A local

institution that has "something for everybody" is the Thrift Shop of Emmanuel Church. Read about it, Page 1, Section 2.

Charles McLeod Is

Chosen Candidate

VOL.-46 NO. 27

TWENTY-EIGHT PAGES

SOUTHERN PINES, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MAY 18, 1966

TWENTY-EIGHT PAGES

PRICE: 10 CENTS

FATHER JOHN J. HARPER

by Supt. J. W. Jenkins and 29, at 8:15 pm in Weaver Au-will be preached Sunday, May at 10 am.

Principal Glenn Cox.

'HIGHLY GIFTED'

3 Students In

Local Schools

Receive Honor

School students have been selected to attend the Gover-

5, in Winston-Salem, Supt, J.

week. The school is for highly gifted North Carolina high

The students and parents

Carolyn McRae, daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. McRae,

Bill Blue, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Blue, 440 W.

Hosea Brower, son of Mr.

The purpose of the school,

as outlined by the North Car-

Sports Banquet

baseball, track, golf and ten-

Rod" Hundley, former three-year All-American basketball player at West Virginia University.

Dr. R. B. Warlick will be master of ceremonies. Full details will appear in next

Parents of the athletes and all interested persons are invited to attend. There will be a

Exposure Conviction

To Draw Active Term

In connection with trial of a youth charged with indecent exposure while riding in an automobile (popularly known as "mooning"), in Southern Pines Recorder's Court last week, Judge W. Harry Ful-

lenwider served public notice that persons convicted of any such offenses in the future will receive active jail sen-

Noting that exposure of the buttocks in a moving car seems to have become something of a fad among certain young people, the judge said he wants it stopped and that convictions in further cases will not result in suspended

STARNES RECITAL

tences in his court.

dinner fee for visitors.

Guest speaker will be "Hot

Slated May 27

at 7 pm.

nis squads.

week's Pilot.

(Continued on Page f)

and Mrs. Hosea Carl Brower,

1165 W. Wisconsin Ave.

785 East Massachusetts Ave.

school students.

New Jersey Ave.

Announced By School

Commencement events of ditorium, by Father John J.

The baccalaurate sermon Day events, in the auditorium,

30, will be the annual Awards will be published later.

East Southern Pines High Harper, pastor of St. An-School have been announced thony's Catholic Church here.

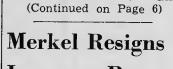

Contracts Let For 4th College

Campus Building The Board of Trustees of Sandhills Community College has awarded contracting amounting to a total of $94,535 to North Carolina firms for the construction of a new building on the campus. Dr. Raymond Stone, president, announced the awards following a meeting of the trustees Monday evening.

The new building to be added to the three-building complex now on the campus will provide classrooms and shops for the automotive courses offered in the curriculum of the vocational-technical education program and shop space for Commencement Events building and campus mainte-

J. H. Edmonds of Cameron submitted the low bid of $70,-566 for general construction. The plumbing contract for $5,-075 went to Carroll and Gift, (Continued on Page 6)

To follow on Monday, May Inspector Post Graduation exercises will be conducted Friday, June 3, at Jon Merkel, town building 8:15 pm, also in Weaver Audiinspector since last October, torium, with Fred H. Weaver has resigned, Town Manager of the University of North F. F. Rainey said this week Carolina in Chapel Hill deliv- The resignation was effective ering the commencement ad-Friday.

Further details of all events appointed, said Mr. Rainey, adding, "It's a very important Farther Harper was pastor position and we want to get of Catholic parishes at Clin- the right man." Three Southern Pines High ton and Kannapolis before Mr. Merkel told The Pilot coming to Southern Pines a he is going back into private selected to attend the Governor's School, June 20 to August ously held assistant pastorates announce at this time. He was at Whiteville, Waynesville, a building contractor in Flori-Jenkins anounced this Greensboro and Jacksonville, day, Michigan and Ohio before He was ordained to the taking the post here.

and daughter, Cindy, plan to continue to live in Southern The growing popularity of number has been reacned in the National Elks Amateur the past but by deadlines May

VOLUNTEER GULISTAN GROUP WORKS ALL DAY

60 Men Build Camp Easter Ball Field

of the J. P. Stevens Management Club of the Gulistan Mrs. Mark Liddell, camp coistan Division, who asked that Carpet Division of J. P. Stev-ens & Co. at Aberdeen worked plowing, leveling and seed-but appear only at random in a all day Saturday at Camp ing the entire area, as well as list of all who helped. of the time they worked in the other work. rain. All materials and labor were donated.

