Miss America visited Pinehurst last week to take part in a convention program. Photo on Page

VOL.-47 NO. 11

TWENTY-TWO PAGES

SOUTHERN PINES, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 1967

STATE SPOKESMAN REPORTS

Donation Described To Historical Group

Campbell House.

Pilot Given 3 Awards In 1966 Press Contests

The Pilot shared in awards

The awards, based on entries submitted from work in presentative of the newspaper was able to be present to re- McPhaul of Southern Pines, ceive them in person at that

The awards are: —A first place award to FOR 1967 Mrs. James Boyd, publisher and managing editor, in the "Best Column" category (new to the contests this year) for three entries of her "Grains of Sand" column which appears regularly in The Pilot. -A second place award to the newspaper (not personal) in the "Best News Coverage"

(Continued on Page 6)

TWENTY-TWO PAGES

PRICE: 10 CENTS

"You have so much to sell

derful recreational facilities,

"Southern Pines has a na-

floor as to the need for a

The story of the donation of day's Pilot.) an old house by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sawyer of the state John B. Von Canon of West organization said he came upon End to the State Department the house 10 miles west of of Archives and History was Carthage while on a trip to told Monday night at a meet- Moore to study the Alston ing of the Moore County His- House at the Horse Shoe for torical Association at the improvements and for work on the caretaker's residence. (A photo of the house and Later in Raleigh, he said, he another report on the donation immediately thought of it is publish d elsewhere in to- when the man in charge of restoring the President James K. Polk House at Pineville told him he needed interior panelling.

Sawyer said he and Mrs. Bob Jordan, wife of a state archives department colleague, both went to Moore County to inspect the Von Canon house. Mrs. Jordan, he said, presented at last week's 42nd annual Newspaper Institute of the North Carolina Press Asthe North Carolina Press Association in Chapel Hill, winning first, second and third place awards in various catellabelled for both the Polk labelled for both the Polk Weekly Division of the 1966 house and the museum. The museum will occupy three floors of the new $3 million State Archives and History Dethe year from October, 1965 to October, 1966, were presented by Gov. Dan K. Moore last Thursday might be spring of 1962 in the sprin Thursday night, but no representative of the newspaper said.

Sawyer said he and John (Continued on Page 6)

Dr. Warlick Heads Bank's Local Board

Dr. R. Bruce Warlick was elected to the chairmanship of -A third place award to C. the Southern Pines Board of Benedict, associate editor, in the Board of the Southern Nathe "Best Editorials" category tional Bank, at its monthly 'Die Fledermaus' Rep. Jacobs for an editorial published last July, "First Lesson In Labor J. E. Causey who served in 1966. W. Lamont Brown was

On Friday of last week, Mrs. elected 1967 vice chairman. Boyd and Mr. Benedict attend
Dr. Warlick has been active Friday Evening ed other sessions of the Insti- in community and church actitute in Chapel Hill and collect- vities since moving to the ed the awards - a wood- Sandhills in 1946 after gradmounted brass plaque for the uating from the School of Denfirst place winner and inscrib- tistry of the Medical College ed certificates for the second of Virginia. He has served as

(Continued from Page 6)

DERBY BUYS FORMER LOCATION

Pines Realty, Optician Firm Now In Building Of New Development

section change, marking the the second floor at 133 NW first move in an extensive de- Broad St. The Rowe & Rowe velopment on the 200-block of law offices will remain as sec-W. Pennsylvania Ave., the ond floor tenants in the Penn-Pines Realty, Development and sylvania Ave. building, Mr. Insurance Co. and the Southern Pines Opticians have moved from their adjoining locations in the 100-block of W. Pennsylvania to the new building of Pines Associates, Inc., at 230 W. Pennsylvania. Southern Pines Opticians is owned and operated by Ralph M. All-

Lt. Col. Frank M. Smi'i, who heads Pines Realty and is treasurer of Pines Associates, has sold the former location of Pines Realty and Southern Pines Opticians, at 115-117 W. Pennsylvania to Vance A. Derby, local attorney.

Mr. Derby, who has bought the entire building, plans extensive exterior and interior remodeling, and will convert the whole ground floor to his law offices, moving there, on completion of the work,

Young People To Conduct Service

On Sunday, January 29, the worship service at Our Saviour ducted by young people of the congregation.

Six young men will serve as liturgists and conduct the minister's parts of the service. The choir will be composed of young people of the congregation; and two will serve as ushers and one as acolyte.

Conducting the liturgy will be James Baldwin, Melvin Johnson, David Baldwin, Darrell Howard, David Howard and Steadman Meares.

Pastor Deese will be responsible for the sermon and benediction.

Derby said.

suite across the rear of the new building, on this floor.

On the lower level, with access from side and rear of the building, there are three large

In a long-planned business- from his present offices on

At the 230 W. Pennsylvania location, Pines Realty and Southern Pines Opticians occupy the two front, street-level office suites. There is another street-level single office, off the inside hall, which has been rented by Edmunde W. Buckminster of Pinehurst; and there is an unoccupied office

FOR SERVICE TO COMMUNITY

Coach Williams Wins JC Award

education and health teacher, Church. was announced last Friday Young Man of the Year.

