Save your Pilot and all other old newspapers for collection by the Jaycees, Sunday, May 1. Put tied bundles on parkways.

Welcome

to the Sandhills, N. C. Auto dealers and wives, convening at Pinehurst's Carolina Hotel. May your stay here be pleasant!

VOL.-46 NO. 24

-

TWENTY-EIGHT PAGES

SOUTHERN PINES, N. C., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27, 1966

TWENTY-EIGHT PAGES

Special Term Of Court Set

Tuesday For 15 ABC Cases

PRICE: 10 CENTS

EVENTS SET FOR MAY 7

Supper, Ball Game To Aid Bleacher Project; Former Stars To Play

Memorial Field at 8 pm.

three persons heading a special committee: Mrs. L. D. Mc-

Donald, Gene Blackwelder and John Buchholz. These three

Additional special guests for the occasion will be two former local school superintendents who have also coached

Extensive plans for a chick- | Dr. Boyd Starnes, co-chairmen en supper, exhibition base- for the project. ball game and general fund drive—all sponsored by South-ern Pines Elks Lodge 1692 to Elks Club-Country Club cookdrive-all sponsored by Southraise $1,000 to buy bleachers out area, from 4 to 7 pm (dinthat would seat from 250 to ners also served "to go"), or in 350 more spectators at Memorial Field here-have been announced by Slim Forsyth and

Music Students To Be Heard In Annual Concert

and others on the committee The annual Young Musici-ans Concert, in which music are expected to begin a solicitation of business places, teachers of Moore County prestarting Monday. sent their outstanding pupils Unique Contest in recital, will take place in the Pinehurst school auditorium, at 8 pm, Saturday, April visiting former Major League 30. There is no admission players and former players charge and the public is inwith the once-thriving Peach vited.

Belt League in this area-The concert is sponsored, for the 17th year, by the Sandteamed together to face a hills Music Association. ern Pines High School players, Duncan McGoogan of South-(Continued on Page 8) augmented by high school faculty and coaching staff memathletic teams here: A. C. Defending Champion Tom Dawson of Raleigh, now exec-Draper was eliminated from utive secretary of the North the 66th North and South Carolina Education Associa-Men's Amateur Golf Tourna-tion; and Phil Weaver, now ment at Pinehurst Tuesday, in superintendent of schools at a second round marred by rain. Greensboro.

N&S Golf In 3rd, 4th Rounds

In the second day of the historic tourney, a match of Sandhills interest was Dick WRAL-TV, Raleigh. Chapman's 2 & 1 defeat of Ed Invitations Accepted

bers

5,500 CAMPING ON RESERVATION THIS WEEKEND

Taking part in the unique Brown Honored For Service To Scouting Training Work exhibition ball game will be

For his services to Boy | Beard of Sanford, president of pected. Scouts and leaders Scouting-especially his work the 12-county council, a Scout- from Moore County units will in selecting and acquiring ing administrative area that participate.

land for the 2,000-acre John squad made up of East South- M. Reeves Boy Scout Reservation camping complex in ground. Moore County - W. Lamont

Brown, Southern Pines attorney, has been saluted in a resolution of gratitude by the M. Reeves of Pinehurst in rec- the reservation, and church executive board of Occonee- ognition of a $50,000 gift to services Sunday morning. the camp and other support of

Heard At Union Pines

The Union Pines High

Spring Concert Friday, April

29, at 8 pm in the school audi-program that includes camp-

When completed, the reser-Mr. Brown, at right in Scouting-is an Occoneechee vation will accommodate 1,000 above photo, is shown receiv-ing a printed, framed copy of there this weekend, with some mer, or 10,000 for the summer

Although a break-in at the trolman Joe Davis at 11:10

Saturday night, nothing was found missing when the place was checked at that time, according to information from the police department. The next day, a few items were found missing from the shop.

