Evans of Robbins, library this time, though they said they board chairman, told the com-missioners it had been found the and give a definite answer later. $20,000 budgeted toward the construction would not be enough to secure the necessary federal

In signing a "Letter of Intent" one month ago, the commissioners had hoped they could take

Contract Awarded On Work At Post Office

George E. Jensen, Contractor, library board has an option on a Inc., of Mobile, Ala., has been site in downtown Carthage, pricawarded the contract on pro- ed at $10,000. posed repairs and improvements at the local post office, J. Elvin commissioners in their new bud-Jackson, chairman of the Moore County Democratic Executive ped the library's operating bud-Committee, announced this week. Amount of the successful bid, $61,665, was less than govern-the purpose, and for the use and respect of all the citizens." If they can't do better at this time, the expectation was they would place the $20,000 on reserve for later use, or perhaps go ahead and buy the lot. The

the door on the construction at

"We know you can't just throw up four walls and a roof and call it a library," Currie said. "It has to be built to a special design for

On request of the board, the get, tentatively adopted, had upment estimates on the project. grant, dependant on a 50 cents W. Morris Johnson, local post-per capita expenditure. With master, said today he has not Montgomery County budgeting been notified when work would 55 cents per capita, Richmond (Continued on Page 8)

PARADE, CONTESTS, DANCE HELD

Lang Speaks, 'Miss Aberdeen' Chosen As Large Crowds Attend Program

Celeste Green, brown-haired Aberdeen High School senior, was crowned "Miss Aberdeen Fourth of July" by "Miss North Carolina," Penny Clark of Sanford, as climax to an all-day Independence Day celebration.

distinguished Moore County native son, "sky divers," hamburgers and hot dogs, and feats and contests of all sorts, including swimming races, at the park and lake.

Thousands of Sandbills again.

Two of Celeste's schoolmates, Gail Gschwind and Lea Caviness, were first and second runners-up, respectively, in the beauty contest, held at the school auditorium instead of an outdoor pavilion because of threats of rain. The auditorium was filled to capacity, with many standing. The rain held up for the schedcounty's hospital patients, with uled fireworks on the town park 1,528 pints used and 1,159 col- and a street dance, fittingly after World War II. We learned ected. winding up the community's then that the burdens of national first annual "old-fashioned defense are never so heavy as the of the two county chairmen may Fourth" which had featured a chains of slavery, and that if we be called for further information. Fourth" which had featured a chains of slavery, and that if we be called for further information.

Thousands of Sandhills residents turned out for the day, which started as a perfect Fourth with clear hot sunny weather, though dark clouds and a few showers came along later.

The morning's guest speaker, John A. Lang, Jr., Carthage native who is now administrative assistant to the Secretary of the Air Force, with office in the Pentagon, told an attentive crowd that "we are applying in Viet

2 Bound Over On Murder Charge

(Continued on Page 8)

Statements of two teen-agers concerning two robberies compresented under oath by Moore their preliminary hearing in Moore Recorder's Court at Car-

John Thomas Ferguson, 18, and Alexander, alias Peewee, Ross, 17, both of the Jackson Hamlet community between Pinehurst altimore, Md., hospital.

The Logues have been residents to charges of armed robbery of station on Linden Road, larceny

Judge J. Vance Rowe found probable cause on all charges and they were ordered held for Court without privilege of bond. Through defense counsel, W. D. Sabiston of Carthage, they pleaded guilty to charges of breaking and entering the J. A. McKenzie residence, also on Linden Road, and larceny of a small bank containing an estimated $10 in change. For this, they each received two years on the roads. They were to begin serving these terms immediately and will be Maximum and minimum tem- brought back to Carthage for

> The defendants listened with apparent impassivity as Deputy Grimm, the only witness called, related the story of the investi-gation which began with the finding of Mrs. Smith unconscious in a pool of blood, her skull beaten in, in the general store she and her husband had

(Continued on Page 8)

BACK TO JAIL- John Thomas Ferguson, 18, (left) and Alexander (Peewee) Ross, 17, handcuffed together, decend the courthouse stairs on their way back to jail, after their preliminary hearing on murder, armed robbery and larceny charges in Carthage, Saturday. In the rear is Hardy Barber, acting as assistant to Jailer Ed Cockman. (V. Nicholson photo)