

CLAYTON, N. C.

The revival at the Clayton Baptist church closed last Thursday, after a ten days series of services. Two sermons of unusual power and spirituality were preached daily by Rev. Dr. C. A. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill. The church was crowded to the doors at nearly every service, and the greatest interest was manifested throughout the revival.

About twenty-five converts were added to the church, and a considerable number of lukewarm members were reclaimed and revived.

The ordinance of Baptism will be administered in the church pool next Sunday night.

A council of the Jr. O. U. A. M. was organized here last Friday night with twenty-nine charter members, and the following officers installed for the terms:

- Jr. P. C., D. H. Williams.
- Councilor, Prof. D. L. Ellis.
- Vice Councilor, R. A. Wall.
- Treasurer, W. H. Poole, Jr.
- Financial secretary, C. W. Carter.
- Recording secretary, Jesse Hilliard.
- Assistant secretary, D. S. Barbour.
- Conductor, W. E. Stallings.
- Warden, J. T. Barnes.
- I sentinel, Arthur Wallace.
- O. sentinel, Y. M. Holland.
- Trustees, W. A. Barnes, E. L. Hinton and J. J. Young.

It is expected that fifty members will be enrolled at the next meeting. The regular meeting nights will be the first and fourth Friday nights, each month.

Thanksgiving day was not observed generally here. The school folks presented a very creditable programme on Friday night, at the Chapel. The children of the first, second, third and fourth grades, under Misses Gulley and Shore, did exceedingly well in the patriotic exercises in which they engaged.

Henry Blount, the incomparable lecturer and word painter, is to appear at the Academy next Thursday night, in his inimitable wit and humor representations.

There was "blood on the moon" in upper Johnson last week, as indicated by several encounters more or less sanguinary. Some belligerent persons made attacks on a teacher and a merchant, resulting in some blood shed; but at last accounts peace has spread her wings over the scene of conflict.

Our townsman, Mr. Eugene Stevens, while on a visit to Selma, last Sunday, had an exciting experience with a runaway horse. It seems that Mr. Stevens hired a livery rig and went out to—, well, we don't know where; but at any rate, the horse ran away and tore up the buggy pretty badly and threw mud and water all over Mr. Stevens, nearly ruining his clothes. We did not learn whether Mr. Stevens was driving with one hand or not at the time of the runaway.

Mr. Riley Gulley has been confined at his home for nearly three weeks with malarial fever. His host of friends will learn with pleasure of his convalescence.

Rev. G. W. Fisher has gone to conference at Henderson, N. C., this week. This is Mr. Fisher's third year at Clayton, and it is possible that he may be sent to another point next year. As pastor and preacher Mr. Fisher is greatly liked here, and all will regret his going from among us if he shall be called to another charge.

The annual Thanksgiving exercises at Kenly Academy on Thanksgiving night, which this year, was "An Evening with Longfellow," was a success, and very good. A very large crowd was present, the house being filled to overflowing and many had to stand up. After the exercises were over light refreshments were served by the students for the benefit of the school, and about $14 was raised.

SELMA NEWS.

Last Saturday William Gray and William Hawry were arrested here for breaking into and robbing a store and the post office at Moyton, Wilson county, by our police at the request of the county authorities at Wilson. It is strange how little things point to the guilty parties. It seems that as a policeman of Wilson was going to Saratoga, Wilson county, to arrest a man, he passed, a few miles from Moyton, two strange negroes walking. The next day the policeman heard that the store at Moyton had been robbed the night before. Remembering that he had passed two strange negroes a few miles from Moyton he went to look for them and found that two strange negroes had taken the early morning train at Black Creek for Goldsboro, so he followed them there and found that they had gone to Selma. When he reached Selma he gave a description of them to our chief who decided they must be William Gray and Will Hawry. After a little while he located them in an old field just out of town, gambling. They had been in a prize house gambling, but shortly before the officers started to arrest them, went to the woods. The officers surrounded them and caught five; but, as there was nothing against any but Will Gray and Will Hawry the others were released. Will Gray had a pistol and a little money, nearly $3, which was thought to be some of the money taken from the store at Moyton, as they were of ancient date and such had been taken from the store. It is talked here that one of the negroes arrested confessed that a few days ago the other one had stolen a crow-bar with which to wreck one of the Southern's trains. If it can be proven, hanging is too good for him. A few months ago as the 10:36 Southern train was going to Raleigh a freight car loaded with valuable merchandise rolled down the side track of the new yard just in time for the Southern train to strike it, causing a bad wreck; but, fortunately no one was hurt. Now William Gray lives only about one hundred yards up the hill from where the wreck was. No one knows how much was stolen from the car for it was made kindling wood of, and is it not possible that this negro started a car just at the right time to cause the wreck? Will Gray was sent to Wilson for robbing the store and Will Hawry sent to Smithfield jail for stealing the crow-bar with which to wreck the train.

