The News of the Week in and Around Town.

Mr. J. A. Campbell spent Sunday in Goldsboro.

Mr. J. W. Moore spent Tuesday in Fayetteville.

Mr. Oscar R. Rand is home for a few days from Chapel Hill.

Miss Nellie Pool, of Clayton, is spending a few days here with friends.

Rev. W. G. Hall spent Monday here on his way home from Durham where he preached Sunday.

Miss Rosa Patterson, of Granville county, is here, the guest of her brother, Mr. L. G. Patterson.

Quite a number of Smithfield people went to Raleigh Wednesday to see Barnum & Bailey's circus.

Mrs. John O. Ellington, of Fayetteville, is spending a few days here with her sister, Mrs. Sam T. Honeycutt.

Mr. Ira W. Medlin, of Wilson's Mills, has accepted a position as clerk and stenographer in THE HERALD office.

Miss Lena Hicks, stenographer for the Holt Cotton Company, has returned from a visit to Rutherford County.

Our Turner's almanacs for 1907 are here. One free to every subscriber who pays his subscription a year in advance.

Miss Marie Abell went to Greensboro to-day to visit her sister, Miss Ione, who is in school at Greensboro Female College.

Don't forget the Broomell-Reed Recitals at Sanders Hall next Monday night. Reserved seats on sale at Hood's drug store.

Rev. J. W. Watson, of Hope Mills, will preach at Sardis next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and at Pine Level Sunday afternoon and night.

Miss Annie Osborne, of Danville, Va., arrived this week to be present at the marriage of her friend, Miss Bettie Kirkman, next Wednesday evening.

Mr. Charles M. Wilson, one of the Democratic nominees for the Senate from this district, is elected by about 200 majority. Johnston gave him 335 majority and Harnett about 500, while Sampson gave about 625 majority against him.

Mr. H. M. Johnson, of Meadow Township, called in to see us Tuesday. Mr. Johnson has long been considered one of the best farmers of his section. He gives a good deal of study to the needs of the soil and has made many interesting experiments along this line.

Mr. Zack Stephenson has been trying the sugar beet this year. He says they are about twenty per cent. sugar and very fine feed for stock. He planted them about eight inches apart in rows twenty inches from each other and made about sixty bushels on one eighth of an acre.

We are sorry to note the death of Little Nora Gertrude, the 17-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Johnson, which occurred at their home here Monday morning, the 12th inst., after several months of suffering. The interment was made in the Smithfield cemetery Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have the sympathy of the community in this hour of their bereavement.

Dr. Vann to Preach Here Sunday.

Dr. R. T. Vann, President of the Baptist University for Women at Raleigh, will preach at the Baptist Church here next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and evening at 7:00. Dr. Vann is one of the leading ministers and educators of the Baptist denomination in this State. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Temperance Speaking.

Prof. I. T. Turlington and Mr. J. M. Beaty expect to speak on temperance at Four Oaks in the Methodist church the third Sunday in November at 2 o'clock. Everybody invited to attend.

Publishers to Take Back Books.

Since writing the "Superintendent's Notes" found elsewhere in this paper, I have received a letter from Superintendent Joyner saying that the University Publishing Co. agrees to take from dealers all their books on old list and displaced by new list; also the American Book Co. agrees to take histories in hands of dealers displaced by White's Beginner's History in exchange at cost. This is very gratifying.

J. P. CANADAY.

The Broomell-Reed Recital.

A rare treat is in store for those who love a good entertainment. The Broomell-Reed Concert Company will give a splendid recital at Sanders Hall next Monday evening, November 19, at popular prices. Reserved seats 50 cents; general admission 35 cents; children under 12, 25 cents. The season tickets sold by the Club are good for only the entertainments mentioned on the ticket.

A Doctor's Medicine

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is not a simple cough syrup. It is a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine. It cures hard cases, severe and desperate cases, chronic cases of asthma, pleurisy, bronchitis, consumption. Ask your doctor about this.

"I have used a great deal of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs and hard colds on the chest. It has always done me great good. It is certainly a most wonderful cough medicine."—MICHAEL J. FITZGERALD, Medford, N. J.
