

Seawell-Buxton Nuptials Held

Jan Louise Buxton of Siler City, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Buxton of 301 Fort Bragg Road, Southern Pines, became the bride of John Bilmer Seawell of Carthage, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman O. Seawell of Carthage, Rt. 1 April 18 at 1 p.m. in the Carthage First Presbyterian Church.

The vows were taken before the Rev. Lester L. Dattler and musicians were organist Mrs. Elizabeth Kayton and soloists Miss Sarah Seawell, sister of the bridegroom and James McMillan Jr., who accompanied himself on the guitar.

The bride's father, James E. Buxton, gave her in marriage. The bride wore a gown of white Alencon lace with pearl-trimmed fitted bodice. The empire waist had a portrait neckline and the cathedral-length train was of chiffon. The long chiffon sleeves were gathered at the wrist. Alencon lace and pearls trimmed the chapel-length mantilla veil. She carried a bouquet of white spider mums, stephanotis, babies' breath, gypsophelia and coral azaleas, all silk.

Matron of honor was Kathleen O. Palmer of Cary, who wore a sleeveless dress of green Qiana with scooped front and back neckline. Her silk flowers were coral azaleas, tiger lilies, daisies, gypsophelia, cymbidium and babies' breath.

Bridesmaids were Robin Kimsey of Pinehurst, Kimi Lacock of Greenville, Jan Nelson of Todd, Pamela Sawyer of Alexis, Linda Chavis of Chapel Hill and Robin Eller Frye of Rockingham. They were dressed the same as the honor matron.

Honorary bridesmaids were Reba Allred of Beaufort, Wanda Cameron of Aberdeen, Cindi DiMaggio of Wintergreen, Va., Karen Seawell of Carthage, sister of the bridegroom, Laura McLaurin Smith of Rockingham and Mary Seawell Morris, sister of the bridegroom.

Best man was Herman O. Seawell Sr., father of the bridegroom. Ushers were Herman O. Seawell Jr., of Carthage, Randy Scott of Carthage, Stuart Fields of Greenville, D. Archie Kelly, of Carthage, Joe McLeod of Carthage and Tom Dowd of Southern Pines.

The wedding reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Joe Morris in Carthage and the couple left for a honeymoon to Folly Beach, S.C. and Charleston, S.C. They will be at home on their return at 713 W. Third St., Apt. B, Siler City.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the parents of the groom at the home of Karen

Mrs. John Gilmer Seawell

Seawell in Carthage. Turkey and ham and garnishes were served buffet style.

Grandmothers present at the wedding were Mrs. Ursula Frost of Elmira, N.Y. and Mrs. Kate Kelly of Carthage.

Acolytes for the ceremony were Andy Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Archie Kelly and Brad Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rives Kelly of Carthage, both cousins of the groom.

The bride is an honor graduate of Sandhills Community College. She was graduated from Appalachian State University magna cum laude and has been employed as a speech, language and hearing therapist by the Chatham County Schools.

The bridegroom is a senior in the Mechanical Engineering program at N.C. State University in Raleigh, where he is a Dean's List student. He is employed by GKN Automotove Industries in Sanford as a co-op student.

Selected on the basis of academic achievement, marshals rank at the top of the freshman class for first semester work. Marshals will assist in May Day, commencement and fall convocation activities on campus. Sandy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby W. Brendell of Seven Lakes.

Trips Planned

The Moore County Recreation Department has planned several trips for the Spring months.

Tryon Palace will be the highlight of the New Bern trip on May 20. The trip will include transportation, a tour of the Governor's Palace, a general tour of historic New Bern, and lunch at the famous Henderson House Restaurant. The cost for this trip is also based on participation and could range from $28 to $23. The cost is slightly less for senior citizens.

It is important to note that the more participation there is on these trips, the less it will cost. With 35 to 40 people on each trip, the cost will be on the lower range of the scale.

Charleston, S.C. will be beautiful on June 5-7. The cost of this trip is as follows: single—$105; double—$85 each; triple—$80 each; and quadruple—$75 each. The price includes a tour of Charleston, Middleton Gardens, Harbour Cruise, accommodation, baggage handling, and transportation. This trip will leave here on Friday afternoon and return on Sunday evening. This will be a great weekend escape. Deadline for pre-registration is May 13.

All trips are in cooperation with the Wilson Bus Co. division of Asheboro Coach Co. For more information call Pam Adams at the Moore County Parks and Recreation Department at 947-5772.