Miss Vic Whitley spent Thanksgiving with her sister, Miss Maggie, at Kenly.

Rev. B. W. Hatcher was here a few hours Sunday, on his way to McAdensville, N. C., to lecture to the lodge there. He was the guest of H. D. Hood, Esq.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Pearce spent Sunday with Mrs. Pearce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Fitzgerald.

Miss Fidelia LeMay, of Smithfield, is visiting her cousin, Miss Bettie Lee Sanders, who is teaching in our graded school.

Mr. Albert M. Noble, who is teaching school at Hobgood, spent Saturday and Sunday here.

The Rev. C. W. Blanchard preached a sermon at the Baptist church to the Odd Fellows last Sunday, which was much enjoyed by all and for which he has the sincere thanks of the lodge.

Dr. R. J. Nobler went to Richmond Thanksgiving to see the game of football between Virginia and North Carolina. It was the largest crowd he ever saw in such a small place. It is said that there were 15,000 people in the enclosure, which did not seem to be over three acres. There were so many people present and crowded the players so that the game was stopped twice, once for half an hour, to pack them back that there might be room to play.

Rev. Mr. Howell was severely pounded by our people Thanksgiving night with flour, sugar, coffee, meat and good things generally. He did not seem to mind it, in fact it looked like he rather enjoyed it.

A collection for the Thomasville orphanage was taken on Sunday by the Rev. C. W. Blanchard at his morning service and thirty dollars was easily raised.

Mrs. Ed. S. Ford and little Master Ned, of Louisburg, N. C., are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. S. C. Waddell.

DO NOT DOSE THE STOMACH.

Hyomei, the Only Guaranteed Cure for Catarrh.

No one should confound Hyomei with the patent medicines that are advertised to cure catarrh. It is as far superior to them all as the diamond is more valuable than cheap glass. Their composition is secret, but Hyomei gives its formula to all reputable physicians and is prescribed by them generally.

Its base is the valuable eucalyptus oil, famous for its antiseptic qualities. This is combined with aromatic and healing gums and balsams, making a pure liquid which, when used in the Hyomei pocket inhaler, fills the air you breathe with germ-killing, disease destroying and healing powers that restore health to every part of the nose, throat and lungs.

The only way to cure catarrh and all other diseases of the respiratory organs is to breathe Hyomei.

This treatment has been so successful in curing 99 per cent. of all who have used it, that Hyomei is now sold by Hood Bros. under an absolute guarantee to refund the money in case it does not benefit. You run no risk whatever in buying Hyomei. If it did not possess unusual powers to cure, it could not be sold upon this plan.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs $1.00 and comprises an inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei and a cropper. The inhaler will last a lifetime; and additional bottles of Hyomei can be obtained for 50c at Hood Bros.

Eggs Carried Seventeen Miles Lying Loose in a Babcock Buggy Without Breaking a Single One.

Several weeks ago a well known citizen of this town, whose name will be given to those who care to call and ask, drove up to my place of business and called me and asked me to look in the back of his buggy. He has a Babcock Buggy. What do you think I saw there? This citizen stated to me that he had driven seventeen miles since he left home. In the back of that buggy I saw a curry comb, a horse brush, a buggy wrench, and six or eight nice fresh hen eggs lying loose and not one broken. He told me, and he will tell you, that his hens layed those eggs in his Babcock buggy and that he neglected to take them out when he started on this 17-mile drive. How is that for an easy spring?
