

The new president of Pinehurst, Inc., the first not of the Tufts family, has experience for the post. Front, Section 3.

THE PILOT

Four

federal programs offer financial help in various ways to students attending college. Details, Page 7, Section 2.

VOL.—47 NO. 25

TWENTY-EIGHT PAGES

SOUTHERN PINES, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 1967

TWENTY-EIGHT PAGES

PRICE: 10 CENTS

IN COLLEGE LIBRARY — Mrs. Ernest L. Ives of Southern Pines unveiled this photo portrait of her distinguished statesman brother, the late Adlai E. Stevenson, in the library of Sandhills Community College, Sunday afternoon. At right is Jonathan Daniels, editor of The News and Observer, of Raleigh, main speaker for the program. Beneath the portrait is a collection of books and other material by and about the former U. N. Ambassador and Presidential candidate.

(Bob Ewing photo)

SAYS JONATHAN DANIELS

Hope Shines Brighter Because Of Stevenson

The hopes of us all shine brighter because of the "golden spirit" of Adlai E. Stevenson, said Jonathan Daniels, editor of The News and Observer, of Raleigh, at Sandhills Community College here, Sunday afternoon.

Of Stevenson's death in London.

County Firemen Join Observance Of Special Week

Some 265 volunteer firemen in the 12 town and rural fire departments of Moore County will join next week in observance of North Carolina Firemen's Week, as proclaimed by Gov. Dan K. Moore.

A highlight of the week's observance will come Sunday when firemen over the county will hold memorial services or place flowers in churches in memory of deceased fellow-firemen, recognizing "their faithful and unselfish service to their communities."

Names of the deceased firemen will be listed on church bulletins, in some cases.

Plans call for annual memorial observances and in towns with several churches, services will be held in a different church each day.

SCHOOL BAND CONCERT

The annual Spring concert of the East Southern Pines High School Band, under direction of E. C. Rodgers, will be presented in Weaver Auditorium, at 8 pm, Tuesday, May 9. The public is invited.

NEW $167,957 GRANT MADE

SCAP Funds From County Not Needed, Official Tells Board

The Board of Moore County Commissioners got good news from the Sandhills Community Action Program last Thursday. It still has the $8,000 the commissioners put in the budget for the Moore County share of the antipov-erty program for 1966-67.

In fact, SCAP Assistant Director Thomas Caddell told the commissioners, the commissioners could feel free to take $1,000 out of the SCAP appropriation to pay a bill for professional services recently engaged to seek federal money.

The commissioners didn't act on the offer.

Caddell explained that Moore obligations in the federally aided SCAP program were paid "in kind"—such as rent-free space; consequently, direct cash payment hasn't been necessary so far. The "in-kind" payment amounted to $167,957—the total SCAP would have had to pay for space, labor and the like if these had not been given free of charge.

The professional-services bill of $1,000 will be for the job that Barbour-Cooper & Associates of Asheville is doing for the county—preparing the complicated application for a federal grant for a $100,000 neighborhood facilities center.

The building would house staff people of county and other public agencies, with the exception of administrative officials.

Meanwhile, SCAP, ending its first year of operation, is getting a federal grant of $167,957 for the eight months through Nov. 30. (The antipov-erty programs are conducted on a "program period," rather than a calendar or fiscal year. The program periods vary ac-crossed the county—preparing the complicated application for a federal grant for a $100,000 neighborhood facilities center. The building would house staff people of county and other public agencies, with the exception of administrative officials.

Meanwhile, SCAP, ending its first year of operation, is getting a federal grant of $167,957 for the eight months through Nov. 30. (The antipov-erty programs are conducted on a "program period," rather than a calendar or fiscal year. The program periods vary ac-crossed the county—preparing the complicated application for a federal grant for a $100,000 neighborhood facilities center. The building would house staff people of county and other public agencies, with the exception of administrative officials.

Meanwhile, SCAP, ending its first year of operation, is getting a federal grant of $167,957 for the eight months through Nov. 30. (The antipov-erty programs are conducted on a "program period," rather than a calendar or fiscal year. The program periods vary ac-crossed the county—preparing the complicated application for a federal grant for a $100,000 neighborhood facilities center. The building would house staff people of county and other public agencies, with the exception of administrative officials.

