Moore County had two 4-H members to represent them at Citizenship-Washington Focus which was held August 4-11 at the National 4-H Center in suburban Washington, D.C.

Debbie Cole of Jackson Springs and Linda Martin of Carthage along with 43 other delegates from North Carolina attended Citizenship-Washington for a fun-filled week.

Citizenship-Washington Focus is an experimental program for youth to learn more about their rights, responsibilities and heritage as American Citizens. Seeing, listening, learning, discussing and debating in workshops, seminars, and field trips combine to provide them a unique opportunity to use the nation's capital as a classroom. Field trips that were planned included Capital Hill Day, American Heritage, Washington Highlights and American Culture.

Citizenship-Washington-Focus was conducted by the National 4-H Council in behalf of the Cooperative Extension Service of the State Land-Grant University and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

On Saturday, 24 members of the Longleaf Squares, local Square Dance Club, attended the N.C. Folk and Square Dance Federation Summer Festival with a dance in the Scott Pavilion at the N.C. Fairgrounds hosted by the Rhamkette Wheel-Arounds of Raleigh.

Raleigh Mayor Isabella W. Cannon was a special guest at the Council dinner. Before, she had welcomed the 748 dancers to Raleigh and proclaimed the week of Sept. 17-23 Square Dance Week in Raleigh. During the evening, Governor James B. Hunt proclaimed the same week as Square Dance Week in the state.

The Country Kickers of Walstonburg won the attendance trophy. A further trophy will be presented at a November dance in Fayetteville.

Ladies Bridge winners at the Country Club of North Carolina Friday were Elsie Medlin, first; Grace Edman, second; Harriet Rhodes, third; Pat Scranton, fourth and Virginia Landis, fifth.

Gerlind Younts, a rising senior at UNC-CH, returns to school this week, where she is a member of Chi Omega and a broadcast journalism major.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Younts of Southern Pines.

Mrs. Phillip Marshall Williamson

Williamson-Mills Pair Marry By Candlelight

Miss Elizabeth Dawn Mills of Pinebluff was married to Phillip Marshall Williamson of Aberdeen August 11 at 2 p.m. by Pastor C. Parker Thomas, with Mrs. Deborah Richardson, organist and Miss Myra Adams and Mr. Bobby Hannon soloists, at the Bible Tabernacle.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Mills of Aberdeen and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Williamson of Aberdeen.

Her father gave the bride in marriage.

The bride wore an heirloom gown, which had been worn by her mother, of handclipped Chantilly lace and Nylon tulle over bridal satin, featuring a lace bodice with a scalloped neckline and lace panelled skirt, which ended in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of paillettes encrusted with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of daisies and white bridal roses with baby's breath.

Mrs. Angie Scherer, sister of the bride, of Pinebluff, was matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of white and blue Polyester embroidery with bishop sleeves and scooped neckline. Her flowers were daisies, carnations and baby's breath.

Miss Becky Mills, sister of the bride, of Pinebluff, was maid of honor, and was dressed the same as the honor matron.

Mrs. Ann Mills of Havelock, Miss Charlene Humphrey of Maysville, Miss Marsha Ransdell of Aberdeen, Mrs. Amy Heath of Goldsboro and Miss Jill Edwards of Aberdeen were bridesmaids and were dressed like the honor attendants, carrying similar nosegays.

Honorary bridesmaids were Mrs. Lynn Richardson, and Mrs. Wanda Nelson, sisters of the bridegroom, and Miss Andriette Fifer.

Flower girl was Little Miss Susan Williamson, niece of the bridegroom, who wore a floor-length gown of white and blue Polyester. She carried a basket of white rosebuds.

Ringbearer was Master Randy Richardson, nephew of the bridegroom.

Wedding guests were registered by Miss Margaret Reeves of Goldsboro.

The father of the bridegroom was best man. Ushers were Malcolm Mills, brother of the bride, of Havelock; David Williamson, brother of the bridegroom of Southern Pines; Stephen Williamson, brother of the bridegroom, of Aberdeen; Dean Richardson, of Knightdale; Andy Scherer of Pinebluff and Kent Black of Eastwood.

A reception followed in the Fellowship Hall of the church, and the couple left for a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Va.

After the rehearsal, the bridegroom's parents entertained at a dinner party in the fellowship hall of the church.

On July 21, the bride-elect was entertained at a miscellaneous shower by Mrs. Mildred Carpenter and Mrs. Rachel Byrd in Mrs. Carpenter's home. She was presented a cake knife and server.

On July 29, she was entertained at a tea given by Miss Marsha Ransdell and Mrs. Lillian Ransdell in their home. She was given a cookbook by the hostesses.

On August 6, she was given a shower in the home of Mrs. Joyce Williamson.

The bride and groom are both 1978 Pinecrest graduates. He is employed with the Moore County School System and she works with Golden Corral. The couple will reside in Pinebluff.

Mrs. Jamie William Guin Jr.

Mr. Guin Jr. Marries Miss Schachner Aug. 18

St. Patricks Cathedral in Charlotte was the setting for the wedding of Miss Katherine Elizabeth Schachner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Francis Schachner of Charlotte and Mr. Jamie William Guin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jamie William Guin, Sr. of Southern Pines, on Saturday August 18, at 3 o'clock.

The Reverend Thomas Burke officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The church was decorated with arrangements of large mums, gladioli, carnations, and candelabra. The wedding party entered and exited to the traditional wedding marches which were played by the organist, Mrs. J.E. Lyons.

Miss Judy Truhone, soloist, sang "The Lords Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white peau-de-soir gown with scalloped lace and seed pearl neckline and long tapered sleeves. The dress was dramatically adorned with appliques of re-embroidered alencon lace, as was the attached trim. The bride's headpiece was a tier of illusion, mounted on a crown of lace and velvet tucking. She carried the traditional bouquet of cymbidiums and a large orchid.

Mrs. Richard C. Jordan attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a formal gown of mist green. Her headpiece was a large hat of mist green with imported silk illusion which fell from a bow.

Bridesmaids were Miss Virginia Schachner and Mrs. Patricia Schachner. Their gowns were identical to that of the matron of honor. The attendants carried longstemmed red roses. The best man was Mr. Jamie

William Guin, Sr., father of the bridegroom.

The ushers were Mr. John Guin and Mr. Daniel Guin.

The bride's mother chose a pink chiffon gown with matching accessories and accented it with a white orchid.

The groom's mother wore a blue ensemble with matching accessories adorned with a white orchid.

The bride is a graduate of Charlotte Catholic High School and Sandhills Community College in Southern Pines.

The groom also graduated from Sandhills Community College. He is now a Respiratory Therapy Clinical Instructor at Sandhills Community College, Southern Pines.

After a wedding trip to the Caribbean Isles they will reside in Sanford.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at Carolina Country Club.
