Cum Laude Society Chartered

Emmett Wright, Jr., Headmaster of the Woodberry Forest School and Regent of District IV of the Cum Laude Society, presented a charter of the Cum Laude Society to the Wallace O'Neal Day School on May 18.

Upon accepting the charter for the Day School, Robert Haarlow, Headmaster, noted that he was gratified that 14 out of the 18 O'Neal students who had been named to the society and representing all four of the school's graduating classes were on hand for their initiation into the society.

Guest speaker for the occasion was Ms. Alice Litwinchuk, Middle School Director from Charlotte Country Day School.

Preceding the installation ceremony, the initiates and their parents were honored by a buffet luncheon sponsored by the Mothers' Association of the school. Hostesses were Mrs. Dale Hamlin, Mrs. Clay Daughtridge, Mrs. Jack Renner and Mrs. Ed

Brown.

Student members named to the society are: Bucky Adams, Robert Becker, Steve Dummit, Mary Sue Faulkner, Ron Glover, Lynne Joyner, Dickie Joyner, Nancy Lillard, Eddie Millington, Joan Phillips, Jamey Staub, Suzanne Stinson, Jane Thompson, Robert VanderVoort, Cindy Wallace and Jody Wallace.

Faculty members are Robert Haarlow, Sally LeFever and Dr. Charles Lowry.

Mrs. Jerry Pascal Teague

Miss Allen Is Bride Of Mr. Teague May 23

Deborah Lynne Allen of Snow Camp, Rt. 1, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn H. Allen of Snow Camp, was married to Jerry Pascal Teague of Aberdeen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blake B. Teague of Siler City, Rt. 3, May 23 at 3 p.m. at Rocky River Baptist Church by the Rev. Gary Hudson.

Musicians were Earl Reeves, organist, and Nancy Hudson, soloist.

Her father gave the bride in marriage.

The bride wore a gown of Qiana with a sweetheart neckline and empire waistline, with small cap sleeves. Lace applique extended from the yoke to a chapel-length train edged in lace. Her veil was edged in lace and accented with lace applique and seed pearl trim. She carried a bouquet of daisies, yellow roses and baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Marcia Thomas of Pittsboro, Rt. 2. She wore a mint green gown with sheer lace front and back yokes and an empire waistline, gathered at the center of the bodice. She carried a bouquet of daisies.

Bridesmaids were Paula Andrew, Snow Camp; Cathy Kennedy, Bennett; Phyllis Cheek, Siler City; and Diane Pike, Siler City.

Honorary bridesmaids were Sherry Culberson, Marsha Johnson, Patricia Kinton, Serena Smith, Beverly Teague and Paula Wilson of Siler City, Cindy Allen of McLeansville and Melody Bagby of Chester, Va. Miss Allen and Miss Bagby also presided over the register. All wore yellow gowns with pleated skirts and capeslets of chiffon knit. Each girl carried a daisy.

Best man was Charlie Teague of Siler City, brother of the bridegroom; David Allen of Snow Camp, brother of the bride; Gary Davis, Siler City; Stan Dudek, North Wilkesboro and Bert Partridge, Charlotte.

The wedding reception followed in the church fellowship hall and the couple left on a wedding trip to Hilton Head Island, S.C. On their return they will be at home at 814 High Street, Aberdeen.

The bride is a graduate of Jordan-Matthews High School, Siler City and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a degree in business administration.

The bridegroom is also a graduate of the Jordan-Matthews High School and UNC-CH with a business administration degree. He is employed by Dixon, Odom and Company in Southern Pines as a CPA.
