

Moore County Is Moving Into Its Third Century

COUNTY SEAT — The courthouse in Carthage stands amid stately oaks in the center of town. This view of the western-most side of the structure shows off Civil War cannon and the monument erected to honor World War I Aviator James McConnell who was killed in action over France. The courthouse was opened in 1924. Several other Moore County courthouses preceded it.

In The Celebration.

BEAUTIFUL GOLF — Golf and beauty go hand in hand in Moore County and particularly in Pinehurst where this photograph was taken during a recent spring afternoon. Golf indeed is a main source of income in Moore County, and as such, is one of the county's prime tourist attractions as well as serving as a magnet to draw retired persons here.

EDUCATION CENTER — Sandhills Community College, located near Southern Pines and Pinehurst, has been an educational center for more than 20 years in Moore County. This beautiful campus is known in the North Carolina Community College System as the "Queen" of the more than 50 other such colleges.