When the mechanics came to work Monday, loss of the tools

Entry was gained by remov-

Police are continuing their ing a pane of glass from a door on the south side, Davis re-was revealed.

investigation.

ported.

Bands, Chorus To Be Reward Offered For Tools Taken welcome, from 6:30 pm. Gardner May Attend School Music Department will present its second annual From Motor Co.

ABC raiders cracked down into six groups, entered simul- | rector of state ABC law en-Friday evening on six Sand- taneously at 7:10 pm the Mid forcement, with his assistant. hills establishments, arresting Pines Club, Pine Needles Otto Wells; District Beer and a total of 15 persons on var-ious charges of whiskey and Home, in Southern Pines; and Graham; Floyd Martindale, beer law violation, including the Dunes Club, Whispering Moore County beer inspector, over-the-bar sales by the Pines Country Club and with 10 state ABC special agdrink, and in some cases by Southern Pines Elks Club, all ents, Moore County ABC Of-

Registration To Start Saturday For Voting In Primary May 28

Registration will open Sat-registered in the precinct of urday, April 30, for the pri- their residence need not remary election of May 28, and gister again to be able to vote successive Saturdays, May 7 November's election. Anyone der way, Director Phillips, continue through two more in the May 28 primary or next and 14. Challenge Day will be in doubt about his voting sta-McCallum and a justice of the Persons already properly registrar. Southern Pines reidents are reminded that sep-

Scheduled By

GOP In County has been moved from D. Carl D. A. Drexel, Republican county chairman, has anthe Municipal Building. nounced that a Precinct Edu-Registrars and judges have ting. cation Program will be conbeen appointed by the Moore ducted in four sessions. County board of elections, (Continued on Page 8)

The first of these sessions for volunteer workers will be held Thursday, May 5, at 8 pm at the county Republican headquarters located at 1131/2 N.E. Broad St. in Southern Pines. This meeting will follow an Open House at which all registered Republicans are

Grade Entrants

Parents of children who will which became controversial er of Rocky Mount, candidate | Elementary School are refor the United States Congress quested to register those chilfrom the district including dren on Monday, May 2, at Moore County, will attend the the school, on E. Massachu-

Parents Asked

Register First

arate registration books are pal elections.

the bottle. The raiders, armed with search warrants and divided Lee P. Phillips of Raleigh, di-Cockman and Billy R. Deese and Constables L. F. Wood of Cameron and E. H. Campbell of Vass. Searching the places, the raiders seized a total of approximately 185 fifths of taxpaid whiskey, 102 partial fifths and 44 cases of beer containing 1,056 bottles and cans. Persons Identified peace, Hubert Nickens of Cameron, moved from club to club, carrying with them a kept for county and munici- State undercover agent, who identified persons he said had sold him whiskey or beer (at Polling places in Moore the Elks Club and Whispering County's 19 precincts will all Pines, unlicensed for such sale) be as before except in East one or more times during the Carthage precinct, where it past six months.

Owners, operators and man-Fry's vacant store building to agers were also identified, and charged with aiding and abet-

Warrants were drawn up, arrests were made and bonds set on the spot. All those arfrom $100 to $500, for their appearance in Moore County rested made bonds ranging Recorders Court in Carthage, at a special term set for Tuesday, May 3.

The raids, McCallum said, had nothing to do with "brown bagging" or private lockers,

