

MEMORIAL FUND — Mrs. Watson G. Scott, Jr., of Southern Pines and Dr. Raymond Stone (seated), president of Sandhills Community College, discuss gifts to a scholarship fund made by Quality Oil Company and by Mrs. Scott, in memory of her late husband. Standing are Bert Bennett of Winston-Salem (left) and J. Kirk Glenn, Jr., of Southern Pines, both representing the oil company. (Humphrey photo)

Schedule Announced For New Mobile Job Office

A schedule has been announced by the Sandhills Community Action Program office in Carthage for the unique employment service "job mobile" that will operate over Moore County.

Joe Lemeuly will be the employment counselor traveling with the mobile office, the announcement said. Job information will be provided, job applicants will be interviewed and preliminary screening for various occupations will be done.

The schedule lists community visits (at the town hall or municipal center in each place) on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. On Wednesday of next week and subsequent Wednesdays, the job mobile will visit industrial plants around the county to determine industry's needs and otherwise cooperate in assistance to employers.

The schedule:

Monday—Cameron, 10 am to 12 noon; Aberdeen, 1:30 to 2:30 pm; Pinebluff 3 to 4 pm.

Tuesday—Carthage, 10 am to 12 noon; Robbins, 1:30 pm to 3:30 pm.

Thursday — Southern Pines, 10 am to 12 noon; Pinehurst, 1:30 pm to 3:30.

Friday—West End—10 am to 12 noon.

There may be minor changes in this schedule in the future, the announcement said, but it is expected to remain approximately the same each week.

The experimental project, operating only in Moore County, in North Carolina, is conducted jointly by the Employment Security Commission and the SCAP office in Carthage.

Town Council Sets Public Hearing On Zoning Changes

The Southern Pines Town Council Tuesday night set for October 30 at 8 pm a public hearing on a proposed amendment to the zoning ordinance which would establish a new district — Suburban Commercial.

The session will be held in the Municipal Center courtroom. The action was taken during the council's regular meeting for October at the Municipal Center. All the members of the council attended. Mayor map and on two other proposed changes in the zoning ordinance.

The hearing also was set to consider an affiliated proposal—to amend the zoning

OPENING THE STORE — Miss North Carolina—Sara Elizabeth Stedman of Asheboro — ceremonially cuts the ribbon formally opening the new Macks Store at Town & Country Shopping Center, US 1 south, Tuesday morning. Flanking her are O. T. Sloan (left) of Sanford, president of Macks Stores, Inc., and Richard Platt, manager of the new store. (Pilot photo)

AT FORMAL OPENING

Macks Stores, Inc.'s, new business baby was born formally Tuesday morning and its first day of life was a popular success.

Men, women and children by the thousands streamed through the three double doors at Town & Country Shopping Center on US 1 just south of Southern Pines, from the time Miss North Carolina ceremoniously cut the ribbon about 10:30 am officially opening the Norris L. Hodgkins Jr. presided.

The other proposed changes would:

—Delete the word "coin operated" from the list of permitted uses in one zone. This change would permit operation of a new dry-cleaning plant being established on Bennett Street near Morganton Road.

—Amend the ordinance to include in Residence Multiple the area bounded by May and Ridges Streets, Manly Avenue and the town limit.

The new Suburban Commercial zone would be the area just south of the town limits from Howard Johnson's through the Jones Skating rink property on the west side to a depth of 500 feet; and on the east side from the point of U.S. 15-501 and U. S. 1 through the Simpson's Nursery property to a depth of 300 feet.

The uses permitted in the new zone would include:

—Any residential structures housing one or more families and all other uses permitted in the Residential Single and Residential Multiple districts.

—Agencies such as real estate, insurance, advertising and others rendering specialized services.

—Public buildings.

—Offices rendering professional services — law, medical, dental, pharmacy, engineering, among others.

—Public and private general-educational institutions, and music and dancing and similar schools.

—Financial institutions.

—Civic, fraternal and charitable organizations.

—Dry-cleaning and laundry establishments.

—Bowling lanes, skating

(Continued on Page 2)

Thousands Visit Macks

Specialty people who serve the entire Macks chain were on hand for the occasion—women's ready to wear buyer Mrs. Tophia Medlin of Sanford, wig stylists Mrs. Iris Martin and Mrs. Gaynell Gibbons, and others. Also at the new store for the occasion was Mrs. Daisy Kelly, now of Sanford, who has served at most of the Macks stores in the years she has been with the firm since it started 44 years ago. She has been assistant manager of the 40-year-old Southern Pines Store, manager of the 39-year-old Aberdeen store and the store at Carthage, during her career.

