

Friends Of Library Set Their Annual Meeting

As stated in the bylaws, the Friends of the Southern Pines Library, will hold their annual meeting on the third Tuesday in May, at 8 o'clock in the evening, at the library.

At this time reports from committees and officers will be read. The nominating committee will present a slate of officers for the ensuing year, and elections will be held. All members are invited and urged to attend. The meeting is also open to the public, especially to new residents who desire to know more about this organization.

The meeting will be short and refreshments will be served in the Boyd Room at the close, where you may meet new officers and those retiring this year. Make Tuesday, May 19 a date to give an hour to The Friends.

Organists Guild To Hear The Sandhill Singers

The Sandhills chapter of the American Guild of Organists will meet at the Community Presbyterian Church in Pinehurst on Monday, May 11, at 7 p.m. This will be the annual clergy-musicians dinner meeting.

Featured on the program following dinner will be the Sandhills Singers of Sandhills Community College under the direction of Mrs. Frances Wilson. There will also be an election of A.G.O. officers for the coming year.

All members are urged to attend this final meeting of the current year.

Vass Lakeview Alumni Celebrate At Reunion

BY BARBARA DANLEY
Saturday night, May 2, marked another celebration of the Vass Lakeview Alumni at their annual banquet.

The reunion of Vass Lakeview School graduates, which came into existence in 1933, began Saturday evening with registration of 128 enthusiastic alumni at a social hour held in the school auditorium.

Following dinner in the school cafeteria, the group was welcomed by graduate David Crockett and alumnus J. Ed Causey offered the invocation.

President of the 1981 Alumni Association, A.B. Parker, presided over the short business meeting, by first introducing guests of the evening.

Recognized as representing the oldest graduating classes were: Glennie Keith Perry of Wake Forest from the Class of 1922; Ina Evans Bailey of Rt. 3 Carthage and Sarah Thompson Brown of Southern Pines from the Class of 1924.

Union Pines Band Director, David Seiberling and his wife, Linda, were also recognized as guests. Seiberling spoke briefly to the group on his work with the band, expressing his appreciation to the Vass Lakeview community.

Special recognition was given the Classes of 1931 and 1941 who were celebrating anniversaries. The graduating class of 1931 celebrated their 50th anniversary with four alumni present; while the graduating class of 1941 celebrated their 40th anniversary with nine alumni in attendance.

Following roll call by Secretary-Treasurer, Marilyn Wood Gschwind, Nominating Committee Chairman, Sue Cameron Rice, presented the names of prospective officers for the coming year. Elected President was Max Edwards, Vice President was James Johnson and Secretary-Treasurer was Sylvia Coore Pies.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, outgoing Vice President, Mary Mac Shelton, introduced the entertainment of the evening.

Musical selections, "You Light Up My Life" and "Tomorrow" were performed by Misses Lisa and Pam Johnson, Vass Lakeview and Union Pines Chorus students.

In trying to recruit class talent, Ms. Shelton called upon 1931

Mrs. Michael Buday

Buday-Harbour Wedding Is Held In Chapel Hill

The North Carolina Botanical Gardens on the campus of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill provided the setting for the marriage of Sue Harbour and Michael Buday on Saturday, May 2, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The couple, from Chapel Hill, exchanged vows before the Rev. Jason Dowdle. Harpist Harriet Thompson of Charlotte provided a program of music before the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Harbour of Cameron. The bridegroom's parents are CWO and Mrs. Raymond C. Buday, Sr. of Elizabeth City.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose her sister, Vanessa H. Lowder of High Point, as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Judi Caris of Castenina, Pennsylvania; Helen Bryant of Jacksonville, Florida; Nancy Fridy of Charlotte; and Kathy Haggins of Red Springs.

The bridegroom's brother, Ray Buday, Jr. of Marietta, Georgia, served as best man. Ushers were Rusty Jordan of Elizabeth City; Tom Cohen of Columbus, Georgia; Gary Cayton of Greenville; and Karl Rogers of Chapel Hill.

Jennifer Buday of Marietta, Ga., niece of the bridegroom, served as flower girl. Her dress was of white eyelet and was fashioned along the same lines as the bride's.

The bride's gown was hand-fashioned by her mother. It was fashioned of white eyelet over a crinoline underskirt. The bodice, sleeves and neckline ruffle were of white lace and complimented the gown. The hemline ruffle extended into a train and was accented by an aqua ribbon woven through the eyelet fabric.

Following the wedding, the couple was honored by a reception held at the Forest Theatre, also on the UNC campus.

Both bride and bridegroom attended the University of North Carolina. The bride received a B.A. degree in American Studies. Mr. Buday is employed by This End Up Furniture Co. of Raleigh.

After a wedding trip to the Bahamas, the couple will reside in Chapel Hill.

On Friday evening CWO and Mrs. Raymond C. Buday entertained the wedding party and out-of-town guests at an after rehearsal dinner at The Station Restaurant in Carboro. The buffet consisted of roast beef, lasagne and assorted hors d'oeuvres and vegetables.

Project Clubs Are Announced By 4-H Program

The Moore County 4-H Program has announced two more new project clubs starting in Southern Pines.

A 4-H Archery Club will meet at Sandhills Community College on May 9 at 2 p.m. under the leadership of Terrell West.

A 4-H Gardens and Houseplants Club will begin May 20 at 3:15 p.m. at Gully's Garden center under the leadership of Pete Gully.

"These are excellent opportunities for youth to develop an interest through a fun educational experience," states John Pettitt, Moore County 4-H Agent.

Four-H membership is open to all youth 9-19 years of age regardless of race, sex, religion, or national origin. For more information on 4-H, call the Moore County Agricultural Extension Service.

CAMPBELL COMMENCEMENT

Campbell University will hold its 95th Commencement Exercises on Monday morning, May 11, beginning at 10 a.m. in Carter Gymnasium. Graduation ceremonies will actually begin on Sunday morning May 10, with the Commencement Sermon, which will be held in the J. Clyde Turner Auditorium, beginning at 10 a.m. Delivering the Commencement Sermon will be Dr. Denton Lotz, director of the Baptist World Alliance Division of Evangelism and Education, located in Washington, D.C.

TRIP TO NEW BERN

The Moore County Recreation Department has planned several trips for the Spring months. Tryon Palace will be the highlight of the New Bern trip on May 20. The trip will include transportation, a tour of the Governor's Palace, a general tour of historic New Bern, and lunch at the Henderson House Restaurant. The cost for this trip is based on participation and could range from $28 to $23. The cost is slightly less for senior citizens.

The minimum width of a clothes closet for a single person should be at least four feet; double that if it is to be used by two people.
