

FARMERS' ADVOCATE

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY.

Office: Orange Edgecombe Pitt and Nash Alances.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: ONE YEAR $1.00 SIX MONTHS .50

JAS. H. LLOYD, Editor and Owner

Statement of Advertising

Table with columns for Time, Inch, and various rates for advertising.

Advertisements on which no specified number of insertions is marked, will be continued until ordered to be discontinued.

Advertisements in the form of reading matter, will be charged five cents a line for each insertion.

Transient advertisements always payable in advance.

Advertisements by contract will be published monthly.

Advertisements discontinued before the time contracted for has expired, will be charged transient rates for time actually published.

We have a table several columns for communications strictly.

Advertisements in the form of reading matter, will be charged five cents a line for each insertion.

Advertisements by contract will be published monthly.

Advertisements discontinued before the time contracted for has expired, will be charged transient rates for time actually published.

We have a table several columns for communications strictly.

Advertisements in the form of reading matter, will be charged five cents a line for each insertion.

Advertisements by contract will be published monthly.

Advertisements discontinued before the time contracted for has expired, will be charged transient rates for time actually published.

We have a table several columns for communications strictly.

Advertisements in the form of reading matter, will be charged five cents a line for each insertion.

Advertisements by contract will be published monthly.

Advertisements discontinued before the time contracted for has expired, will be charged transient rates for time actually published.

We have a table several columns for communications strictly.

Advertisements in the form of reading matter, will be charged five cents a line for each insertion.

Advertisements by contract will be published monthly.

Advertisements discontinued before the time contracted for has expired, will be charged transient rates for time actually published.

We have a table several columns for communications strictly.

Advertisements in the form of reading matter, will be charged five cents a line for each insertion.

Advertisements by contract will be published monthly.

Advertisements discontinued before the time contracted for has expired, will be charged transient rates for time actually published.

We have a table several columns for communications strictly.

Advertisements in the form of reading matter, will be charged five cents a line for each insertion.

Advertisements by contract will be published monthly.

Advertisements discontinued before the time contracted for has expired, will be charged transient rates for time actually published.

We have a table several columns for communications strictly.

Advertisements in the form of reading matter, will be charged five cents a line for each insertion.

Advertisements by contract will be published monthly.

Advertisements discontinued before the time contracted for has expired, will be charged transient rates for time actually published.

We have a table several columns for communications strictly.

Advertisements in the form of reading matter, will be charged five cents a line for each insertion.

Advertisements by contract will be published monthly.

Advertisements discontinued before the time contracted for has expired, will be charged transient rates for time actually published.

We have a table several columns for communications strictly.

Advertisements in the form of reading matter, will be charged five cents a line for each insertion.

Advertisements by contract will be published monthly.

Advertisements discontinued before the time contracted for has expired, will be charged transient rates for time actually published.

We have a table several columns for communications strictly.

Advertisements in the form of reading matter, will be charged five cents a line for each insertion.

Advertisements by contract will be published monthly.

Advertisements discontinued before the time contracted for has expired, will be charged transient rates for time actually published.

We have a table several columns for communications strictly.

Advertisements in the form of reading matter, will be charged five cents a line for each insertion.

Advertisements by contract will be published monthly.

Advertisements discontinued before the time contracted for has expired, will be charged transient rates for time actually published.

We have a table several columns for communications strictly.

Advertisements in the form of reading matter, will be charged five cents a line for each insertion.

Advertisements by contract will be published monthly.

prices are not sufficient to make up the difference. A reduction of 25 per cent. in the acreage cultivated in cotton as yet has made no material difference in the price of the staple.

It is argued that such a large crop was made in '91 that much of the cotton had to be carried over this year, hence the low price at this time.

The law of supply and demand, it is argued, regulates the price of cotton. This would be true if all things were equal. If all classes and conditions had money with which to purchase manufactured goods there would be no such thing as overproduction.

The reason this cotton had to be carried over was due to the scarcity of money.

In a certain city in this country there are thousands of children unable to attend school for a want of proper clothing. Were these and like classes supplied with necessary clothing there would be no overpopulation in this country.

The present conditions can not prevail long. We hope and trust that there will be no stagnation in business this Fall. The outlook for a large crop is not bright and we truly hope that the price will offset the difference in yield.

Reports from Texas, Alabama, Arkansas and South Carolina are distressing. The boll worm is doing havoc with cotton and the crop is estimated to be damaged thirty per cent. There is a slight advance in the price of cotton, which may be due to this unfavorable report.

MAMMON WORSHIP.