Greeting the visitors were the company's president, O. T. Sloan and Richard Platt, manager of the new store.

(Continued on Page 2)

Anti-Litter Action Planned By Local Group

The Southern Pines Beautification Commission is asking the town's three garden clubs to help eliminate littering by reporting violations members see.

State Highway Commission Chairman Joseph Hunt advised the town commission by letter that reports of violations should be sent to the local police. The police would identify the owner of the car, inform him the violation had been seen involving his vehicle and the anti-litter laws could be cited to him.

The contents of the letter, written in reply to a commission question, were reported to members of the beautification commission at its October 3 meeting.

The members were advised that all reports of litter violations should be made in writing and bear the name and address of the sender.

Commission Secretary E. A. Regan was instructed to write to the local garden clubs asking that their members cooperate and ask their friends to cooperate.

Miss Betty Dumaine of Pinehurst told the beautification commission that a similar

(Continued on Page 2)

DORMITORIES, ATHLETICS, FEES

Trustees, State Group Talk College Problems

Trustees of the Sandhills Community College met with the Community College Committee of the State Board of Education in Raleigh, Wednesday night of last week.

Purpose of the meeting, requested by the Sandhills Community College Trustees, was to review the program of the college and discuss future planning, said H. Clifton Blue of Aberdeen, trustee board chairman.

Trustees making the trip were Mr. Blue, Dr. W. E. Alexander, J. C. Robbins, N. L. Hodgkins, J. E. Causey, Paul Dickson, Robert S. Ewing, Ralph Monger, Jr., L. L. Marion, Jr., Dr. F. L. Owens and Dr. A. A. Vanore.

Dr. Raymond Stone, college president, and Edward W. Durant and Carl A. Lang of the college's administrative staff, accompanied the group.

John Reynolds, chairman of the Community College Committee of the State Board of Education, presided at the meeting.

Mr. Blue reviewed the work of the Commission on Education Beyond the High School and told briefly of Sandhills Community College activities

(Continued on Page 2)

Gifts Establish Scholarship In Honor Of Scott

Dr. Raymond A. Stone, president of Sandhills Community College, has announced two gifts to establish the Watson C. Scott Nursing Scholarship to aid deserving students in the two-year Associate Degree Nursing Education Program at the college.

The Quality Oil Company of West End originated the scholarship fund with a check for $500 which was presented to Dr. Stone by Bert Bennett of Winston-Salem, president of Quality Oil Company, and by J. Kirk Glenn, Jr., of Southern Pines, who succeeded Mr. Scott as manager of Quality's West End facility, following Mr. Scott's death on August 3 at the age of 47.

The West End distributorship is one of seven subsidiaries of Quality Oil Company.

(Continued on Page 2)

Lynchburg Man Is Killed In Traffic Crash

Four young Lynchburg, Va. men, leaving for home after playing golf at Whispering Pines Sunday afternoon, were in an accident less than a mile from the course, and one of them was killed.

Trooper J. F. Tomberlin identified the victim as Larry Wayne Page, 27, a passenger in the car driven by his friend and next-door neighbor, Aubrey Leon Crist, 29. Others in the car were John Evans, 32, and Robert Gentry, 27.

Tomberlin said Crist ran a stop sign at Matthews Store, where two rural paved roads intersect. Going north on the Niagara Road, Crist's car was struck in the left side by one driven by Joseph W. Wortham, 21, heading toward Vass on the Carthage-Vass Road, the officer reported. Wortham, a Special Forces soldier stationed

(Continued on Page 2)

Aberdeen Youth Dies In Wreck At Burlington

The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at First Baptist Church of Aberdeen, for John D. Anderson, 19, a student at Elon College who was killed in an automobile accident Friday night at Burlington.

The Rev. Gwenn E. McCormick, pastor, officiated at the services. Burial was in Old Bethesda cemetery.

Young Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Anderson of Aberdeen, was a passenger in a car containing four students, which was in collision with another car containing two students in a residential area of Burlington at 11:28 pm Friday.