In his leisure time, Williams

To Be Presented

night as 1966 Southern Pines award was announced at the Southern Pines Jaycees' year-He was selected for the ly Distinguished Awards Ban-Southern Pines Junior Cham- quet at the Holiday Inn. It also ber of Commerce Distinguish- was a Bosses' Night program. ed Service Award principally Jaycees' guests were their for his contributions to the working-day employers and young people of the commu-other executives. Approximately 200 people attended.

The guest speaker was Mihas organized midget football cou F. Brown of Raleigh, presand basketball leagues, and is ident of Occidental Life Insur-

To Address YDC Banquet

"Die Fledermaus" will be performed here by a talented troupe of young singing artists of the National Opera Company, formerly the Grass Roots Opera.

They will present Johann ed masterpiece on Friday, January 27, starting at 8:30 pm, in Weaver Auditorium. The entire production will be sung in English.

The presentation is one of the winter series sponsored by at 7 pm. the Sandhills Music Associa-Insurance Co. and will be on sale at the box office.

The familiar airs, (Continued on Page 6)

West Side Civic Club Will Meet

The West Southern Pines Civic Club will meet Thurs- Federation. day (January 26) at 8 pm, in the Masonic Hall on Gaines St. l. T. Valentine also will parti-Club officials called the cipate in the program. meeting "very important" and Entertainment for the woasked wide attendance.

(Continued on Page 6)

The principal speaker for Clubs' installation banquet community as mayor. here Saturday night will be a member of the congressional committee investigating New York Congressman Adam Strauss's carefree, light-heart- Clayton Powell's activities. He is US Rep. Andrew Jacobs of Indiana, who is serving his second term in the House. The YDC dinner is scheduled for the Holiday Inn starting President-elect Sam H. Poole

tion. Tickets are available at of Southern Pines and the Barnum Realty & Insurance other incoming state officers will be installed by Lt. Gov. addition to Poole are Vince are being made to education Lefler of Willard, vice president; Mrs. Betty Lewis of Chapel Hill, national commit-Greensboro, secretary; Claude Sitton of Morganton, treasurer; and Don Wilson of the University of North Carolina, president of the College YDC

State Democratic Chairman

men visitors has been arrang-New members of the club ed for Saturday afternoon. are invited and all citizens are urged to attend its meetings.

A reception will be he 5:30 pm at Holiday Inn. A reception will be held at

John W. Williams, 35-year- an active church worker. He ance Co. of North Carolina. old East Southern Pines High has served as a Sunday School Brown is a former president of School track and junior varsi- teacher and a member of the the North Carolina Junior ty football coach and physical council of the Lutheran Chamber and is treasurer of he Occoneechee Council of The winner of the annual the Boy Scouts.

Brown told a series of anecdotes and closed his speech with a serious inspirational message. He said the "nonenforceable obligations of citenship" constitute the challenge in today's era of afflu-

For one of his examples of pledge to donate an equal by a climb in volunteering to assume "nonenforceable obligations" he pointed to Southern Pines Gulistan Chief Mayor Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr. Hodgkins is a winner of a previous local Jaycees' Distinguished Service Award and appeared at the banquet as a 'boss" guest of Jaycees. Hodgkins was seated at the speakers' and officials' table.

Brown also pointed to the grim news that appears daily in the newspapers - news about America's crime and violence. However, he pointed to the bright side of American life—the silence of America as it goes about its business quiet. We've got a large, silent group in the United States," he pointed out.

For examples of the bright side, Brown said church and the US is at an alltime high; Robert Scott. The officers in and that more contributions He continued, "our only way (Continued on Page 6)

Masonic Temple Shop

James Clayton owner of the located on N. W. Broad St. has announced that Jimmy K. back up that label." Burns of Robbins will become ginning February 2.

former Carolyn Brown of ed Service Awards to the out-Robbins. She is employed at standing employee and superthe Pinehurst Surgical Clinic (Continued on Page 5, Sec. 3)

Steps Taken In Organizing Local Chamber Of Commerce

the Pine Needles Country community relations. Club, attended by about 40 section of local business inter-rector of the Wadesboro-Anson efits result for all." Wadesboro, as guest speaker own area differed in many re- as acting chairman, asked for

Steps were taken toward told of its policies, methods of | spects from those of this resort formation of a Chamber of operation, costs and accom- community, he commented, Commerce here, at a dinner plishments in cooperative efmeeting held Monday night at fort for better business and here-'liveability,' your won-

Webb said, "It takes col- and your educational and persons representing a cross- lective action to analyze and economic development, which solve the problems facing the I think are great. business community, and

E. Earl Hubbard, presiding expressions of opinion from the

Glenn Webb, executive di- through collective effort, ben- tional image, which should be Chamber of Commerce at Noting that conditions in his promoted in the finest ways."

SET FOR FEBRUARY 2 AND 3

Blood Collections Next Week To Be Important In Saving Program

Two blood collections play- amount of blood at t ing an important part in de- visit of a bloodmobile fr termining whether the Moore center to Moore Coun County Blood Program is Colonel Dibb this saved this year will take place minded the public next week, Col. John Dibb, Moore County prog county chairman of the pro- fall, was put on gram, said this week.