Meanwhile, SCAP, ending its first year of operation, is getting a federal grant of $167,957 for the eight months through Nov. 30. (The antipov-erty programs are conducted on a "program period," rather than a calendar or fiscal year. The program periods vary ac-crossed the county—preparing the complicated application for a federal grant for a $100,000 neighborhood facilities center. The building would house staff people of county and other public agencies, with the exception of administrative officials.

Meanwhile, SCAP, ending its first year of operation, is getting a federal grant of $167,957 for the eight months through Nov. 30. (The antipov-erty programs are conducted on a "program period," rather than a calendar or fiscal year. The program periods vary ac-crossed the county—preparing the complicated application for a federal grant for a $100,000 neighborhood facilities center. The building would house staff people of county and other public agencies, with the exception of administrative officials.

Meanwhile, SCAP, ending its first year of operation, is getting a federal grant of $167,957 for the eight months through Nov. 30. (The antipov-erty programs are conducted on a "program period," rather than a calendar or fiscal year. The program periods vary ac-crossed the county—preparing the complicated application for a federal grant for a $100,000 neighborhood facilities center. The building would house staff people of county and other public agencies, with the exception of administrative officials.

Meanwhile, SCAP, ending its first year of operation, is getting a federal grant of $167,957 for the eight months through Nov. 30. (The antipov-erty programs are conducted on a "program period," rather than a calendar or fiscal year. The program periods vary ac-

FREE TO ALL AT CARTHAGE, VASS Measles Vaccine Program To Start Sunday, May 7

The first two of five scheduled free measles vaccination clinics, sponsored by the county's public health department and the Moore County Medical Society, will take place Sunday, May 7.

The locations and times are: at the Health Center in Carthage, from 1 to 3 pm; and at the Vass - Lakeview School gymnasium, in Vass, from 4 to 5 pm.

Two other clinics will follow — at Southern Pines and West End — on Sunday, May 14.

And Dr. A. G. Siegel, county health director, has announced that a third "Measles Sunday" clinic has been scheduled at Robbins for Sunday, May 21, from 1 to 3 pm in the main hall of the Elementary School building. "Overwhelming requests" for a clinic in the northern part of the county resulted in addition of the third Sunday schedule, he said.

Persons living anywhere in the county may attend any of the clinics. There will be no charge to anybody. Children over one year of age should have the immunization, the doctors say, as well as any older person who has never had measles.

Dr. H. David Bruton, Southern Pines pediatrician, and Dr. Siegel were asked by the Moore County Society to coordinate the campaign which is part of a nation-wide drive to eradicate measles as a health threat. Doctors say the disease can be fatal and is often dangerous when accompanied by compli-

(Continued on Page 2)

Commissioners Want Bill Providing 8-Man School Board From 3 Areas

A bill providing for election of an eight-member Moore County Board of Education on the basis of the three area high school districts will be introduced in the General Assembly, if the Board of County Commissioners doesn't call for a change in the plan.

The school-board election plan was requested by the commissioners in a resolution adopted last Thursday at a special meeting. The resolution was addressed to State Rep. T. Clyde Auman of West End and State Sen. Voit Gilmore of Southern Pines.

Commissioners told Rep. Auman of their wishes last Monday at their regular meeting for May at Carthage. He said he would do what they wanted, though he favored another system.

(Members of the General Assembly customarily comply with legislative requests given them by their respective boards of county commissioners.)

He and W. B. Sabiston of Carthage, attorney for the county school board, had presented a proposed bill defining a different system of election. This provided for the election of seven regular members and two members at large. The seven regular members would be elected on the basis of the county's school - attendance districts.

The system favored by commissioners calls for election of two members from Area I, two from Area II and four from Area III. None would be members at large.

At the luncheon recess, Sen. Gilmore suggested that the commissioners think about this 2-2-4 area plan during the next week before the bill is introduced.

In reply to a commissioner's question, Sen. Gilmore pointed out that he had told the com-

(Continued on Page 2)

Five Hospital Employees Hurt In Work Mishap

Five Moore Memorial Hospital employees suffered burns about 9:45 am Tuesday by a flash of fire in the hospital's central sterile-supply department when a spark apparently ignited fumes of ether being used for cleaning equipment, a hospital spokesman said today (Wednesday).

Two were admitted with first-degree burns (the least serious of the three degrees) on the arms and legs and were reported in satisfactory condition today. They are Mrs. Esther Roberts of Pinehurst, a licensed practical nurse who is central supply supervisor; and Mrs. Mae Newell of Lakeview, a central supply technician.

The others were treated also for burns on the arms and legs but were not injured seriously enough to be admitted to the hospital and were sent home.