It is hoped that James Gard- enter East Southern Pines issues recently throughout the State as, first, a State Assis-(Continued on Page 8) VISIBLE HERE Parents whose last names USAF To Drop "The purpose of the trainbegin with the letters A-K ing course is to instruct workare asked to be at the school ers from all precincts of Moore for the registration between Flares In May County in the winning of elec- 8:30 and 10 am. Parents whose tions and the course could be last names begin with letters The U.S. Air Force has an-L-Z are asked to register their nounced that it will conduct children from 10 until 11:30. night training using high-in-First grade teachers will be on hand to register the chil- tensity illumination flares over Ft. Bragg's Coleman Impact dren. Birth certificates and records of innoculations should Zone on week nights from May 2-20, from 8 to 10 pm. The be brought. The Moore County Health flares will be visible from Department will furnish a points as distant as Fayettedoctor and a nurse to give ville and Southern Pines, and physical examinations to the will appear as slowly descendchildren if the parents desire. ing orbs of brilliant white light, the announcement said. Registration forms my be ob-The flares will range from tained at the school office. 1.6 to 2 million candle power, The first grade rooms will be open during the morning and will be dropped from Air for visitation. First graders Force jet aircraft. Each flare will not attend school on May will burn approximately two and one-half minutes as it A similar registration will floats to earth beneath a parabe conducted for West Southchute. ern Pines elementary school The flares will not be injurious to the naked eye of the on May 12. Details will be anobserver. nounced.

includes Moore. A map of the Arriving on Friday, the reservation is in the back- campers have a full weekend Dramatizing the vast camp- fires, cooking their meals, an ing potential of the reserva- "adventure trail" hike that tion-which is named for John will take in historic spots on the resolution from R. Barry 3,500 boys and 2,000 adults ex- (Continued on Page 8)

Tutwiler of Indianapolis, Ind., former Walker Cup player. Now of Palm Beach, Fla., to attend have been announced Chapman lived many years at Pinehurst, ranging the world to capture some of the top amateur titles. Lingle Mungo of Pageland, S.

Draper was beaten by Edgar C. (Dodgers), Tommy Byrne of Wholey of North Providence, Wake Forest (N. Y. Yankees), R.I., on the 20th hole. Also Ace Parker now assistant foot-beaten was Bill Hyndman of ball coach at UNC-Chapel Huntingdon Valley, Pa., a for- Hill (Phila. Athletics and Demer North & South champ, 1- troit Tigers), and Ray Scarup, by Joel Hirsch of Chicago. boro of Mt. Olive (Washington Third and fourth rounds Senators).

Efforts are being made to were being played today (Wednesday). get several more, Dr. Starnes Winner and runner-up of said.

last week's 64th annual North In connection with the appearance of the former Major and South women's tourna-League stars, Little League, ment are pictured on another (Continued on Page 8) page.

ANNUAL DRIVE NOW GOING ON SVA Nurse Training Funds To

Aid Sandhills College Program

"Your sponsoring me has | development of what Dr. meant more to me than you Raymond Stone, college presknow. Please accept this do- ident, hopes will be one of the of Greensboro, with an esti- on the matter. nation from me with my deep-est gratitude, hoping it will as-programs in the State. sist someone else in the fu-ture, as it did me." "We believe," Derby said,

Those were the words con- loyally supported our program soon thereafter as possible, tained in a letter received here by the Sandhills Veterans Association, sponsors of an annual drive in Moore County to raise money to help train more nurses for the county. They were contained in a letter addressed to Vance A.

Derby, drive chairman, from Leatrice Simpson Beasley, the engineer for Carolina Power first nurse sponsored by the & Light Company's Central SVA more than 15 years ago. Division and a recognized au-Since then, according to thority on illumination and Derby, many girls from Moore lighting, has been promoted County have benefitted from to the position of system lightthe generous donations of peo- ing specialist in the company's ple from Moore County and home office at Raleigh. elsewhere, and all who have completed their training have make available the most upreturned to Moore County and practiced an average of one year each.

This year, teaming with Sandhills Community College, the SVA, composed of 16 men from the lower end of the and South Carolina. county, has changed the format of its program. All funds received will be turned over to the college to assist in the

Bids Asked On No. 1 Resurfacing Project

Bids have been asked by the ment, to be effective June 1. State Highway Commission on resurfacing No. 1 highway be- three times by the Illuminatween Southern Pines and Ab- ting Engineers Society of erdeen. The project calls for which he is a long-time mem-2.5 miles of bituminous con- ber and on whose board of crete binder and surface.

that day.

