

CAROLINA BANNER.

TARBOROUGH, NORTH CAROLINA.

Extra copies of The Banner are worth FIVE CENTS each, or six for 25 Cents.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1889.

LOCAL.

We learn of a few changes in town next year. Much cotton has been marketed in this place of late. The fire bell has been placed in the tower of the city hall. Mrs. Hughes's school holiday exercises were very entertaining. Rumor has it that a marriage took place in town last evening. The cotton factory is now furnishing yarns to the knitting mills. Rev. D. B. Clayton will preach at Old Sparta on the fifth Sunday at 11 a. m. The pop cracker and small boy are a well matched pair. They everywhere abound.

One dollar paid in advance. One dollar and twenty-five cents paid at the end of the year.

The Methodist Sunday School have a Christmas tree in the Y. M. C. A. Rooms to-night.

Get up a club of five subscribers at $1.00 each and secure a copy of the BANNER for 1890, free.

Send the BANNER your job printing. We can do it as well and as cheap as any one else. Try us.

Dr. I. N. Carr, Dental Surgeon, can be found at his office on Main street in Tarboro, at all times. 11ly

The Steamer "Beta" made a trip up here last week arriving Thursday evening and returning Friday down the river.

The Episcopal Sunday School held their services yesterday evening in Calvary church. The school has about 115 pupils, so we are informed.

The Y. M. C. A. will hold its regular monthly business meeting Friday evening at 7.15 o'clock. A full attendance is earnestly desired.

It was after seven o'clock, p. m., last Friday, when the train got here from Rocky Mount, Trans being behind on the main line was the cause.

Fred Whitted, col. was lodged in jail last Saturday, charged with assault and battery and at the same time robbing his antagonist of a watch.

Your name nicely stamped on German Silver plates for umbrellas, parasols &c for only 25 cts by R. O. Sadler at the BANNER office. Leave your orders with him at once.

No family should think of getting along without a Sewing Machine in these days. The only question is which is the best for work and wear. Decide this by going to Bell's and inspecting the best makes. 11ly

It has been reported that strawberries have been shipped from Goldsboro during the past week. The Messenger reports strawberry plants in bloom, and this must have given rise to the report. They are blooming here.

Superintendent Jones was here last Friday to receive the N. & C. bridge but it was not ready. Some of the parts of the bridge were too long, which could not be found out before the work was done. This caused a delay of several days as many rivets have to be cut and much work undone and redone. It will be done this week.

School Holidays.

Prof Wilkinson gives holiday this week.

Prof Gillespie gives holiday two weeks, this and next.

The Graded School gives holiday this week.

Mrs. Hughes gives holiday this week.

An Accident to a Child.

Thursday afternoon while Mrs. S. S. Nash was preparing to go driving, having several children with her in her phaeton, little Theo. Cheshire, son of F. P. Cheshire, fell out of the vehicle just as it started off, and the hind wheel passed over his neck and face.

He was immediately picked up but was unconscious for sometime afterwards. He was badly bruised about the head and neck, though fortunately no bones were broken. The horse had just moved off and was immediately stopped.

Dr. J. H. Baker was called in and rendered necessary attention and the little fellow is now getting along all right.

The Guards Drill - J. H. Foxhall Elected Captain.

Friday was the regular monthly meeting and drill day with the Edgewood Guards. The drill attracted more attention than usual as the vacancy caused by the resignation of Capt. J. C. Powell was to be filled at this time.

After the meeting was called to order and the reading of minutes and the collection of fines and dues gone through with. Capt. Powell arose and, after first expressing the great reluctance at resigning from the company, speaking of the pleasant relations that had and still existed between the company and himself and wishing them continued prosperity, announced that nominal tions for the office of captain were in order.

The following gentlemen were put in nomination: J. H. Foxhall, W. J. Burnett, and H. T. Bryant.

An election immediately followed, as a result J. H. Foxhall was elected by a large and handsome majority, which was afterwards made unanimous. Upon the announcement of his election there was a roar of applause and loud calls for Foxhall! Foxhall!

After quietude was regained Mr. Foxhall arose and thanked the company for the honor conferred upon him, and asked the hearty co-operation of each and every member of the company to keep the Edgewood Guards up to its present high state of efficiency.

Capt. Foxhall takes his office at once.

The following resolutions were adopted on the death of the illustrious Jefferson Davis:

WHEREAS, We have received the sad intelligence of the demise of the honored and revered Confederate Chief, Jefferson Davis, and as a token of our love for the deeds of him whom we regard as most noble in virtue, transcendent in intellect, true and honest in conviction and unflinching in character, therefore be it

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the family of the deceased in their sad bereavement and irreparable loss. We thank God for the pure and noble character who presided over the destinies of our Confederacy and managed with consummate skill, ability and wisdom its affairs. No man, however great, has established a more lasting monument by his exemplary deed than our honored Chief, whose name will be enshrined in the hearts of every true Southerner. Though defeated in the cause which the South espoused, and his name made the target for the shafts of obloquy from our opponents still the dust of defeat did not dim the lustre of his noble character. The entire Southern mourns the loss of their departed Chief and among them ours is none the less great.

