Couple Marries Aug. 17; To Live in Pinehurst

Miss Amy Eugenia Springsteen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Springsteen of 184 Main Street, Cold Spring Harbor, became the bride of Mr. Michael Matthew Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Murphy of Pinehurst, formerly of Huntington, Long Island, at a candlelight ceremony on August 17 at the Community Methodist Church in Cold Spring Harbor.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a "Gone with the Wind" style dress of mauve sate' peau overlaid with ivory chantilly lace. Antique buttons from the wedding gown of her great-grandmother, Mrs. Charles H. Newman, (who was married in 1883) were used on the gown. The bride carried a crescent bouquet of lily of the valley and stephanotis.

Miss Nancy Stusvick was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Bonnie Jean Springsteen, sister of the bride, Mrs. Richard Newman of East Quogue, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Paul Hoerig of Lyman, New Hampshire, the groom's sister and Miss Christine Carpiatano of Lloyd Harbor. They wore empire style gowns of pink and carried nosegays of pink and white daisies.

Mr. Richard Reilly of Cold Spring Harbor, served as best man. Ushers were Walter and Jeffrey Springsteen, brothers of the bride, Paul Hoerig, the groom's brother-in-law, Paul Howe of Cold Spring Harbor, and Gregory Schmidt of Syosset.

An evening reception was held at the bride's home. The young couple will make their home in Pinehurst.

Marriage Announced

Mrs. Joan Miles announces the marriage of her daughter, Roberta Frye Griffin, formerly of Southern Pines, to Harry L. Miller of West Palm Beach, Fla. The wedding took place on Sept. 21 at Unity Prayer Chapel and officiating was the Rev. Hal Rosencram.

Henry Joseph Miller served as his father's best man, and Miss Connie Ann Griffin was her mother's maid of honor.

A reception followed the wedding ceremony at the Ramada-on-the-Green. The couple will be at home at 7221 Palmdale Rd., West Palm Beach, Fla.

Men's Garden Club Cookout Is Held Here

The Men's Garden Club of Southern Pines held their annual cook-out on the patio of the Campbell House recently.

About 25 couples attended. Costumed Chef Bruce Warlick and Assistant Chef Jim Hartshorne broiled to order Rib Eye steak over charcoal grill to the taste of all.

Entertainment was featured by a pantomime of Charlie Chaplin by member Jim Bernado, after which the head chef, Dr. Warlick, led the entire group in singing of Southern well-known songs.

Miss Edwards Is Married To Mr. Lentz on Sept. 28

Miss Gwendolyn Bly Edwards of Southern Pines became the bride of John Charles Lentz of Aberdeen in a candlelight service at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening, September 28, in the Church of Christ, Newport, N.C. Ron Edwards of Sharon, Pa., brother of the bride, was the officiating minister.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B.A. Edwards of Newport, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Laura Lentz Cook of Rhodhiss and the late Mr. Lentz of Aberdeen. Soloist for the double ring ceremony was Dennis Hamlin, minister of the church. He sang the theme song "Love Story." Vocal recordings of the traditional wedding songs were used for the processional and recessional.

The pulpit was decorated with nine-branched tree candelabras flanked by tall baskets of white flowers and greenery. A white lighted candle adorned each of the ivy-lined windows in the sanctuary.

Mr. Edwards gave his daughter in marriage. As they approached the pulpit, they paused at her mother's pew and presented her a rose from her bouquet. She wore a formal gown of candlelight satin styled with a raised waistline and lace overlay bodice, full lace sleeves with satin cuffs, and A-line skirt. Her chapel train of satin was attached at the shoulders. Her chaplet was fashioned of autumn-colored silk flowers and baby's breath, and she carried a cascade of matador roses, carnations, and baby's breath.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Kearns Winnecke of Yonkers, New York, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of blue polyester fashioned after the bride's in the A-line style. Her headpiece was a wreath of blue silk flowers and baby's breath, and she carried a bouquet of white daisies and light blue carnations.

Roger Lentz of Rhodhiss served as best man for his brother. The ushers were Timothy Edwards of New Bern and Eugene Edwards of Aberdeen, brothers of the bride.

Upon leaving the pulpit after the wedding vows were confirmed, the new Mr. and Mrs. Lentz stopped at the pew of his mother and there the bride gave her a rose from her bouquet.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Belva Smith of Newport. Reception Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the Woodmen of the World building in Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Lentz went to Morehead City and Lake Tillery on their wedding trip. Upon their return they will be at home at 640 N. West Broad Street, Southern Pines.

Out-of-Town Guests

Out of town guests attending the Lentz-Edwards wedding were Jerry Lentz of Norfolk, Va., and Miss Becky Lentz of Rhodhiss, brother and sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Piner with Rodney and Alan of Kingsport, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Edwards with Gene, Stephanie and Beverly of Aberdeen; Mr. and Mrs. Ron Edwards with Ronnie and Sherry of Sharon, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Edwards with Dominick and Christopher of New Bern; Ernie George and Richard Peele of Southern Pines; Mrs. Elizabeth Edwards and Mrs. Dorothy Walker of Rocky Mount, aunt and cousin of the bride; and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Winnecke of Yonkers, New York.

Prior to the wedding the bride's sister, Mrs. Jennie Kelly and family of Rusk, Texas, called to wish her and Johnny much happiness.

Rehearsal Party Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hamlin entertained at a rehearsal party Friday night at their home in Newport. The bride and bridegroom chose this occasion in which to present gifts to their attendants.