Here Saturday Former Major Leaguers who Contents and fixtures of the have accepted the invitation Hollywood Hotel will be sold torium by Dr. Starnes as follows: Enos Sloughter of Roxboro (St. Louis Cardinals), Van Performing in the concert tors on S.W. Broad St., today at auction Saturday, April 30, will be all the band students offered a $200 reward for reand demolition of the building, in the Area I schools (Camer- covery of auto mechanics' in preparation for an extensive garden apartment and town on, Carthage, Farm Life, Vass | tools stolen from the car agenhouse project on the site, will and Union Pines) and the cy Saturday night. begin on May 15, George Pot- High School Chorus. There tle, co-owner of the property, will be a small admission charge. has announced.

valued for police at a total of The program will be presented in four sections—the at least $1,250. Removal of the building, an outstanding local hotel for beginner band, the chorus, the more than 50 years, and the agency was discovered by Pajunior band, and the senior new construction project were band. announced in detail several weeks ago. Saturday's auction is sche-sale

(Continued on Page 8) Mr. Pottle said.

SYSTEM LIGHTING SPECIALIST

John L. Ponzer of Southern

In his new post Ponzer will

Pines, industrial power sales hee Council.

Hotel Contents

Auction Slated

Council Affirms uled to begin at 10 am. According to the selling firm, Clem Long Auctioneers of Former Decision Dayton, Ohio, the property cannot be inspected before

Friday and the contents will In Stable Case be sold in piece-meal and lots, to suit all buyers. Payment (Related story, Page 1, Sec. 2) must be made the day of the The town council, meeting at Mr. Pottle said it's expected 8 am Monday at the Municipa! that the sale can be completed Building, made its vote of lest in one day. week in a horse stable contro-A demolition contract has versy official, discussed its pobeen let to G. B. Cobb & Son sition and answered questions

The council had announced building will take about six its decision not to revoke a weeks. Construction work on permit for construction of a "that those people who have the new project will begin as private stable in the Weymouth Heights area, out of town, following a special meettheir case, through attorneys. Ponzer Gets New Post With CP&L A short report on this meeting announced that he will hold a cappeared in last week's Pilot appeared in last week's Pilot and details of the hearing are who wish to be authorized, in a story on Page 1, Section with the Food Stamp Pro-2 today. gram. The meeting is sche-

However, since they had duled for 2 pm, Wednesday, (Continued on Page 8) (Continued on Page 8)

ACTION DEFERRED TO MAY 10

Opportunity Given To Study New Proposed Subdivision Ordinance

The town council, continu- | with John S. Rugglse, realtor, ing last week a public hear- as coordinator, to meet with ing begun two weeks before Donald J. Bradley, project on the proposed new subdivi- planner and author of the prosion ordinance, moved to defer posed law, who will then preaction until their regular sent their recommendations to meeting of May 10, to give the planning board. realtors, surveyors, engineers, "Something to Work On"

Said Dr. R. J. Dougherty, attorneys for landowners and other interested groups oppor- newest councilman, "What we state senators.' tunity to study the new law need is not just criticism but and make their recommendaspecific suggestions for changes—give us something to work on." Councilman Capel Representatives of these groups pointed out that the moved for establishment υf Award from the Tar Heel Sec- document of 32 pages (inclu- the committee, following suggestions from the floor.

Main participants in the Saturday, with one copy at floor discussion were Ruggles, representing the Southern Pines Board of realtors; W. The council constituted the Harry Fullenwider, for sever- With a record of success in all ent a "blue-chip committee" (Continued on Page 8, Sec. 2) were expected to be renewed. room of the Pinehurst School. April 26

Newland W. Phillips, proprietor of Newland Phillips Mo-Open House in the new head- setts Ave. quarters.

