The Pilot's Log

Hark the Sound, Moore County Tar Heels: we're having a party, says the invitation.

The Moore County Alumni Chapter of UNC-Chapel Hill will meet Tuesday evening, September 18 at The Sheraton Inn in Southern Pines at 6:30 p.m. for dinner.

Voit Gilmore is chairman of the event and on his committee are Dewey Dorsett, Nan Jackson, Dan Pate, and Gene Norton.

"As our new generation of Tar Heels goes off to Chapel Hill, as football season rises in the East and as Joe Califano sets in the West, it's time for a super-blast," the notice continues.

"We'll hear all about the new look on campus; we'll swap Tar Heel tales; enjoy some great socializing; be entertained by Don Boulton as he tells us about student life in Chapel Hill today; enjoy Andy Griffith reminiscing about Carolina yesterday and today; and elect a slate of officers for our chapter to keep us rolling in the days ahead."

Reservations may be made for alumni and guests by writing to Voit Gilmore at Box 209, Southern Pines, at $15 per person. Carolina alumni, students and their guests are welcome.

Mary A. Fisher, labor market analyst for the Employment Security Commission, of Fayetteville was in Southern Pines Monday.

Dr. Charles W. Lowry left this week on his 16th trip to England and Europe. During a fortnight's stay he will put down in London, Coventry, Manchester and Oxford. He is carrying over the completed manuscript of a biographical study of William Temple, the great Archbishop and ecumenical figure.

Dr. Lowry will attend at Coventry Cathedral a commemorative reunion of British and other delegates and leaders of the 1939 Amsterdam World Conference of Christian Youth.

An ice cream party for the children of all members of John Boyd Post 7318 will be held Sunday at 4 p.m., it was announced at the regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary August 20.

President Lawson presided and announced the next meeting to be held Monday, Sept. 3.

Girl Scouts of Moore County, now numbering 720, invite girls between 6-17 to be part of their exciting program of People, Arts, Well-Being, Out-of-Doors and Today and Tomorrow. If you are a young adult or Senior Citizen, male or female, married or single, the Girl Scout has a program for you, too, they say.

In Southern Pines, call Barbara Koonce, 692-3723.

Ten Moore County junior and senior high school band musicians have completed the second session of East Carolina's 26th annual Summer Music Camp.

They are Adrienne Goes, clarinet, Pinehurst Middle School; Amanda Godwin, flute and Andrew Fish and Gary Briggs, saxophone, Southern Pines Middle School; and Terri Sinclair, flute, Judith Lucas and Mary Fogleman, clarinet; Peter McKone and Phillip Garrison, tuba, and Virginia Holshouser, alto saxophone, Pinecrest High School.

The Rev. Paul Ridolfi, Associate Pastor of the Highland Presbyterian Church, Fayetteville, will be the guest preacher Sunday at the Cameron Presbyterian Church for the 11 a.m. worship service.

A graduate of McCormick Theological Seminary, the Rev. Mr. Ridolfi is married and he and his wife have one child. The Rev. Stewart Ellis is pastor of the Cameron Church. Visitors are welcome.

Mrs. John Allen Jordan Jr.

Miss Womack Is Bride Of Mr. Jordan Saturday

Miss Deborah Jane Womack of Rockingham, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Womack of 520 W. New Jersey Avenue, Southern Pines, was married to John Allen Jordan Jr., of Rockingham, son of Dr. and Mrs. John Allen Jordan of Lexington, in the Southern Pines United Methodist Church Saturday at 6 p.m. by the Rev. Frank Grill.

Organist was Mary Margaret McNeill and soloist was John Blalock.

Her father gave the bride in marriage.

The bride's gown of white Ultrassa knit was fashioned in an empire silhouette with sculptured rose pattern of Venice lace, appliques encircling the scooped neckline and high-rise waist. The full bishop sleeves were enhanced with lace appliques and the circular skirt flowed into an attached chapel train with matching lace. Her flowers were yellow miniature roses with babies' breath and stepanotis with a greenery cascade.

At the reception after the wedding, Mrs. George Little kept the bride's register, Mrs. Louis Marchetti and Mrs. Terrell West served wedding cake and Miss Sue Burchfield poured punch. Hors d'oeuvre and a champagne fountain were provided by the Elk's Club.

Other parties for the bride included a shower August 6 with hostesses Mrs. Louis Marchetti and Mrs. George Little; A shower August 12 in Rockingham with Miss Sandra Brown hostess; Cocktails and dinner in Lexington, August 18, given by Mr. and Mrs. John Robert Philpott and a shower August 21 in Rockingham given by Miss Carla Ballard.

A reception followed the ceremony and was held at the Southern Pines Elks Club. The couple left for a wedding trip to Sea Island, Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan will live in Rockingham at 208 Shannon Drive. The bride is employed as a medical assistant at Richmond Medical Center. Her husband is an associate of Claude Smith Enterprises, Commercial Developers.

The bride is a '75 graduate of Pinecrest High School and of Central Piedmont Community College, where she studied medical assisting.

Her husband is a '68 graduate of Lexington Senior High School and a '72 graduate of Wake Forest University, where he was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Parties The rehearsal dinner was held August 24, when Dr. and Mrs. John Allen Jordan and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Philpott entertained at a buffet at the Southern Pines Country Club.

Luncheon Honors Debutante; Party Given for Miss Hayes

A highlight of the debutante season came Saturday when Southern Pines Deb Christian Hayes was honored at a luncheon at the Country Club of North Carolina.