The Most Subtle, The Most Extensive, The Most Powerful, That Ever Existed in Our World.

By Rev. D. Olesby, in Economist.

Man is a worshipping animal. In every age, among all nations and tribes, some form of worship prevailed. Where the true God was not known, idols were substituted.

The character of the worshiper is transferred into the likeness of the object worshipped. Hence the character of any people is molded by the religion of the people.

The golden rule is the sum of all laws in human intercourse. No higher or better state of society is conceivable than is contained in the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.

It is Mammon worship. Money is the god which presides over the business of this business world.

It assumes the lofty position of being equal to any of the works of creation. To illustrate: God makes an acorn; it possesses vitality and will grow and make an oak tree.

Whenever there is a breach between these all-essential factors business is checked, and oftentimes totally stagnated.

The constant employment of labor at fair and reasonable wages means an impetus to all branches of trade. But idle labor has a sure tendency to the demoralization of all branches of business.

The clash precipitated between the Homestead strikers and Pinkerton thugs not only cost Carnegie a vast sum resulting from the shutting down of his mills, but the fact that all of these laborers were idle meant considerable loss to trade.

The only way to settle peacefully and satisfactorily difficulties between labor and capital is to incorporate both and employ basis of arbitration, composed of men of both classes.

With the farmers' harvest season has arrived. Another year of toil has passed and now he finds himself confronted with the same conditions that have obtained for the past three years. Diligent efforts are required, with meagre pay.

CROP OUTLOOK.

The Government proposes, as fast as Mammon worship makes thieves, murderers and other criminals, to put them in penitentiaries or other prisons. So the prisons are made larger as they become too small, and should we run on in this line long enough, the majority might be in the inside.

The church tries to counteract the evils of Mammon worship by so-called charity. They propose soup-houses, poorhouses, asylums, etc., but these too will have to be enlarged from year to year on this line.

There is no stopping place. Our true Christianity is not a true exponent of true Christianity. It is adulterated. It has foolishly expended its energies too much in trying to keep men out of hell in the future world, while the god Mammon peoples this world with hell.

Our Churching is a failure. We may go on teaching and preaching on this line until the crack of doom, and society will sink instead of rise higher. Mammon worship, or usury, drags down, with a greater force than our emasculated Christianity lifts up. A religion cannot lift society higher than it is in all the land of Christendom.

The proportion of these bills of credit as money and bonds would be governed by the amount now in circulation per capita and the amount there rightfully should be in circulation per capita, such as determined by a committee appointed especially for that purpose.

By taking $50 per capita as the satisfactory amount in demand, and admitting that $15 per capita is the amount now in circulation, the deficit that could be emitted as bills of credit and put into circulation as that money which, counting the population at 60,000,000, would aggregate $2,100,000,000.

[I may here interpolate, that my method of banking is for them to be established in the form of a bank by communication with the Government by the people under similar methods of appliances and usages as by the present banking corporations.

Whereas, also, I consider money a public medium for its purpose the same as highways are public mediums for their purpose, and have the Government supply this necessary medium to the people according to demand (under proper regulations) the same as it supplies the other mediums, by putting into circulation money of intrinsic value to the extent of consistency and that the Government can afford, and the balance treasury notes (that money) which is made legal tender, and the people dealt with directly, instead of being dealt with through priggish classes (banking corporations), undoubtedly it would be more consistent and propitious to cancel first the banded debt which now exists, caused by the late war of secession.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Spring Term, 1892, of said Court, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., against Ollen Johnson, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of Patrick Lane, J. J. Pittman and others, containing 48 acres, more or less; being the tract of land drawn by the said B. E. Price in the division of the lands of her father, L. B. Bradley.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to said division as registered.

Terms of sale, one-half cash, the balance payable twelve months after date, with 8 per cent. interest from the day of sale.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Fall Term, 1891, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., against S. E. Howard, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of Tom Roberson, W. E. Knox, Thomas Grimes and others and known as the Fork Place and being the identical land which the said S. E. Howard inherited from her Mother, the late Polly Moore, and containing 300 acres, more or less.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to the pleadings filed in the above entitled cause. Terms of sale, cash.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Spring Term, 1892, of said Court, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., vs. J. J. Lawrence and L. A. Lawrence, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of H. Hyman and W. E. Garrett and sisters, containing twenty-five acres, more or less.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to the pleadings filed in the above entitled cause.

Terms of sale, one-half cash, the balance payable one year after the day of sale, with 8 per cent. interest from the day of sale.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Spring Term, 1892, of said Court, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., vs. J. J. Lawrence and L. A. Lawrence, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of H. Hyman and W. E. Garrett and sisters, containing twenty-five acres, more or less.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to the pleadings filed in the above entitled cause.

