Let us all tall into line, unite on Mr. Abell and work from this time out for his nomination. There is nothing like determination.
- -This week the HERALD publishes the first of a series of articles relative to Smithfield and its trade interests. We have attempted to be fair with all-certainly there is no disposition upon our part to either magnify or belittle any enterprise, and so. with whatever imperfections there may be. We publish the initial article this week. Next week we shall write of schools, professional and business men, and shall hope Governor, is visiting the family of Mr. L. and expect that the "write up" will be as favorably received as has that for this week -our merchants 'have testified their approlation by ordering several hundred extra copies of the HERALD, and we expect still larger orders for our next issue.

The Revival.

The revival services in the Baptist Church'cont nnee this week with apparently a deeper interest manifested. Rev. F. M. Jordan has been doing the preaching -The private school, (colored) taught for the past week. He is a ready speaker and sound reasoner, and his sermons are both impressive and instructive. Saldom have we enjoyed hearing the gospel expounded so clearly and convincingly and its truths set forth in such refreshing streams of earnestness Mr. Jordan has made many friends in our town, and let us hope his preaching has and will be fruitful of much good.

Quarterly Meeting.

The first quarterly meeting of the Conference year 1886 of Smithfield circuit was held with the church at Smithfield Saturday and Sunday last by Rev. N. H. large crowd was present Sunday-both morning and night. A full attendance of the official members of the circuit were present Saturday. On Sunday night Dr. Pool preached a special sermon to the young men of the town, his subjest being Moral Courage.
