

Moore Republican Women Will Hear Eleanor Swaim

The Moore Republican Women's Club will hold its regular meeting on Monday, April 27, at 7:30 p.m. at the Civic Club in Southern Pines. The club is on the corner of Ashe and Pennsylvania Avenues. The main speaker will be Eleanor Swaim, Chaplain of the National Federation of Republican Women. George Little, Chairman of the Moore County Republican party, will explain briefly the exact political structure in Moore County. All club members and interested women are urged to bring at least one guest, male or female, to this important meeting. For further information, please call president Anne Frye at 949-2688.

PTA Plant Sale

At the last P.T.A. meeting for the year at Southern Pines Elementary School, on April 30, a sale of flowering plants will end a several months' growing project by the children, under the guidance of Elizabeth Garner, Librarian. They have also had a trip to S.C.C. Horticultural Dept. and advice from Mr. Garrett there.

Another special event at this last meeting will be the showing of a 15 minute film "What's So Great About Books?" This film, produced by Orlando, Florida Public Library, is being sponsored by the RIF program of The Friends of the Southern Pines Library and was obtained through the assistance of Doretha Jefferson, Children's Librarian at the library.