Terms of sale, one-half cash, the balance payable one year after the day of sale, with 8 per cent. interest from the day of sale.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Spring Term, 1892, of said Court, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., vs. J. J. Lawrence and L. A. Lawrence, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of H. Hyman and W. E. Garrett and sisters, containing twenty-five acres, more or less.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to the pleadings filed in the above entitled cause.

Terms of sale, one-half cash, the balance payable one year after the day of sale, with 8 per cent. interest from the day of sale.

power to continue augmenting their capital by the millions, and in course of time to buy another such system, and they will not only have this money spoken of, anyway, but also the system of railroads besides.

I have heard others say: "Government ownership and operation of railroads and telegraphs would be all right after the Government owned them, as it is the same thing, but how could the Government ever get them paid for?" I answer: By emitting bills of credit as a medium of exchange to the extent of the demand of the country as such, and the balance of the debt met by the Government issuing bonds.

The proportion of these bills of credit as money and bonds would be governed by the amount now in circulation per capita and the amount there rightfully should be in circulation per capita, such as determined by a committee appointed especially for that purpose.

By taking $50 per capita as the satisfactory amount in demand, and admitting that $15 per capita is the amount now in circulation, the deficit that could be emitted as bills of credit and put into circulation as that money which, counting the population at 60,000,000, would aggregate $2,100,000,000.

[I may here interpolate, that my method of banking is for them to be established in the form of a bank by communication with the Government by the people under similar methods of appliances and usages as by the present banking corporations.

Whereas, also, I consider money a public medium for its purpose the same as highways are public mediums for their purpose, and have the Government supply this necessary medium to the people according to demand (under proper regulations) the same as it supplies the other mediums, by putting into circulation money of intrinsic value to the extent of consistency and that the Government can afford, and the balance treasury notes (that money) which is made legal tender, and the people dealt with directly, instead of being dealt with through priggish classes (banking corporations), undoubtedly it would be more consistent and propitious to cancel first the banded debt which now exists, caused by the late war of secession.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Spring Term, 1892, of said Court, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., against Ollen Johnson, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of Patrick Lane, J. J. Pittman and others, containing 48 acres, more or less; being the tract of land drawn by the said B. E. Price in the division of the lands of her father, L. B. Bradley.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to said division as registered.

Terms of sale, one-half cash, the balance payable twelve months after date, with 8 per cent. interest from the day of sale.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Fall Term, 1891, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., against S. E. Howard, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of Tom Roberson, W. E. Knox, Thomas Grimes and others and known as the Fork Place and being the identical land which the said S. E. Howard inherited from her Mother, the late Polly Moore, and containing 300 acres, more or less.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to the pleadings filed in the above entitled cause. Terms of sale, cash.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Spring Term, 1892, of said Court, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., vs. J. J. Lawrence and L. A. Lawrence, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of H. Hyman and W. E. Garrett and sisters, containing twenty-five acres, more or less.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to the pleadings filed in the above entitled cause.

Terms of sale, one-half cash, the balance payable one year after the day of sale, with 8 per cent. interest from the day of sale.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Spring Term, 1892, of said Court, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., vs. J. J. Lawrence and L. A. Lawrence, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of H. Hyman and W. E. Garrett and sisters, containing twenty-five acres, more or less.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to the pleadings filed in the above entitled cause.

Terms of sale, one-half cash, the balance payable one year after the day of sale, with 8 per cent. interest from the day of sale.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Spring Term, 1892, of said Court, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., vs. J. J. Lawrence and L. A. Lawrence, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of H. Hyman and W. E. Garrett and sisters, containing twenty-five acres, more or less.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to the pleadings filed in the above entitled cause.

Terms of sale, one-half cash, the balance payable one year after the day of sale, with 8 per cent. interest from the day of sale.

Notice.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Fall Term, 1891, of said Court, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., against Ollen Johnson, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, the following property to wit: one sorrel horse, named Peter, one sorrel horse named Bob, one ox, two carts and gear, one cotton planter, also, all his said Ollen Johnson's and his wife, Nannie Johnson's right title and interest in and to a certain tract or parcel of land, situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of Mrs. Thomas Norfleet and others and known as the old Whitehead Tract and containing 220 acres, more or less.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to the pleadings filed in the above entitled cause. Terms of sale, cash.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Spring Term, 1892, of said Court, in the cause entitled Geo. B. Wright, executor of the will of O. C. Farrar against B. E. Price, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of Patrick Lane, J. J. Pittman and others, containing 48 acres, more or less; being the tract of land drawn by the said B. E. Price in the division of the lands of her father, L. B. Bradley.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to said division as registered.