In Carthage on Thursday, February 2, at the Rescue Squad building from 12 noon to 5:30 pm. In Southern Pines on Friday, February 3, at St. Anthony's School auditorium, from 11 am to 4:30 made these visits:

The Charlotte center supplies both hospitals in Moore of last Thursday's is County with blood of all types, for several traffic The blood is furnished to and a loss of half patients free, except for a school. small handling charge, on condition that relatives or friends freezing Friday

Awards Given

Steele L. Winterer, presi-Brown said nobody was dent of the Gulistan Carpet day. India Division, J. P. Stevens & Co., was cause the state Young Democratic forcing Hodgkins to serve his Inc., delivered his annual message on company operations to an assembly of all employees of the company's Aberdeen plant last Wednesday. Winterer reported on the progress made by the Division during 1966 as well as the plans and hopes for 1967. He stated that Gulistan produced a substantial increase in carpet yardage in the past year and was hopeful of a further gain Tournament in 1967.

He was particularly complimentary about the measurable Sunday school attendance in improvement of quality of Bowling Asso. production in the past year. ment will be to grow is through good pro- here, it was ducts, top quality and outstanding service."

He thanked the employees teewoman; Milton Kern of Jimmy K. Burns Joins for their "wonderful, intelligent support that has moved our company up to the front ranks" and said that "Stevens-Masonic Temple Barber Shop, Gulistan is a proud label and you are the craftsmen who

Following Winterer's adassociated with the shop, be- dress, George E. Paules, vice president - manufacturing, Mr. Burns is married to the presented annual Distinguish-

A bloodmobile from the Red cause collections in Cross center at Charlotte will ty had consistently equal the amount (Continued on Page

Weather Show Contrast: From Icy To 'Spring

The Southern Pines

But icy Thursd that brought con through this we ices were u for United the Carol olina Pow trict offic

on ice, cra pole. "We were reported Joe trict manage phone compar sentiment wa

was cause other words by Tucker, Souther (Continued or

City Bowling

The Souther

on Februar pm. Doub be held o 1 pm to All en uary 31,

LOSS WA 10th Am

Highland Friday of last week, 20, was the 10th annive of the destruction of the H land Pines Inn here by fire one of the community's most fit spectacular conflagrations. shorne With the exception of one shorne small wing and some outbuild- resident ings, the big frame structure, occupying built of heart pine lumber, ters in the burned to the ground. The carly Sunday morning most of their pe fire, discovered at 3 am, de- sions in the fire as stroyed the resort hotel built shorne claims to and opened in 1912 and occu- the only casualty of t pied at the time of its burning by the USAF Air Ground Operations School, a military installation which had brought more than 30 families to live in Southern Pines.

Administered by the Air Force, the school instructed classes of officers from all branches of the armed forces, and from foreign nations, each class of about 100 men turnng over weekly.

The E. Massachusetts Ave. knoll where the imposing white Highland Pines Inn do- Jan. 18 minated the lanscape for 45 Jan. 19 years, was cut up into lots Jan. 20 and sold for residential de- Jan. 21 velopment, after the fire. The Jan. 22 home of Mayor Norris L. Jan. 23

Maximum and minimun temperatures for each day of the past week were recorded as follows at the US Weather Bureau observation station, at WEEB, on Midland Road.

Mr. and Mrs.

he cut a foot on glass l

from an elevator door

(Continued on Page

THE WEATHER

53 24 27 39 23 68 Hodgkins, Jr., for instance, is Jan 24

Dr. Hollister Honored By Colleagues For 20 Years As Surgeon Here

Dr. William F. Hollister of Midland Road (seated at center of table, behind flowers in photo above) was honored last week with a dinner at the Country Club of North Carolina, in recognition of "20 years of continuous surgical service to the Sandhills community." Hosts for the event were

Dr. R. M. McMillan, of

Southern Pines, (seated at Dr. Hollister's right) and Dr. J. S. Hiatt, Jr., of Midland Road, (at Dr. Hollister's left).

At each side and behind are members of the medical staffs of Moore Memorial Hospital at Pinehurst and St. Joseph of the Pines Hospital here, and also a number of distinguished guests. Most of the physicians in Moore County attended. The guests included:

Dr. Deryl Hart who was Dr. Hollister's professor of surgery at Duke Medical School and later president of Duke University in Durham; Dr. Ivan Brown, a professor of surgery at Duke University Medical Center; Dr. William Singleton, also a professor of surgery there; Dr. Raymond Postlethwaite, chief of the Surgical Service at the Veterans Hospital in Durham; and Dr. Will Sealy, head of the department of cardio-vascular surgery at Duke Medical

Dr. Hollister is one of the founders of the Pinehurst Surgical Clinic and continues as one of the clinic's active surgeons. He is a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons and has been accorded numerous other honors and offices in the medical and surgical fields.

He opened his practice in the Sandhills 20 years ago, after serving overseas as an Army medical officer in World War II.