TO INDIAN OCEAN
 Navy Aviation Electronics Technician 3rd Class Jerry R. Freeman, son of Faye Freeman of Route 2, Robbinsville, and whose wife, Deborah, is the daughter of Eddie C. and Kathleen Brener of Candor, has departed on a deployment to the Western Pacific and Indian Ocean.

He is a member of Tactical Electronic Warfare Squadron 135, based at the Naval Air Station Whidbey Island, Oak Harbor, Wash., and embarked aboard the aircraft carrier USS Kitty Hawk. During the six-month deployment the squadron will be participating in various training exercises with other 7th Fleet units and those of allied nations. Port visits are scheduled in various Far Eastern Ports. His squadron flies the EA-6B "Prowler" electronic countermeasures aircraft. The "Prowler" is specially equipped to conduct electronic warfare (jamming) operations.

It's 'For Women Only' At Library Thursday

Area women have been invited to a program on women's health. "For Women Only" will be presented by the Moore County Library on Thursday night, June 4 at 7:30.

Dr. Barry Buchele of Pinehurst Medical Clinic will speak.

Three broad areas of current interest to women will be covered. Women attending will learn measures to maintain good health. Dr. Buchele will outline good and bad news gained from recent medical research. And the patient as a consumer will be discussed.

Dr. Buchele plans an informal program. Women are urged to bring health care questions for him to address.

Having practiced in Moore County for the past two years, Dr. Buchele is well-known throughout the Sandhills. He graduated with a B.A. in German at the University of Texas at San Antonio. He received his medical degree at the University of San Antonio. His residency was spent at Bexar County Hospital System in San Antonio, Texas.

A short film will be shown at the beginning of the program.

FIRST BIRTHDAY — Kenna D. McLean Jr., son of Kenna and Cynthia McLean, will celebrate his first birthday May 27 with a birthday party at his mother's house in Southern Pines May 30. He is the grandson of Helen McLean and Addie Livingston and celebrated with his family and friends.

Storing Your Family Records

Important family records, ranging from birth certificates to tax records and wills, should be kept where they are both safe and readily accessible.

Some papers require the security of a safe deposit box. Among these are birth certificates, church records, military records, marriage and divorce documents, employment information, mortgages, contracts and debt notes, bonds, stock certificates, automobile titles and a copy of wills. You can group other important papers into these three areas:

1) Some you should carry with you include identification, health records, insurance cards, and organization memberships.

2) "Retired records" to be stored in a permanent file at home include guarantees and warranties, insurance policies, real estate ownership papers, tax records and education records. Such papers, although important, may not demand the protection of a safe deposit box.

3) Some papers should be in a current file in your house for ready reference. Among these are household inventories, instruction manuals for appliances and equipment, bank passbooks, and information you may need if you were to fill out a long-form income tax return.
