PLANS WEDDING — Mrs. Joe F. Dunlap of Aberdeen announces the engagement of her daughter, Sandra Jane, to Lee B. Cromwell, the son of Mrs. Grace Cromwell of Southern Pines and John Cromwell of Miami, Florida. A June 28 wedding is planned.

Leila Webster Describes Working With Refugees

Miss Leila Webster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terrell Webster of Southern Pines, was the featured speaker at the April meeting of St. Mary's Guild of Emmanuel Episcopal Church Tuesday.

Miss Webster told of her experiences while living in Thailand working with the Peace Corp and later working with the Refugee camps in Thailand.

She explained that 1975 was a crucial year for refugees and by 1976, six camps had opened in Thailand and ex-Peace Corp people were hired to work with the original 120,000 refugees air lifted from Viet Nam. Half of these went to Cambodia and the other half to Vietnam.

She told of the boat people and of those coming out of Cambodia and then some of what happens to them when they arrive in the United States. They are scattered all through North Carolina but the largest group is in Western North Carolina because the land is more like that in Laos.

"They tend to stick together in groups," she said. "They are terribly homesick and most of them want to eventually go home. Most of them are doing well in this country, however, and very few are on welfare."

She closed by complimenting the church on looking after their sponsored Laotian family so well and how well they were getting along.

Miss Webster spends a good deal of volunteer time helping the refugees in the Durham-Chapel Hill area, where she lives. She helps with their adjustment and in translating for them. She also teaches them English.

Christine Head Named

Bridal Shower

Mary Candace Austin, bride-elect of April 24, was honored by her aunt, Mrs. Charles W. Austin at her home on Saturday evening, April 18, at 8 p.m.

Upon her arrival, Miss Austin was presented with a pink carnation corsage by the hostess.

Immediately after the arrival of all the guests, "Bridal Court" was called into session, with all guests acting as witnesses against the defense, (the bride-to-be) who testified and presented their verdicts and opinions. The honoree was found guilty of making the promise to take the Love, Honor and Obey Pledge. She was sentenced to slice the Bridal Shower Cake of three tiers (which had been cleverly constructed from three various size cartons) which contained all the shower activity.

The first layer was the love layer; here the guests dressed the bride. The second layer was the honor layer; here paper-pencil games in the ring motif—the proposal, pack the luggage and places to go for the honeymoon—were enjoyed. The third layer, the obey, was a wishing ring mold and here the guests presented and gave the bride-to-be their own personal wishes for luck and happiness for their life together. After the wishes the bride was sentenced to obey the hearts and wishes of the court and open her gifts, which was done and acknowledged by the honoree.

The hostess presented the bride's mother, Mrs. E.J. Austin and the groom's mother, Mrs. A.J. Harms a white notebook for the wedding mementoes of their daughter and son's wedding. Refreshments of punch, cake, nuts, mints and bridge mix were served.

"Suede" is the French word for Sweden. French tailors were intrigued by the first soft, napped finish cloth from Sweden that resembled leather, so they named it after their neighbor to the north.