Miss Hayes, a sophomore at Salem College, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Hayes Jr. of East Massachusetts Avenue, Southern Pines, will make her debut at the formal presentation by the Raleigh Terpsichorean Club at the N.C. Debutante Ball September 7. Co-hostesses for the Saturday luncheon were Mrs. C. Robert VanderVoort of the CCNC and Mrs. J.P. Shamburger of Southern Pines.

Places were set at the horseshoe-shaped table for 32 guests, including current and former debutantes and their mothers. An arrangement of apricot and peach Fuji mums, carnations and other summer flowers decorated the table.

Debs Martha Frye and Ann Kimball Collins were special guests. Both will make their bow in Raleigh September 7. A feature of the luncheon was a toast to the honoree from local debutantes of 1969. There were four among the guests, including Glory VanderVoort Garner, Player McPhaul Fleury, Beth Shamburger and Julie Johnson. Miss Hayes was given a white orchid by the hostesses.

Creamed chicken and mushroom crepes, tomatoes vinaigrette, green beans almondine and a lime dessert were served.

BRIDAL PAIR — Kelly and Chris Neese, who were married August 18 at his mother's home in Bermuda, were honored on their return to the Sandhills by a reception given Saturday night by Kelly's mother, Mrs. Ronald Cate and Mr. Cate, at Mystic Cottage. ## Neese-Collett Marriage Takes Place in Bermuda

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Graham Cate of Pinehurst announce the marriage of her daughter, Kelly Clare Collett to Christopher Sherman Neese of Southern Pines on Saturday, August 18, at Christ Church, Warwick Parish, Bermuda. The bride is the daughter of Lt. Col. Willis Collett, Jr. of Fort Meade, Md.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Alonzo Aldrich Neese, Jr. of Beloit, Wisc. She wore an imported French chiffon gown and carried a lace fan centered with peach colored rosebuds and stephanotis, and a tiara of peach rosebuds and baby's breath with a cascade veil of illusion.

Alonzo A. Neese, Jr. was his brother's best man.

The Rev. Alastair Macdunell officiated at the ceremony which was followed by a reception dinner at Four Ways, Warwick.

The mother of the bridegroom is Mrs. J. Sherman Neese of Sewell's Point, Fla. who gave the rehearsal dinner at the Penhouse Club in Hamilton, Bermuda. His father is Alonzo A. Neese of Sewell's Point.

After a sojourn in Bermuda, the couple is residing on Midland Road, Southern Pines.

Following their return to the States, the bride's mother, Mrs. Ronald G. Cate and Mr. Cate entertained at a reception at Mystic Cottage for the newlyweds. Here for the party were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Walter Domanski and her uncle, Walter Domanski, Jr. of Middletown, N.Y.; her aunt, Mrs. Michael Paras and her grandson, Mark Mueller, both of Waldwick, N.J.

Episcopal New Teachers

Mrs. Joyce Connolly, principal of the Episcopal Day School, has announced the addition of two new teachers to their teaching staff.

Mrs. Carolyn Hawkins will teach first grade, and Mrs. Carol Elam will return to the Day School as second grade teacher.

Mrs. Hawkins holds a B.A. in Elementary Education from UNC-Greensboro and has taught primary grades in Robbins and Aberdeen Elementary Schools. She has a 20 month old baby, and her daughter, Robin, will be attending the Episcopal Day School in the fall. Mr. Hawkins is associated with Hawkins Electric Company.

Mrs. Elam had previously taught third grade at the Day School. A graduate of UNC-Chapel Hill, Mrs. Elam holds a Class A Teacher's Certificate. Her teaching experience includes working with disadvantaged and handicapped children in New York City, and teaching in schools in Virginia, Candor, and Aberdeen. Mr. Elam is with the Bank of Candor, and they have two sons.

"We are very pleased and fortunate to have these dedicated teachers on our faculty. They join another newcomer, Mrs. Carolyn Hatcher, who will supervise the school's music program and who will also assist in the Nursery class," Mrs. Connolly said.

Now in its 31st year, the Episcopal Day School offers a well-rounded program for kindergarten-nursery children and grades 1-4. Its graduates consistently score high on standardized tests, and many have gone on to achieve high awards and honors. "We look forward this year to continuing the excellent standards set by the school in the past," says Mrs. Connolly.

Hospital Guild Opens Season With Party

St. Joseph's Guild kicks off the season with an Ice Cream Social on Friday, September 14, at 2 p.m. in St. Joseph's Hospital Dining Room.

The program is "In The Good Old Summertime" by the Piney Pipers from Whispering Pines. This program will begin the opening membership drive for new members. Anyone interested in the Guild is invited to attend.

Those desiring membership are asked to send their checks to St. Joseph's Hospital Guild, 590 Central Drive, Southern Pines, N.C. 28387.

After a wedding trip to the Bahamas, the couple are living in the Page Building in Pinehurst. The bridegroom is manager of accounting for Pinehurst Airlines.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Morris of Mt. Gilead. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Swain of Washington.

Both are graduates of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Mrs. Swain received a BA degree in English and is a member of Chi Omega sorority. The bridegroom received a BS degree in accounting and is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

ABERDEEN WOMEN

Mrs. Lewis Merrill, acting president of the Aberdeen Woman's Club, has called for a special meeting of the club to be held at one o'clock on Tuesday, September 4, at the Golden Corral. She urges all the members to attend this dutch luncheon meeting and to note the time change from the first Wednesday to Tuesday.

BRIDE-TO-BE — The engagement of Miss Tammy Ingram is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ingram, of Whispering Pines, to Michael Ray Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thomas of Aberdeen. Both of the engaged couple are graduates of Calvary Christian School, the bride-elect in '79 and her fiancé in '78. The vows will be exchanged in Calvary Memorial Church in Southern Pines, September 15 at 7:30 p.m. before the Rev. Kent Kelly.