Police reported James L. Warner, 20, of Glenolden, Pa., driver of the compact car in which Anderson was riding, lost control of the car, which turned sideways and struck the other car broadside. Anderson was pronounced dead on arrival at Memorial Hospital, Burlington. Alamance County Coroner Herbert Lowe said he died of head injuries.

Five others were treated at the hospital for apparently minor injuries.

Police said Warner was

(Continued on Page 2)

Man Is Charged With Property Damage, Assault

A Fayetteville man damaged veterinary clinic property and a 1967 Cadillac and allegedly attacked two men who were strangers to him late Saturday at Vass, Police Chief James R. Grissom of Vass reported.

Chief Grissom said the alleged attacker was subdued by relatives of the two intended victims and turned over to Grissom and Moore County Deputy Sheriff J. L. Ledbetter of Southern Pines.

The Vass chief identified the prisoner as Garfield C. Beck, about 32, of 708 Orchard Drive, Fayetteville.

Chief Grissom said Beck suffered head lacerations during the incident but he had not determined whether Beck was injured by his own exertions or while being subdued.

He said Beck after being treated at Moore Memorial

(Continued on Page 2)

827 Enrolled At Sandhills

A total of 827 students from 39 counties are enrolled at Sandhills Community College for the fall term, Mrs. Ann McCutcheon, registrar, reported this week.

She said that more than a third of this number is from Moore and adjacent counties. The count includes the students in the college-transfer and the technical-vocational education programs.

The fall term enrollment in the Adult Education Program at Sandhills to date is five hundred and thirty-eight students. During the 1967 - 68 school year more than 4,000 adults are expected to register in the varied courses of continuing education.

Admiral Ragan Heads Humane Society Drive

The Humane Society of Moore County launched its membership-contributors campaign Tuesday, under the chairmanship of Admiral Thomas C. Ragan at a luncheon in the Campbell House here.

A Committee-of-Twenty-One met then for the initial briefing in the county-wide solicitation of financial support for the humanitarian organization as it enters its second year of operation.

Wallace W. O'Neal of Pinehurst and Tom Morton of Southern Pines are in charge of special task forces in their areas. Mrs. Margo Lee accepted assignment of another task force and Miss Betty Dumaine will head up a fourth group. Remaining committee members were given sections of an additional list of 3,500 county residents whose support will

(Continued on Page 2)

Fabric Sale To Benefit HUSOM

The Humane Society of Moore County will receive the entire proceeds of a sale of fabric samples and remnants, to be conducted from 10 am to 3 pm, Saturday, October 14, at the studio of Miss Frances Pleasants, interior decorator, in the Village Court Building, Pinehurst.

The benefit event will make available a wide variety of patterns and textures, in first-quality material.

Members and friends of the Society were reminded by its officers this week also of another fund-raising event for the society next month—an art exhibit and auction of original paintings and other art works to be conducted Tuesday, November 7, in the Village Chapel Hall, at Pinehurst. Details will be announced.

Upcoming on the Society's calendar, as well, is its annual meeting at 8 pm, Thursday, October 26, in the Campbell House here.

Carpetland, New Business Will Open Saturday

Carpetland, a partnership retail carpet sales business, will have its grand opening at 9 am Saturday, on W. New Hampshire Ave., at the rear of the 176 N. W. Broad St. Building.

The location was formerly occupied by the library of Sandhills Community College and, years ago, by Patch's Tug Shop.

There will be door prizes for the opening and a grand prize will be given away at 9 pm Saturday.

Partners in the operation are Chester D. Kendrick of Pinehurst and James L. Sanders of Fayetteville. They will operate the business themselves until a local manager is trained.

It will be the third Carpetland store. One is located in Fayetteville and another in Dunn.

Mr. Sanders, who has had over six years of experience in the carpet business, said that the Carpetland stores have direct factory contacts. A variety of carpets will be displayed and installation service will be available.

Mr. Kendrick's home in Pinehurst is "The Castle," a well known residence in the community. One of its former owners was Fred Taylor of Vass.

East Side PTA To Meet Monday Night

A reception for new teachers, giving parents an opportunity to meet them, will be a feature of the October meeting of the East Southern Pines Parent-Teacher Association, to be held in Weaver Auditorium, Monday, October 16, at 8 pm, it was announced this week.