Sixty men who are members | The whole job was com- | who helped. The group inclu-

The accompanying photo shows a portion of the men

The men brought their

"dinner on the grounds."

(Continued on Page 6)

SET TUESDAY

with various violations

of the State alcoholic bev-

Fafteen persons charged in the committee meeting. Mc-Leod led the first ballot. A Officers of the club had inrunoff was necessary and this time he was a runaway winner, with Mrs. Bessie M. Beck, A.B.C. CASES

David, county tax collector,

longtime assistant clerk, now

acting clerk, second and J. D.

paign trail.

Four Nominated

For Court's Clerk Charles M. McLeod, 47-year- waited out the hour-long old native of Carthage, who meeting showered crongratuhas lived and worked in Car- lations on McLeod, and it was thage most of his life, on Sat- plain to be seen he was a favurday was the Moore County orite with Carthaginians, most Democratic Executive Commit- of whom had known him ail tee's majority choice for the his life. candidate for clerk of superior They also made it clear they court, replacing the late C. C. felt he would be a highly ef-

Kennedy on the party ticket. ficient clerk, well able to mas-Without any primary oppo- ter the complexities of the office and head the transition to sition on May 28 or Republi-(Continued on Page 6) can opposition in November, he will take office automatically for the four-year term, the first Monday in December. The selection, made in a closed session of the committee following the county convention at the courthouse, climaxed a week of campaigning by and for aspirants for theoffice. At least a dozen persons were reportedly "interested" in the post, and of these, five had hit the cam-Only four were nominated

A small crowd which had | CHARLES M. McLEOD

Jr., presiding. Precinct chair-

their reports on the precinct

H. Clifton Blue of Aberdeen, former Speaker of the House, as keynote speaker, detailed the proud history of the party in State and county,

the progressiveness and integrity of the government provi-

leadership in the field of pub-

He noted the Moore administration is continuing the

Moore Democrats Endorse

Blue For State Chairman

Sparked by interest in the ing included candidates al-cace for the clerk of court ready on the ticket, running nomination, one of the largest subject to the May 28 primary, crowds in years turned out for and a number of county offi-

the biennial Moore County cials, all duly recognized by

Democratic convention Satur- | Chairman J. Elvin Jackson,

Some 250 Democrats attend- men or vice-chairmen gave

A "campaign train" through ded, and foresaw continued

lic service.

Easter in the Pines, construct- constructing a wood and ing a baseball diamond. Part wire backstop and doing food and "cooks" and had

No replacement has yet been priesthood by Bishop Vincent S. Waters for the Diocese of Raleigh, in May, 1947.

He and his wife, Marilyn, and daughter, Cindy, plan to continue to live in Southern the N (Continued on Page 6)

FROM NEARLY 20 STATES 350 Entered In Elks

Hold everything! The "sea- the year at Southern Pines son" isn't over yet! A thunder- | CC and Mid Pines Club is reheld annually at this time of |8 the field had been filled and 30 more players had made application before the shut-Police Dept. At Full Strength;

The employment of George Barnes, 32, as patrolman has deen High school, was award- its full strength of 10 men, it field is slowly losing its secis announced by Town Mana- tional flavor and chances for

Earl S. Seawell. Barnes, an experienced powith the Stantonsburg depart-AT LEAST 8 HOMES IN AREA the Picquet Music Festival of since February 1 by the resignation of Emory Little, who went to other employment in

A native of Wilson and veteran of Army service Barnes of the county, on the basis of attended the National Police Academy at Washington, D. C., (Continued on Page 6)