The tools, personal property of three mechanics, were

SEN. JENNINGS KING

State Sen. Jennings G. King of Laurinburg, one of five candidates seeking the Democratic nomination to two state senatorial posts in the newly created, sprawling, five-county 19th District, is launching

The Scotland County man who served as senator in the lively campaign.

week.

King Launches

Senator Drive

Over District

(Continued on Page 8)

Chairmen Named In Fund Drive

The Sandhills Tennis associ-ation has started a drive to through subscription and speraise $5,000 toward a total of cial gifts.

surfacing and modern lighting per court to do the other three for the three town courts which all at the same time, said Dick are presently unimproved. Co-chairmen of the drive will mean the courts will be are Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr., and Mrs. Voit Gilmore, assisted by the following campaign chairmen: industrial, Ed Taws and Bill Messick; utilities, banks, Bill Samuels; business, Dick Kobleur, Jimmy Hobbs;

1961 and 1965 sessions of the civic clubs, George Little: program. General Assembly and first West Southern Pines, Felton had served in the House in the Capel; general solicitation, 1930's, has been active in Rocky Bonsal, Mrs. Marie Moore County within the past Smithson; hospitality and resort businesses, Doug Kelly; In view of the fact that each special gifts, Mr. and Mrs. of the five counties in the dis-David Drexel, Dr. Charles trict has a candidate, he is Phillips; reporter, Valerie plugging his candidacy, in an Nicholson. extensive advertising campaign, "for one of your two One court was surfaced last year with composition material at a cost of $3,000, with Three of the five candidates new lights costing an additionare incumbent senators: King al $800, of which $1,500 was (Continued on Page 8) paid by the Town and the rest

FARMERS VOTE TODAY Pinehurst Group To

Cattle, pork and egg producers over North Carolina are Meet Monday Night voting today on whether to extend assessments they are The Community Swimming Association, Inc. of Pinehurst levying on their products, to be used to promote their use. will hold its annual stockholders meeting on Monday, May

TENNIS ASSOCIATION PROJECT

For Surfacing 3 Tennis Courts

$10,000, to provide all-weather It will cost considerably less

Kobleur, STA president. This available all year round, impervious to weather and with great reduction in maintenance costs, for use by local players and visitors, tournaments, the school tennis program and summer recreation

> The rest of the needed amount is expected to come from town recreation funds this year and next, and irom other sources. The two Sandhills Invitationals (adult and senior) have been cancelled this year to give the Association opportunity to improve the courts.

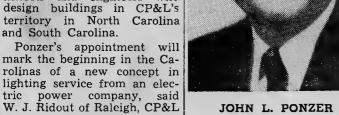

THE WEATHER

Maximum and minimum temperatures for each day of the past week were recorded as follows at the US Weather Bureau observation station, at WEEB, on Midland Road.

		Max	Γ.	Min
ril	20		73	57
ril	21		82	57
ril	24		83	55
ril	26		76	59

JOHN L. PONZER

general sales manager. Ridout chairman. In 1961 he received announced Ponzer's appoint-Outstanding Lighting the Ponzer has been honored tions. tion and the same award from ding exhibits) had been availthe Society's Southeast Re- able in final form only since gion. As a member of the Insti- the town office and only a former councilman and mayor, managers he has served. Last tute of Electrical and Elec- few others in circulation for Bids will be opened in Ral- year he received the Certifi- tronic Engineers, Ponzer is them to see. eigh on May 11 and must be cate of Meritorious Service currently secretary of that orsubmitted no later than 10 am from the Society's Tar Heel ganization's National Textile representatives where pres- al large property owners; sur- three progarm, the assessments 2, at 8 pm in the multiple-use (Continued on Page 8) Section, of which he is past to-date information on illuminating techniques and new applications of lighting to architects and engineers who

Last Meeting On Stamp Plan Set A representative of the USDA's Consumer and Mar-

ing last Tuesday night at keting Service, L. Harold which both sides had stated Yountz of Winston-Salem, has announced that he will hold a quaint Moore County grocers,