HALL SUCCEEDS HIM IN OFFICIAL POST Hemmer Resigns As Pinehurst Photographer

John G. Hemmer of Pinehurst, who has been official photographer for Pinehurst, Inc., during the past 42 years, has resigned and has been succeeded in the post by Geoffrey Hall, a young man whom he has trained during the past year.

The announcement was made this week by the Pinehurst Press Bureau and Mr. Hemmer.

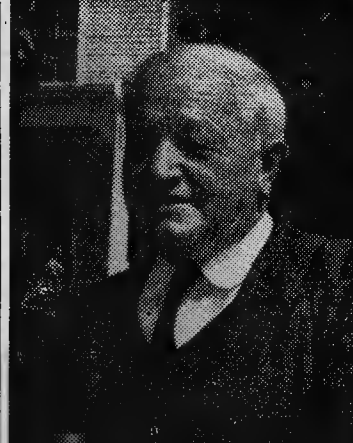

Mr. Hall is setting up his own studio and darkroom facilities in the old Carolina Theatre building in Pinehurst, to begin operations there on Thursday. Mr. Hemmer will continue to conduct his private photography business of long standing in the studio building near his home, both located just behind the theatre building. He said he will do special assignments and all types of private photographic work.

The new Pinehurst photographer who will handle News Bureau assignments in all phases of resort operations, working with Bob Howard, News Bureau director, is a

(Continued on Page 2)

GEOFFREY HALL native of Michigan who attended Alma College at Alma in that state and graduated from Winona Professional Photographers School, Winona.

JOHN G. HEMMER

NEW GOLF CLUB Quail Ridge Tournery Set For Weekend

A national invitational tournament of two 18-hole rounds will be held this weekend at the new Quail Ridge Golf Club on U. S. 1 near the junction of U. S. 15-501 six miles south of Sanford.

Club Pro Ocell Massey said Wednesday 100 entries including top U. S. amateurs, from coast to coast, have entered for the medal-play event which starts Saturday. The tee-off in the first round is scheduled for 9 am Saturday. The second

(Continued on Page 2)

Phillips Named Toyota Dealer

Newland Phillips Motors, Inc., 795 S. W. Broad St., has been appointed a dealer for the Japanese-made Toyota automobiles, it was announced this week by Newland W. Phillips of Southern Pines, owner and operator of the agency.

He said that the new dealership covers five counties, including Moore, and will be handled by his company in addition to the other lines of U. S. and imported automobiles it now sells.

It will be the middle of November before models of the new 1968 Toyotas can be shown here, Mr. Phillips said.

The Toyota Motor Company has dealers and service centers in 78 countries of the world, including 650 dealers in the United States and

(Continued on Page 2)

Cast For Play Is Announced

William E. Watson, director of the Sandhills Playmakers, the new community theater group sponsored by Sandhills Community College, has announced the cast for the play "The Importance of Being Earnest" which will be presented next month.

Tryouts for the roles were held recently and the first rehearsal was held October 4.

Thomas Connolly, of Pinehurst, will portray the role of John; Craig Renwick of Charlotte will play Algernon; and Larry Owen of Biscoe will be the Reverend Canon Chasuble.

The feminine characters will be Mrs. Lucy Bracknell; Inza Abernathy will portray Miss Prism; and Faye Ewing will play the part of Cecily. All are from Southern Pines. Lou Roys of Whispering Pines will portray the role of Gwendolyn.

The cast includes both students and interested older persons from the Sandhills community.

14 SCHOOL GROUPS INVOLVED Countywide PTA Council Proposed

PTA presidents and principals of 14 Moore County schools met last Tuesday night at the School Administration Building near Carthage to discuss formation of a countywide PTA Council. Assisting with the meeting were Supt. Robert E. Lee and Associate Supt. C. E. Powers.

Such a council, designed to disseminate information, coordinate activities and strengthen the organization throughout the county, would be composed of the president, principal and one elected representative of each member PTA.

Since only half the PTA's now operating in Moore are organized along State guidelines, ways were studied of bringing them all into conformity with appropriate by-laws, a necessity before organization of the Council can proceed.

A committee of three of the

THE WEATHER

Maximum and minimum temperatures for each day of the past week were recorded as follows at the US Weather Bureau observation station, at WEEB, on Midland Road.

Date	Max	Min
Oct. 4	85	55
Oct. 5	86	57
Oct. 6	86	55
Oct. 7	64	54
Oct. 8	68	54
Oct. 9	79	57
Oct. 10	79	63