Golf Here This Week ing herd of Elks-hundreds flected in the record entry of of them — are in town this 350 players. The entry list was to be held to 320 and this number has been reached in off time. Sponsoring Elks Lodge 1692 decided to accept the entries making the deadline. Another 40 entries submitted too late were rejected, Barnes Employed leading Elks to think about holding the event over three courses in the future. They come from nearly 20 brought the Southern Pines states and, although dominat- will be held Tuesday, from police department back up to ed by Mid-South Elks, the 5:30-7:30 pm, at Sanders Whisan "outsider" to win the title county commissioner from Disare increasing. Only Tar Heel trict 4 in the May 28 Demogolfers have packed the cham- cratic primary. (Continued on Page 6) erage laws are scheduled to appear for trial before Judge J. Vance Rowe in a special term of Moore County Recorder's Court at Carthage, Tuesday, May 24, at 9:30 am. The defendants are ownees of six Sandhills clubs and hotels raided by Alcoholic Beverage Control officers in late April. The trials were postponed from May 3, for the State to prepare its cases.

Public Invited To Meet Candidate Tate

A"meet-the-candidate" party for Dr. Russell Tate of Vass pering Pines Restaurant.

The public is invited.

Moore and Montgomery counties on Saturday, May 21, was Dr. Tate is a candidate for announced today by State Senator Voit Gilmore. Using a high-wheel passenger car in his campaign for renomination in the May 28 day afternoon.

Gilmore Slates

Trip Saturday

'Campaign Train'

Mount Gilead along the Norfolk-Southern Railroad's main line.
"This rail tour is part of my more said. The District's 200,-Warrants will be prepared 000 people reside in Davidson, (Continued on Page 6)

IN PINEHURST POST

Mrs. Karl A. Bridges of Southern Pines has been ap-County Recorders pointed manager of the Pinenurst Greenhouses, succeding The officer said he could set Lloyd Smith who is retiring no estimate on the value of from this position. Details are the loot until he has talked in a story on Page 1, Section (Continued on Page 6) progress of the Sanford ad-(Continued on Page 6) Democratic primary, Gilmore will travel from Robbins to Demo Officers All Reelected;

In addition to electing Charles M. McLeod as the party's candidate for clerk of Superior Court, the Moore County Democratic Executive Committee, in biennial session Saturday afternoon, returned J. Elvin Jackson, Jr., of Carthage to the chairman-It also gave unanimous endorsement to Voit Gilmore for (Continued on Page 6)

Candidates Invited To Meet Democrats

Democrats over Moore County are reminded of a "Meet the Candidates" meeting to be sponsored by the Moore County Young Democrats Club, in the courthouse at Carthage, Saturday, May 21, at 7:30 pm.
Candidates for nomination in the Democratic Primary to be held Saturday, May 28, have been invited. These include Congressional and State Senatorial candidates in the districts that include Moore County, the announcement

Dock Smith of Robbins is Moore YDC president.

THE WEATHER

Maximum and minimum temperatures for each day of the past week were recorded as follows at the US Weather Bureau observation station, at WEEB, on Midland Road.

		May.	TATTI
May	11	 71	32
May	12	 77	53
May	13	 78	58
May	14	 72	60
May	15	 78	49
May	16	 83	55
May	17	 82	54
•

Annual Kiwanis Events For Young People Held Friday Music Festival Lathan Chosen Draws Interest

BY VALERIE NICHOLSON The Picquet Music Festival, presented Friday night at Union Pines High School, represented a break from recent years in that it offered two choral groups selected from An All Sports Banquet has been scheduled by East Southern Pines High School for Friday, May 27, at Sanders Whispering Pines Restaurant. While the drama and volume The buffet dinner will begin of the former singing groups of 100 to 200 voices was miss-Awards will be made by ed, the gain in musicianship, ganizations and commercial subtlety and clarity more than made up for it. firms to members of the The 38-voice mixed school's football, basketball, the membership of Moore by Sam H. Poole of Southern liceman, who served five years County High School glee Pines, Kiwanis chairman of clubs, instead of the full clubs the project, at intermission of ment, fills the vacancy left combined in one huge choir. at Union Pines High School.