Terms of sale, one-half cash, the balance payable twelve months after date, with 8 per cent. interest from the day of sale.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Fall Term, 1891, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., against S. E. Howard, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of Tom Roberson, W. E. Knox, Thomas Grimes and others and known as the Fork Place and being the identical land which the said S. E. Howard inherited from her Mother, the late Polly Moore, and containing 300 acres, more or less.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to the pleadings filed in the above entitled cause. Terms of sale, cash.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Spring Term, 1892, of said Court, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., vs. J. J. Lawrence and L. A. Lawrence, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of H. Hyman and W. E. Garrett and sisters, containing twenty-five acres, more or less.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to the pleadings filed in the above entitled cause.

Terms of sale, one-half cash, the balance payable one year after the day of sale, with 8 per cent. interest from the day of sale.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Spring Term, 1892, of said Court, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., vs. J. J. Lawrence and L. A. Lawrence, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of H. Hyman and W. E. Garrett and sisters, containing twenty-five acres, more or less.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to the pleadings filed in the above entitled cause.

Terms of sale, one-half cash, the balance payable one year after the day of sale, with 8 per cent. interest from the day of sale.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Spring Term, 1892, of said Court, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., vs. J. J. Lawrence and L. A. Lawrence, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of H. Hyman and W. E. Garrett and sisters, containing twenty-five acres, more or less.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to the pleadings filed in the above entitled cause.

Terms of sale, one-half cash, the balance payable one year after the day of sale, with 8 per cent. interest from the day of sale.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Spring Term, 1892, of said Court, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., vs. J. J. Lawrence and L. A. Lawrence, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of H. Hyman and W. E. Garrett and sisters, containing twenty-five acres, more or less.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to the pleadings filed in the above entitled cause.

Terms of sale, one-half cash, the balance payable one year after the day of sale, with 8 per cent. interest from the day of sale.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Spring Term, 1892, of said Court, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., vs. J. J. Lawrence and L. A. Lawrence, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of H. Hyman and W. E. Garrett and sisters, containing twenty-five acres, more or less.

No Other Magazine in The World

so fully and fairly presents the opinions of the leading writers and thinkers on all questions of public interest as THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW. Boston Journal.

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW is essential to every American reader who wishes to keep up with the times. The New York Sun says: "The NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW constantly offers to the public a programme of writers and topics that excite the reader and gratify the intellectual appetite. In this respect there is no other magazine that approaches the NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW."

It is neither a partisan nor a sectarian publication, but ALL SIDES OF ALL QUESTIONS in which intelligent readers are interested are promptly discussed in its pages, and facts and arguments are presented with all the ability and logical force of the most eminent writers in the world.

Address contributors to early numbers will be published.

The St. Hon. W. E. Gladstone His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons, Hon. David B. Hill, Hon. Thos. B. Reed, Hon. R. G. Miles, Col. R. G. Farnsworth, Archibald Campbell, Professor Rinaldo Lanciani, and other distinguished writers.

Published 30 Years Consecutively.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Spring Term, 1892, of said Court, in the cause entitled Geo. B. Wright, executor of the will of O. C. Farrar against B. E. Price, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of Patrick Lane, J. J. Pittman and others, containing 48 acres, more or less; being the tract of land drawn by the said B. E. Price in the division of the lands of her father, L. B. Bradley.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to said division as registered.

Terms of sale, one-half cash, the balance payable twelve months after date, with 8 per cent. interest from the day of sale.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Fall Term, 1891, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., against S. E. Howard, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of Tom Roberson, W. E. Knox, Thomas Grimes and others and known as the Fork Place and being the identical land which the said S. E. Howard inherited from her Mother, the late Polly Moore, and containing 300 acres, more or less.

For a more particular description of said land, reference is hereby made to the pleadings filed in the above entitled cause. Terms of sale, cash.

By virtue of the power and authority contained in a decree of the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, State of North Carolina, made at the Spring Term, 1892, of said Court, in the cause entitled George B. Wright and James R. Gaskill, surviving partners of Farrar, Gaskill and Co., vs. J. J. Lawrence and L. A. Lawrence, the undersigned will sell at the Court House door in Tarboro, North Carolina, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1892, a certain tract or parcel of land situate in the County of Edgecombe, State of North Carolina, adjoining the lands of H. Hyman and W. E. Garrett and sisters, containing twenty-five acres,