will have its annual Homecoming Sunday, Sept. 24 at the grand old Presbyterian Church near Aberdeen. Services will begin at 11:15 a.m. and a picnic dinner will follow.

Vol. 52-No. 45

28 PAGES

SOUTHERN PINES, NORTH CAROLINA WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1972

28 PAGES

PRICE 10 CENTS

Senator Barry Goldwater Comes to CCNC Tonight, Fund-Raising for Jesse

Ranger Reports 566,000 Baby Trees Are Planted

County during the last planting healthy young trees. season, the Moore County trees and left cull trees and trees with a special chemical causing of inferior species to occupy the

More than 566,000 forest site. These "weed trees" prevent tree seedlings were sold in Moore the establishment of straight,

Such areas had to be "site Ranger's Office reports. The prepared," Wicker said, reforestation projects were meaning the areas were carried out on both abandoned prepared for planting by croplands and non-productive removing the weed trees. (Using woodlands in different parts of bulldozers especially equipped the county. for forestation work, the weed The non-productive woodlands, trees were pushed into small County Ranger Wicker ex- windrows.) OR (In areas too plained, were areas on which steep for mechanical site past harvest operations had preparation, large trees which removed the most desirable had to be removed were injected

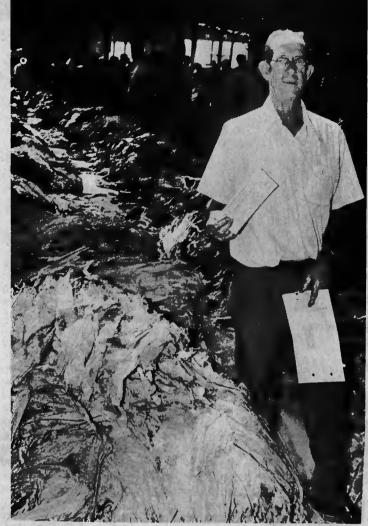

(Continued on Page 8-A)

U.S. Senator Barry Goldwater will come to the Country Club of North Carolina tonight, as the campaign for the North Carolina seat in the Senate quickens.

Sen. Goldwater, who ran for President in 1964, will speak in behalf of Republican candidate Jesse Helms at a dinner.

Cocktails at 6 p.m. will be followed by a dinner at 7:30, and speakers at 8:30. Helms will also speak. Some 300 persons are expected.

The campaign gained steam last week in the Sandhills when Democratic candidate, Nick Galifianakis was entertained at a gathering of party leaders at Cliff Blue's cabin. Among them were N.C. Senatorial candidates incumbent William P. Saunders and Lonnie Coleman, Rep. Clyde (Continued on Page 8-A)

"THE HAPPY FARMER" - Robert Bowman of near West End may not be the fellow the tune "The Happy Farmer" was written about, but he was pleased with the $87.00 a hundred his 3,000 pounds of tobacco brought on opening day Monday. He's hoping the price will go up before he brings the rest of his tobacco to market, but describes the price he got on the first lot as "real good."

BABY KITTENS - These are only two little animals cared for by the Husom Animal Shelter near Carthage, because nobody wants them. They are up for adoption. Photo by Bryan Green.

George Adams, Chairman.

nonprofit organization

Husom Membership Drive Kiwanis "Off to Good Start" Here To Hear

50 Democrats Form Group For Campaign

Steps were taken at a meeting Activities in Moore County and is the Holiday Inn. Tuesday night toward formation of a local campaign organization depending entirely for its support for the election of all Democrats through memberships and in November "from the White donations with the exception of House to the courthouse." Responding to a call issued on is supported from County funds. short notice, about 50 Democrats met at the Southern Pines Civic $5.00 per year, Contributing Club building, with Dr. Raymond $15.00 per year, Supporting $25.00 A. Stone as acting chairman.

Mrs. Carolyn Blue of Eagle per year. All memberships and (Continued on Page 8-A)

The Campaign for members of the Humane Society of Moore Sullivan County, Inc. was off to a good start last week, according to Leo J. Sullivan, first man to fly the C-141 Starlifter, will be the This agency has the entire speaker at the Kiwanis Club responsibility for Animal Control meeting Wednesday, Sept. 30, at

> Engineer, Design for Product Safety at LockHeed-Georgia

Company.

