Representatives Champ Clark and Cochrane of Missouri, have declared themselves in favor of Senator Joe Bailey of Texas, for the Democratic Presidential nomination in 1904. Bailey's rise and advancement since he entered the Senate have been truly remarkable, and though one of the youngest members of that dignified body, he is easily one of the strongest.

The Senate last week passed the river and harbor bill, preincreased the amount of the appropriation. In the increase is an item of $150,000 for the improvement of the Cape Fear River at Fayetteville, N. C. The bill now goes to conference committee and whether all the items added by the Senate or that part of them will be allowed to stand is yet to be determined.
