Dear Little Sister. PEBLISHED BY REQUEST. (Elizabeth City Economist.)

Thou wast mild and lovely,

Pleasant as the air of evening,

Peaceful be thy silent slumber,

Peaceful in the grave so low, Thou no more will join our number,

Dearest sister, thou hast left us.

Here thy loss we deeply teel, But 'tis God that hath bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the cares of life have fled

She loved her Savior and to him

Then in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tear is shed.

Her costliest present brought,

She had two little hands to work for Jesus,

One little voice a song to swell.

She had two little feet to tread the path-

Up to the heavenly courts above,

She had one little heart to give to Jesus tme little soul for flim to save.

I hope again with you to meet,

And see your smiling face once more,

Then take you by that little hand,

Again as in days gone by,

A precious one from us has gone,

A place is vacant in our home,

God in His wisdom has recalled.

A voice we loved is stilled,

Which never can be filled.

The boon His love has given,

There will be a glorious dawn,

But now she is with Christ above.

One little self that he did take to place her in that heavenly world

And hear your voice that sounds so

Ore little tongue His praise to tell,

To crown His head or grace His name, No gift too rare she thought.

Two little ears to hear His counsel,

Telling of Jesus' wonderous love,

One little life for His dear service,

So farewell, dear little sister.