Ever since he took the world's the Dog Warden Activities which largest aircraft, the C-5 Galaxy, Memberships are: Regular off on its first flight in June, 1968, Leo J. Sullivan has been in $15.00 per year, Supporting $25.00 demand as a speaker before per year, and Patron $50.00 Up pilots' groups, engineering Term With organizations, business

THEY WORK — Anyone who isn't a firm believer in seat belts should ask Curtis Mabry of Durham what he thinks of them. He was the driver of this car which overturned Thursday morning after trying to avoid a collision with another car on US 1 near the Holiday Inn. Although his wife was slightly injured in the accident, both were wearing seat belts. Aberdeen Rescue Squad personnel on the scene credited the seat belts with preventing serious injuries in the mishap.

Flim- Flammers Hit Two Security Cases Social BY KAY PERKINS

Paper Drive

Sunday, September 17 beginning at 2 p.m. The Jaycees will pick up throughout the town of Southern Pines. Citizens are asked to bundle paper and put it on the curb. Anyone having large quantities of paper can call Carlin Bunnell at 944-7424 or men. notify any officer of the Southern Pines Jaycees and arrangements will be made to pick up the paper. A trailer will be placed in parking lot of the Town Center Shopping Center for anyone who would like to bring

Officers of the club are Don Hill, Walker Oldham, Larry amount of her social security White, Billy Short, Gregg Allen check would be raised. and Bob Haarlow.

Two flim-flam men have been operating in Moore County, says The Southern Pines Jaycees Miss Janet Reynolds, Moore will conduct a paper drive on County social worker, who issued a warning to the public. Two incidences have occurred in the county, involving two middle age white males, who pose as a doctor and a social security official. As of Thursday, $250 has been stolen by the two

According to Miss Reynolds, the first incident occurred on August 15 at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Baldwin, 77, in Vass. Mrs. Baldwin told Miss Reynolds that two middle-aged males appeared at her home and told her that she had to have a physical examination before the

(Continued on Page 8-A)

he Holiday Inn. He is assistant to the Chief Board Lets Street Bid To Riley Paving Firm

SCC Opens Over 1300

Sandhills Community College this week started a full week of classes beginning the eighth year of operation.

First classes of the fall term were held September 7 with a record number of students in all educational programs.

Enrollment in the daytime and (Continued on Page 8-A) council in regular meeting Tuesday night voted unanimously to take $50,000 in unappropriated surplus now on certificate of deposit, add it to improvements this year and let Martin of Greensboro. He is a contracts totalling $74,954 to Riley Paving Co. of Carthage for several drainage projects, in-cluding paving, in West Southern Riley was the low bid of four opened Thursday, when the council had been dismayed to find that it was larger than the entire amount appropriated for evening college credit courses these and other street imtotals more than 1300 students. provement projects for the year.

(Continued on Page 8-A)

the lake near Pinebluff last Friday night and called for an all-out vote "from the White House to the courthouse."

Galiafianakis spoke briefly, pointing to his moderate voting record and his service in the General Assembly of North Carolina and the U.S. Congress. He announced that Hugh Morton of Wilmington and Linville will head up an organization of North Carolina businessman committed to his candidacy and expressed ap-

DEMOCRATS - Upwards of a preciation for the support given hundred Democratic leaders him in his race for the Senate. He gathered at Cliff Blue's cabin on was accompanied by his campaign manager, Dixie Hall. Many state candidates were present. Chairman for Moore County, Carolyn Blue and candidates for the county board of Senatorial Candidate Nick commissioners Frank McCaskill and Will Frye were among the speakers.

> SHRIVER - Plans are being made for a giant Democratic rally in Fayetteville with Sargent Shriver, candidate for Vice President, as the speaker.

Mrs. Stephen Safran, Cum-(Continued on Page 8-A)

Tobacco Prices Up To Record $87.09 At Opening Sales

TOTAL REGISTRATION BY PRECINCTS

Registration totals in Moore County reached 17,557 as of August 31, the Moore County Board of Elections reported. By precincts, they are as shown here. More than 11,000 are Democrats and more than 5,000 Republicans.

	DEMOCRAT	REPUBLICAN	INDEP	AMER	OTHER	WHITTE	NEGRO	OTHER	TOTAL
E. Aberdeen	521	96	11		1	434	194	1	629
W. Aberdeen	937	258	13		4	1099	113	10	1212
Bensalem	374	515	53			850	92		942
Cameron	539	155	19		2	640	74	1	715
E. Carthage	571	123	16	- 1	4	582	132		714
W. Carthage	1025	174	22		7	1079	149		1228
Deep River	120	33	5	1	1.2	143	15		158
Eureka	319	426	19		9	761	12		773
High Falls	251	144	29	2		397	29		426
Knollwood	437	189	35		12	527	144	2	673
Little River	192	21	8		1	147	73	2	222
Pinebluff	348	120	10	3.	8	438	48		486
Pinedene	496	305	35	2	12	836	14		850
Pinehurst	998	513	33		13	1218	337	2	1557
Ritter	314	231	21		183	500	66		566
Robbins	630	557	90		4	1178	103	31.0	1281
N. So. Pines	1061	422	34		20	1425	110	2	1537
S. So. Pines	932	265	25		6	770	458		1228
Vass	544	103	28	1	2	617	57	3	677
West End	561	156	11	1	3	575	157	100	732
Westmoore	219	692	40		- 61	911	40	110 11	951
Totals	11,389	5,498	755	91	108	15,127	2417	23	17,557