Let us hope that he has joined that grand band of heroes in the "Beautiful City," who so valiantly defended the cause of the South. Noble hero; affectionate husband; devoted patriot and devout Christian, your deeds have created you a monument that the remorseless hand of time can never destroy and in the brightest pages of history they will be enshrined.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to Mrs. Davis and a copy be spread upon our minutes.

Sergt. JAMES B. LLOYD, } Com. Capt. C. C. POWELL, } Sergt. J. H. FOXHALL, }

Gen. W. H. Anthony was to have inspected the company of this occasion but owing to the lateness of the train did not arrive in time.

There were about forty-five men out, rank and file.

This road which extends a distance of 101 miles to Tarboro, will be fully completed within about six weeks. The iron has been laid in both directions to Roanoke river, and the stonework across that stream will be completed in about three weeks, after which, three weeks will be required to place the iron bridge in position. The distance to Raleigh by the new line will be 187 miles - 101 over the Norfolk & Carolina, 58 over the Coast Line and 28 by the Richmond & Danville. The road east of the Roanoke river will commence doing a lumber business next week, but general business will not be commenced until after the bridge is completed.

The Company purchased of Mr. John O. Wier ten acres of land adjoining their terminal property at Pinner's Point, paying therefor $7,500, the object of the purchase being to increase the facilities at the point for yards, sidings, round-houses, shops, &c. The company now has 100 acres of high land at Pinner's Point and 3,800 feet of water front. A great deal of work has been done at Pinner's Point, and the slips have been dredged to a depth of 25 feet.

The company will commence business with 12 new Baldwin locomotives, 300 freight cars built at the Trostler Works, 4 passenger coaches and 100 logging cars. Proposals have been taken for a number of transfer barges in addition to those now on hand, for use in the harbor. Station houses are being constructed along the line, and work will shortly be commenced on the depot on Water street, in this city.

The organization for general business has not yet been perfected, nor will be until the company is ready to open the road to the public. - Norfolk Ledger.

RESURRECTED.

The way to find a man out is to call on him when he is not in.

One has to look out at some times, to keep from being taken in. The greatest trouble with self made men, is they are generally too proud of the job.

Tosman who is content to rely stand, will not be taken in by the pros and cons. And he will make the best of it.

The Lynn schoolmasters have struck, but they are no novelty. Striking schoolmasters are as old as time. Our earliest recollection are associated with them. We were one of the struck.

In this world a man is likely to get what he gives. Men's hearts are like a whispering gallery. If you speak softly, a gentle whisper comes back; if you scold, you will get scolded. With the measures you mete, it is measured to you again.

A COUNTRYMAN went to a store in Morgantown, W. Va., the other day and purchased a kerosene lamp. "That's the first one of them notions that ever come to my house," he remarked. "Candles was allus good enough for marm and me, but darter's got a bear and thinks we ort to put on a kittle style."

Young Miss Wigles - Where are you going, papa?

Rev. Mr. Wigles - To the temperance meeting. We intend to inaugurate a movement to save the young men of the country.

Young Miss Wigles - Try and save a real nice one for me, will you papa, dear?

She stood at the mirror and arranged her hair.

In the style that she thought most becoming.

And smiled as she thought of her "yellow" hair.

She was taking great comfort in making it so.

But the fact is she never had missed her. He was drifting away at a quite rapid rate. With her pretty 15-year-old sister.

"Twas out in the gloaming, way out in Wyoming, a maiden sat combing her golden hair; when, heated with roaming, all panting and foaming, there came up and squeezed her a big grizzly bear. It did not fright her, the bear did not bite her, she lay back and murmured, "Still tighter, dear!" This broke up old bruiser, he left off his wooing, sneaked back to the mountains and hid a whole year.

Which?

Monday Wm. Long put a can of milk out his back door in the sun before dawning. A few hours later imagine his surprise at finding a pig tail leaning over the rim of the can. One of Lilly's pigs was in the can drowned. The question now arises shall Long pay for Lilly's pig or Lilly pay for Long's milk? - Stewart (Col) Western Home.

Capt. J. J. Thomas had four magnificent turkey gobblers last night. To-day somebody else has them. That "somebody" went to Capt. Thomas' henner last night and took the aforesaid turkeys away. The Captain had been treating them very royally and was very much attached to them. - Raleigh Call (of last week)

Then consider the BEST medium through which to reach the people. See our CIRCULATION STATEMENT and our REDUCED ADVERTISING RATES for 1890.

Then READ FACTS FOR ADVERTISERS!

OVER an average of 1000 BANNERS are sent out EACH WEEK. Now this surely means over 5000 readers, not including, those who dislike it, would-n't-have-it, borrowers.

Now think about it. 5000 readers each week means 260000 readers per year. One half column, one year at $55, read by that many people That is at the rate of over 4727 readers for EACH DOLLAR invested in advertising.

Can you reach that number by any other means, only at many times that cost?

What would 52000 dodgers and the EXPENSE of distributing them be? THINK AND ACT.