They were Mrs. Mary Jane Harris and Mrs. Doris Ewings, both of Jackson Springs, Route 1; and Edward C. Graham of Raeford, Route 1. The hospital spokesman, Duncan McGoogan, Moore Memorial administrator, said Graham returned to duty today but the others remained home.

He said the spark apparently was caused by a spark from a welding torch.

(Continued on Page 2)

Tennis Try-Outs Set On Sunday Afternoon

Try-outs for the town men's tennis team that will represent Southern Pines in the Eastern Carolina League this summer will be held at 2 pm Sunday, at the town park courts, reports Dick Kobleur, president of the Sandhills Tennis Association.

Short matches will be played to determine team positions. There are no age limits, Kobleur said, urging high school players to try out for the team. Women may try out, but there is no separate women's team, he noted.

4 Incumbent Town Councilmen Elected, 1 Loses; Hodgkins Remains As Mayor

SWORN IN — Members of the Southern Pines Town Council elected Tuesday for the next two years took their oaths of office this morning (Wednesday). Mrs. Mildred McDonald, town clerk, administered the oaths. Left to right, Mrs. McDonald, Mayor Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr., Mayor Pro

Tem Felton J. Capel, Dr. R. J. Dougherty, L. D. McDonald and C. A. McLaughlin. Mrs. McDonald also swore into office Judge W. Harry Fullenwider of Recorder's Court and Court Solicitor Howard C. Broughton, both unopposed for re-election (Humphrey photo)

Southern Pines voters made one change on the town council Tuesday in the biennial municipal election and re-elected four incumbents.

Former Councilman C. A. McLaughlin replaced Councilman George H. Leonard Jr., seeking his second term.

McLaughlin served the 1963-65 term, but lost in his race for re-election.

In his first official act as a councilman for the new term, McLaughlin nominated Norris L. Hodgkins Jr. for mayor in the new council's first official session Wednesday morning after Mrs. Mildred McDonald administered the oaths of office in the town hall courtroom and council chamber.

Hodgkins won re-election to his third term Tuesday and was re-elected unanimously to his second term as mayor by his fellow councilmen this morning.

He led the field of nine candidates in Tuesday's election, getting 697 of the 1,109 valid ballots used.

Felton J. Capel, re-elected to his fifth consecutive term, was re-elected mayor pro tem for his second straight term by unanimous vote. He was nominated by Councilman L. D. McDonald.

McDonald, re-elected to his second term, was re-elected town treasurer by a 3-2 vote in a secret ballot. He was nominated by Dr. R. J. Dougherty. Then Dr. Dougherty was nominated for treasurer by McLaughlin.

Mayor Hodgkins asked for a secret vote because of "personalities" involved. McLaughlin voted against the motion and the other councilmen voted in favor.

Dr. Dougherty was elected to his first full term Tuesday after serving the unexpired portion of a year of the term of Councilman Lee K. Smith, who resigned from the

(Continued on Page 2)

Elections Held Throughout Moore County

Six other Moore County towns besides Southern Pines held their regular municipal elections Tuesday.

The results are as follows:

ABERDEEN
Jack M. Taylor was re-elected, unopposed, for his second term as mayor, with 206 votes. Aberdeen voters returned two incumbents to the town board and turned down two others.

Elected commissioners were Hugh Styers, 140; E. O. Freeman, incumbent, 138; Frank McNeill, incumbent, J. K. Bridgers and former police chief (now retired) A. F. Dees, with 132 votes each.

The other candidates: C. L. Guion, incumbent, 128; Ralph Leach, former board member, 114; and John G. Sloan, incumbent, 94.

Re-elected without opposition were J. G. Farrell, judge of Aberdeen Recorder's Court, 182; and Robert N. Page III, (Continued on Page 6)

FOR SANDHILLS Liquor-By-Drink Election Bills Are Introduced

Bills authorizing referendums on sales of liquor by the drink on licensed premises in the Moore County townships of McNeill, Sandhill and Mineral Springs were introduced Monday night in the State Senate and State House by State Sen. Voit Gilmore of Southern Pines and State Rep. T. Clyde Auman of West End.

The legislation provides the calling of a referendum by the Moore County Board of Elections on its receipt of petitions bearing signatures of at least 15 per cent of the qualified voters of the township concerned.

