BY BARBARA DANLEY Church Events

Women of the First Baptist Church met last Monday evening at the church for their regular monthly meeting. Leading the program and Bible Study were Mary Jo Crissman and Belinda Hennings.

During the meeting plans were discussed to furnish throw pillows for the Cameron Children's Home as a Mission Action Project. Also the group decided to begin in June, having a day group meeting for ladies who could not attend at night.

Following the evening meeting Margaret Beauchamp served refreshments to the nine ladies in attendance.

Bible School Director Barbara Koonce announced the beginning of Bible School Sunday, May 31, with registration and family night supper at the church. Mrs. Koonce said anyone interested in attending is invited to join them Sunday evening on this occasion.

The bi-monthly Bible study was led by Ron McCullough Sunday evening at the church.

Darlene Ring Elected

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Vass Church of God met Thursday night for the purpose of electing new officers. The eight ladies attending went out for dinner at the Western Sizzling Steak House.

During the after dinner meeting, Darlene Ring was elected to the office of President for the coming year. Vickie Ring was elected Vice President, and Dianne Murchison was elected to the office of Secretary and Treasurer. Also, chosen as Adult Advisors for the Teenage Girls were Teresa Ring and Peggy Needham.

The ladies decided to sponsor a Rummage Sale and Bake Sale at the church on June 6.

Methodist Laymen

The Rev. Harold Chrismon reports that the Vass United Methodist Church had a good early morning service Sunday with the choir presenting the hymn, "Because He Lives."

On Sunday evening, the Rev. Harold Chrismon and E.L. Finch accompanied by Gladys Warren and Johnny Marsh of Cameron attended a training event for Lay Delegates at the Carthage United Methodist Church. The Rev. Chrismon said that the purpose of the event, which was well attended, was to familiarize ministers and lay delegates with resolutions and other business to be presented at the Conference, which will be held on June 7 at the Methodist College in Fayetteville.

Sunday, May 30 will mark a special night for members of the Vass United Methodist Church. The Family Night Fellowship Hour will begin with a covered dish dinner in the Fellowship Hall at six o'clock.

This Sunday night the Rev. Dr. Maurice Ritchie, Associate Dean of Student Affairs and Field Education for the Duke Divinity School, will be guest speaker for the evening. And special guest for the evening will be Scott Moore, Student Minister from Seminary.

The Rev. Ritchie will speak to the group on the Duke Endowment and the Student Minister Intern Program.

Student Minister Scott Moore will be working with the Vass United Methodist Church for ten weeks.

Following supper, Mrs. Mazie Minnick delivered the inspirational message.

Vass Presbyterian Youth will meet on Wednesday night at the church at seven-thirty for their final session in a three-part study on being a member of the church.

Thursday night Bible study will be held in Manly again this week at the Manly Presbyterian Church beginning at seven-thirty.

Vass Lions

Vass Lions held their bi-monthly meeting at the Vass United Methodist Church last Thursday. Ladies of the church prepared and served what Lion President, Phil Delozier termed a delicious meal, for the group. After which, Pat Pickett with the Department of Social Services, and Morgan Rogers of the Moore County Recreation Department spoke to the group.

Mrs. Pickett spoke to the group on Camp Dogwood, a camp for visually impaired persons, which is funded by North Carolina Lions Club, while Mr. Rogers spoke on the county recreation and its needs.

Of interest to community people is the fact that the Vass Lions Club has decided to sponsor one Vass resident, Mrs. Beulah Jones, at Camp Dogwood this summer.

Nineteen Lions were in attendance Thursday night. The next Lions meeting will be June 18 again at the Vass United Methodist Church.

Master Andy Marshburn was honored Friday, May 22, with a birthday party at his home in Vass on the occasion of his tenth birthday.

Twelve of Andy's classmates came home with him from school for the special day. The boys enjoyed refreshments of birthday cake, ice cream and Cokes followed by outdoor games in the family's backyard.

Attending were: Andy Floyd, Matthew Callahan, Jonathan Foster, Brad Beard, Scott Grant, Chad Grant, Duwayne Morris, Parrish McKenzie, Billy Rice, Stanley Barber, Duwayne Barber and Jeffrey Dray.

Andy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Marshburn.
