Carol Kelly Enlists In Air Force, Following In Footsteps Of Brother

Miss Carol R. Kelly, 22, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kelly of Route 2, Carthage, has enlisted in the US Air Force for four years.

Technical Sgt. Richard D. Davis, Rockingham recruiter, said Miss Kelly enlisted July 25. She is now at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Texas, undergoing six weeks of basic military training.

Carol is the second member of the Kelly household to join the Air Force in July. Her brother, James, II, enlisted July 5 and is also now at Lackland.

Miss Kelly is a 1964 graduate of Carthage High School. In high school she was class president during her junior and senior years, a member of the Beta Club, president of the FHA, a member of the Monogram Club and a senior "superlative." She played guard on the high school basketball team for four years.

Miss Kelly attended Appalachian College in Boone for three years, majoring in elementary psychology. During the past year she worked as a teacher's aide at Carthage Elementary School and later as a peace corps trainee in the health program.

The opportunity to finish her college education and to travel were the main reasons Miss Kelly decided to join the Air Force. "These are the two biggest reasons young women are enlisting in the Air Force today," Sgt. Davis said. Miss Kelly was undecided as to the field in which she wanted to work in the Air Force but was thinking about applying for communications.

Opportunities available in the Air Force are attracting more and more young women each year, according to Sgt. Davis, and more young ladies than ever before will be able to enlist, he said.

Some 6,000 women are now serving on active duty. "By the mid-70s," Sgt. Davis said, "the Air Force expects to have about 14,000 women wearing the blue uniform."

WITH THE ARMED FORCES

SP/4 David J. Murray of Southern Pines, a member of the 3274th U.S. Army Reserve Hospital from Durham, who is an x-ray technician, is undergoing two weeks of active duty training at Womack Army Hospital, Fort Bragg, in the unit's x-ray department.

The primary mission of the 3274th USAH is to augment a 1,000-bed Army Hospital. In addition to aiding the staff at Womack personnel of the 327th receive advanced training in both medical and administrative specialties.

Captain Grant H. Clayton, whose wife, Martha, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Carpenter of Aberdeen, recently took part in a successful strike mission over Vietnam.

Assistant Fire Chief's Home Is Damaged By Fire

A recently completed addition to the home of Southern Pines Assistant Fire Chief and Mrs. George Wentland was gutted about 9:30 am Thursday by a fire of undetermined origin.

The couple's three children and the maid who was caring for the youngsters were unharmed. Mr. and Mrs. Wentland were at work at the time.

Fire Chief Peter C. Rapatas said the fire started in a utility room occupied by a freezer, apparently the only furnishing in the frame, one-story addition to the one-story, five-bedroom frame home at 740 N. Bennett St.

At least 20 of the fire department's 29 volunteer firemen responded to the alarm, in addition to Chief Rapatas and another fulltime, paid fireman. The alarm was received about 9:30 am.

The firemen were back at the fire station at 10:45 am. Rapatas said all that saved the rest of the home from destruction was that all the windows and doors were shut because the air-conditioning system was operating.

Wentland works for the Southern Pines Post Office. His wife works at Trimble Products Inc.

Captain Clayton and a fellow A-37 pilot from the 3rd Tactical Fighter Wing at Bien Hoa AB, Vietnam, hit an enemy concentration 55 miles southwest of Saigon. They destroyed 15 bunkers, 1 sampan and 2 fighting positions, while damaging 10 bunkers.

Army Private Johnny B. Gillis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon W. F. Gillis of Pinebluff, has completed an automotive repair course at the Army Ordnance Center and School, Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md.

During the 14-week course, he was trained in the maintenance and repair of engines for the Army's tracked and wheeled vehicles.

Army Specialist Four Mack M. Kyle, 25, son of Wayne Z. Kyle, 6329 Barton, Detroit, Mich., has been assigned to the 1st Air Cavalry Division in Vietnam.

His wife, Lula, lives in Vass.

ONE PAYMENT ONLY

If a deceased veteran had active service in both World War I and World War II, a burial allowance of $250 would not be paid for each period of service. The Veterans Administration may pay up to, but not more than, $250 toward this veteran's burial expenses. The claim for reimbursement of his burial expenses must be filed with the VA within two years of the veteran's burial. His family should contact the nearest VA office for assistance in obtaining this burial allowance.

TO BE PRESENTED THURSDAY

Two Walshes Win Racing Honors

Last year's steeplechase champions were honored Thursday at the annual dinner of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association in the Canfield Casino at Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

The dinner was one of the events of National Steeplechase Day which is observed annually at Saratoga Springs, historic racing center operating continuously since 1863. The top-ranked group includes M. G. (Mickey) Walsh, owner of Stoneybrook Farm here, third leading trainer; and his nephew, Tommy Walsh, now a Long Island resident, second leading rider. Both the Walshes have placed first in their classifications, each more than once, in former years.

Following are persons who were honored, listed by NS&HA:

Mrs. Ogden Phipps was the leading money-winning owner for the third straight year, with 11 victories and stable earnings of $72,042.

Fortune P. Ryan's Quick Pitch, voted leading jumping horse of 1967, was the leading money-winner, winning six of seven starts and $45,352. His most spectacular victory was winning the 2 1/2-mile Rouge Dragon Handicap, by 16 lengths with 172 pounds.

Joe Aitchison, Jr., led the steeplechase jockeys both in money won and races won. It was his fourth riding title. Second leading rider was Tommy Walsh and third, Ron Armstrong.

D. M. (Mike) Smithwick was the leading trainer in money won and races won, too. Smithwick won 33 races and earned $202,944. Second leading trainer was W. Burling Cocks and third place went to Michael G. Walsh.

Aitchison won 36 races and earned $179,242. He also won the national riding championship in 1961, 1963, and 1964.

There was a three-way tie for leading amateur steeplechase jockey among George Strawbridge Jr., Louis Neilson III, and Russell B. Jones Jr.

A total of $1,127,218 was distributed in purses for steeplechasing for 1967, according to racing secretary Jack Cooper. Of this total, $810,050 was distributed by the New York Racing Association at its two tracks - Aqueduct and Saratoga.

"That was the biggest year in the history of the sport," said Cooper. "In 1966 the Total was $937,090, and this year it should be even bigger."

Per capita consumption of cigarettes in 1967 was 4,280 per person 18 years and older, which was slightly below the 1966 level.