Bulletin

New Pastor Comes Here This Week

The Rev. Carl Martin

The new minister for the Church of the Wide Fellowship United Church of Christ, Rev. Carl R. Martin, will assume pastoral duties September 15. The Rev. Martin is the son of the $70,000 budget for all street late Mr. and Mrs. Fred W.

(Continued on Page 8-A)

Rep. Ingram Visits Moore On Tuesday

Ingram, Democratic Nominee services, homemaker, and for Insurance Commissioner brought his campaign to Moore County on Tuesday.

As he traveled the county he spoke with political leaders and voters expressing his ideas and views on the office he is seeking. "I was proud to serve with Sen. Saunders and Rep. Auman," he (Continued on Page 8-A)

Culdee Church Celebrates 68th Year

Established in 1886, the Culdee Presbyterian Church will celebrate its eighty-sixth anniversary at the eleven o'clock Worship Service next Sunday morning.

The pastor, the Rev. W. K. Fitch, Jr. will preach on the subject "Changing Directions." Mr. Fitch has been pastor of

(Continued on Page 8-A)

Two people are being held without bond in the Moore County Jail on charges of murdering Alonzo McMillan, 63, of 443 Hardin St. in Southern Sheriff C. G. Wimberly said at 2:00 p.m. today that Fred Leon Ruth, 18, Southern Pines, and his sister, Deloris Ruth Tommer, 20, of Carthage, Route 1, are charged with the murder.

Region H Gets Funds

An Areawide Model Project was recently funded by the Governor's Council on Aging for the Multi-County Planning Region H, which includes the counties of Anson, Montgomery, Moore and Richmond and is sponsored by the Pee Dee

Council of Governments. Region H was funded in the amount of $39,790 with $4,227 coming from the Governor's Council on Aging.

According to J. Eddie Brown, Executive Director of the Council, these Areawide Model funds are to provide staff to develop comprehensive plans for services needed to help senior adults remain in their own homes as long as practicable and desirable. They will have access to the services of various local State Representative John agencies such as home health

(Continued on Page 8-A)

$258,539.44, an average of $87.09 a hundred. The two warehouses in

Middle Belt tobacco markets opened Monday in Aberdeen and Carthage, with average opening day prices running at a record high from nine to ten dollars a hundred above last year's

The three warehouses in

Carthage, Farmer's, McConnell

and Victory, reported sales of 295,509 pounds of tobacco for opening figures.

Aberdeen conducting sales, Planters and Hardee's, reported sales of 274,590 pounds of leaf for $237,962.12, an average of $86.66 per hundred.

On opening day last year, the Aberdeen markets averaged $76.44 a hundred and the Carthage warehouses reported an average of $77.77 a hundred.

Farmers selling at the warehouses or just watching the auction sales appeared generally pleased at the opening prices, but don't expect their net profits to be much higher even though prices are up almost ten dollars a hundred over last year.

Grower Robert Bowman of West End, whose 3,000 pounds on the floor brought $87.00 for each (Continued on Page 8-A)

FAMED PREACHER HERE — Dr. Norman Vincent Peale of New York was among speakers at the N.C. Motor Carriers Association 43rd Anniversary Concenttion in Pinehurst from Monday until today.

Aberdeen Fogging Affected?

The Aberdeen Town Board took action during their September meeting Monday evening to comply with a regulation that all local governments in the state license pesticide applicators by January 1.

In Aberdeen's case the regulation applies to those who fog for mosquitos, and the Board named J. H. Morfield as the person to be licensed as Supervisor for Aberdeen, and

(Continued on Page 8-A)

OLD HOME WEEK - The families of Mrs. Wanda Clayton of Aberdeen and candidate Richard Clark have known each other for a long time, but the first time they met was on Clark's handshaking tour Friday in front of the Pilot, near the Village Candle Shop and Candy Shop, where Mrs. Clayton is employed. In Anson County, Mrs. Clayton went to school with two of Clark's brothers, and knew his mother.