He is presently the pastor of Andrews Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church, Bunnlevel.

Valentine Party Planned
By Hospital Guild Feb. 9

On January 16 in the dining room at St. Joseph-of-the-Pines Hospital the Guild held its general meeting presided over by Mrs. Martin Keale, President. Mrs. Frank Brawley, Program Chairman, introduced the guest speaker and reviewer, Mary Dee Richards of Whispering Pines, who held the audience spellbound with her beautiful review of "Charlotte's Web."

While refreshments were served by Mrs. Graham Douglass and Mrs. Austin Murphy and their committee at an attractive table presided over by Mrs. Robert Miller and Mrs. Charles Harrison, Mr. John Boormeester of Whispering Pines provided beautiful background music on the piano which was greatly enjoyed by the Guild members and their guests.

After tea was served, a short business meeting was held, at which time Mrs. Keale reported that the Dinner Theater party held in November had been a tremendous financial success. Brief reports were given by Mrs. John Dzorni, treasurer, and Mrs. Richard Crabbe, chairman of the Camellia Gift Shop. Mrs. Crabbe said that the shop had an unusually good financial report for the month of December. It was announced that Mrs. Paul Murphy is chairman of the Nominating Committee for the 1979-80 Guild officers.

Mrs. Keale announced that the Valentine-Luncheon-Card Party would be held on February 9 at 12 Noon at the Country Club of North Carolina with Mrs. Robert Daniels and Mrs. Burke Atkinson as Co-chairmen for this event. Mrs. Atkinson told the members that she had acquired some unusual door prizes, and urged them to get their reservations in early as the club can only accommodate 300 persons. The cost of the luncheon is $6.50. The newsletter with a reservation section has been mailed to the Guild members.

Committee members working on the Valentine Party are: For reservations: Mrs. R.L. Daniels, 405 Kylee Road, So. Pines 28387, 692-8994; Mrs. Burke Atkinson, 280 E. Indiana Ave., So. Pines, 28387, 692-6852; Mrs. Gordon Burns, 4 Airport Rd., Whispering Pines 28389, 949-2333; Mrs. George Teyro, 50 Martin Dr., Whispering Pines 28389, 949-3436.

Civic Club Sets Collins
As Speaker February 5

Marvin E. Collins, Jr., long time member of the Civic Club, Mrs. Christie has served in Director of Development and Planning for the Town of Southern Pines and advisor to the Planning Board and Beautification Committee, will speak to the Southern Pines Civic Club Monday, February 5.

He will tell of the implementation of the downtown development plans and the updating of the original study which produced these plans.

Collins is a graduate of North Carolina State University and did his graduate work there. He has been, and is, active in state societies and organizations relating to city and community planning and development.

Hostesses at the tea following the program will be Mesdames H.D. Jones, Robert Bowen, Fred Davies, George Konz and T.G. Poindexter.

The Bridge Group is meeting the first Friday of February, the 2nd, instead of the 9th, because of a conflict on that date. The time and place will remain the same—1 p.m. at the clubhouse. Mrs. Earl Brynelsen, Mrs. Dewey Floyd and Mrs. William Smith will serve dessert.

The monthly Book Group will meet Friday, February 16 at 10:30 a.m. to hear Mrs. Ronald Christie review "Paris One" by James Brady. This will be a book review "after a fashion," according to Mrs. Christie. As a