If sales of liquor by the drink are approved by a majority of the voters in the referendum, the legislation provides, the county ABC board would issue licenses to "bona fide" private clubs; to

(Continued on Page 2)

OFFICIAL RESULTS IN TOWN ELECTION

(In order of votes received)
FOR TOWN COUNCIL ELECTED
Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr. 697
Felton J. Capel 540
Dr. R. J. Dougherty 503
C. A. McLaughlin 462
L. D. McDonald 459

ALSO-RAN
W. S. Johnson 448
George H. Leonard, Jr. 423
Mrs. Marquita Daniels 417
Jerry D. Rhoades 308

FOR JUDGE
W. H. Fullenwider 721
(Unopposed)

FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY
Howard C. Broughton 682
(Unopposed)

Young Musicians To Give Concert Saturday Night

Young musicians of Moore County will perform in a free concert at the Aberdeen school auditorium at 8 pm Saturday. It will be the 18th such concert sponsored by the Sandhills Music Association.

The public is invited. To be heard will be pianists, vocalists, a flute player and a guitarist. All are pupils of Moore County music teachers.

The program is being arranged by Mrs. Billiegene Garner and the master of ceremonies will be Richard Mitchell of the Music Association.

The students to be heard are:
From Southern Pines—Lucy Mims, Karen Daniels, Cindy (Continued on Page 2)

SUPERIOR COURT Speed, Racing Charges Bring 18-Month Term

Jimmie Elden Davis, 25, of Robbins, Route 2, drew two concurrent 18-month sentences in Moore County Superior Court in Carthage last Thursday following conviction by a jury earlier in the week on charges of speeding more than 120 miles per hour and prearranged racing.

Through counsel, the defendant gave notice of appeal to the State Supreme Court and Judge Walter E. Johnston, Jr., set appeal bond at $300 and appearance bond at $5,000.

It was the hardest-fought case of the criminal term, which ended Thursday afternoon, after the judge and Solicitor M. G. Boyette had worked their way briskly for four days through a thicket of cases. While a number of continuances were made for cause and some capias were issued, good progress was made despite many delays now necessitated for protection of defendants' constitutional rights.

Apparel, Thefts
Wellford Lee Braxton of Richmond, Va., facing four charges of breaking, entering and larceny in connection with large thefts from apparel shops, and Augustus Lee Johnson of Kinston, charged with receiving stolen goods, pleaded guilty and nolo contendere, Braxton receiving a 10-year sentence, Johnson seven to 10 years.

The cases involved a total of some $20,000 worth of apparel stolen from Louise Gardner's Country Club Fashions and the Country Club of North (Continued on Pg. 3, Sec. 4)

IN WEAVER AUDITORIUM HERE Area III School Study Results To Be Told At Monday Meeting

The citizens of Area III in Moore County who have been studying the philosophy, curriculum and services of the public school system since November will present their findings at a public meeting scheduled for Weaver Auditorium in Southern Pines at 8 pm Monday.

The reports will include the present status of education in Area III of the county as well as recommendations to the School Advisory Council and the Moore County Board of Education concerning needs for the new Pinecrest High School. Many questions that have arisen will be answered. Among them are:

—What vocational courses will be offered?
—How many foreign languages will be taught?
—Should team teaching be initiated?
—Will TV and other communications be utilized?

—What are the financial needs?
—When will the school open?
—What will be the total cost of the project when completed?
—Are federal and foundation funds available?

Other reports will be a picture (Continued on Page 2)

THE WEATHER

Maximum and minimum temperatures for each day of the past week were recorded as follows at the US Weather Bureau observation station, at WEEB, on Midland Road.

	Max.	Min.
April 26	66	45
April 27	64	52
April 28	65	42
April 29	73	37
April 30	74	43
May 1	83	59
May 2	83	60

Campbell Gets 10-Up North-South Victory

N & S WINNER — William C. Campbell, left, of Huntington, W. Va., the 10-up winner of last week's North and South golf championship at Pinehurst, receives his silver service trophy from Admiral Thomas C. Ragan, president of the Pinehurst Country Club. (Hemmer photo)

Bill Campbell, a 43-year-old Walker Cup player from Huntington, W. Va., holds the 1967 North and South Amateur Golf Championship. Campbell won his fourth North and South title at Pinehurst Saturday with a 10-and-9 victory over Bill Hyndman, 51, in the 36-hole finals of the 67th annual tournament. Hyndman, like Campbell, is a veteran of Walker Cup, Americas Cup and World Amateur teams. This was Hyndman's 12th (Continued on Page 2)