(Continued on Page 6)

Malcolm Harvey Lathan, Jr., of Pinehurst, a senior at Aber-Friday night.

ed the Junior Builders Cup of the Sandhills Kiwanis Club ger F. F. Rainey and Chief The presentation was made high school choral groups, held Young Lathan was chosen Connecticut.

from among outstanding seniors from six high schools scholastic standing, contribu-(Continued on Page 6)

NEW BUILDING-Here is the new veterinary hospital of Dr. Michael G. Walsh, Jr., on Youngs Road, near Southern Pines. The reception room is at left. The main portion of the building contains examining room, laboratory, x-ray darkroom and accomodations for 23 small animals. Outside runs for animals are not visible here. Nearby is a 17-stall barn for large animals. (Humphrey photo)

Veterinary Hospital Will Open

um at 8 pm Saturday. The Southern Pines, Saturday. program is open to the public

It is of brick and block con- for dogs and cats. tails appear on Page 1, Section | Stables.

Dr. Michael G. Walsh, Jr., struction and is fully air-con- in this area, Dr. Walsh has and there is no admission on the north side of Youngs cluded in the building, as well charge. Photos and further de- Road, east of Stoneybrook as runs and accommodations Since opening his practice who has practiced veterinary ditioned, heated and cooled by been engaged mainly in work- Saturday's "Little League Pupils of the Pat Starnes medicine in the Sandhills since two heat pumps. The reception ing with large animals, al- Day" here appear on another School of Dance will present 1963, will open a new animal room has an interior brick though he has had previous page. The four Little League a recital in Weaver Auditori- hospital on Youngs Road near finish, with exposed ceiling experience in general veteri- and four Minor League teams beams. Examining, laboratory nary practice. A 17-stall barn have now begun their regular The new structure is located and x-ray facilities are in- near the new hospital will be season play. The public is inused, as in the past, for vited to all games, at the offihorses being treated. His home cial Little League park on Colo., July 1. is also located on the same Morganton Road, opposite the (Continued on Page 6) | armory.

Man Held For Bold Break-Ins A young man identified as the bold housebreaking mara-Phil Roberts, aged 25, of Jack-thon has been recovered, acsonville, Fla., and Columbia, cording to Chief Moore Depu-of the big 19th District," Gil-Gilmore Backed till the weekend, identify their

HIGH HONOR FOR ARCHITECT

Moore

Court at Carthage.

the announcement said.

United States have been named Fellows of the AIA.

S. C., is being held in Moore ty H. H. Grimm. County jail at Carthage on suspicion of entering at least as owners, some of whom are eight homes in this area and away and not expected back robbing some of them. A quantity of household possessions, Grimm said. Pre-goods, silverware, jewelry and liminary hearing has been other items believed stolen in tentatively set for Monday in

Creech Active In Moore County William A. (Bill) Creech, candidate for Congress in the May 28 Democratic primary, campaigning strongly in Mcore County.

Moore is in the new Fourth Congregational District in which Creech is attempting to unseat veteran Congressman Harold Cooley. Creech and two aides were of Southern Pines, it was re-

Southern Pines and other vealed this week by the North Tuesday. Forrest Lockey of Carolina Chapter of the na-Moore County communities tion-wide professional organ-Tuesday. Forrest Lockey of ization. Aberdeen, former State highway commissioner, accompanied the candidate for a portion | Howell and Associates, a local of his visits.

Friday of this week will be another Moore County day on the Creech schedule. Announced communities to be visited are Carthage, Vass, Lakeview, Pinehurst, End and Eagle Springs. West

LITTLE LEAGUE EVENTS Scenes from events of last

Hayes Designated Fellow Of AIA The highest honor awarded by The American Institute of Architects (AIA) has been accorded Thomas T. Hayes, Jr., Mr. Hayes, a partner wtih W. Calvin Howell in Hayesfirm, has been designated a Fellow of The American Institute of Architects for Design, Two other architects in North Carolina were similarly honored, Leslie N. Boney, Jr., of Wilmington, and James C. Hemphill, Jr., of Charlotte. Less than four per cent of the the registered architects in the

THOMAS T. HAYES, JR.

Certificates and medals for the School of Design of N. C. those who have been advanced State University. He has practo Fellowships will be presentticed his profession here since ed at the annual national AIA 1952, independently and in two partnerships. The present Hayes-Howell firm was formed in 1960 and has won numerous dinner to be held in Denver, A native of Sanford, Mr. Hayes is a 1951 graduate of (Continued on Page 6)