When and take the drunken wife beater a company insures for an amount out and give him a severe flogging." But the trouble about the claim is just. this plan, though it may be deserved, is that the law does not allow the individual to administer punishment, and neighbors who do such are violators of the law and would be dealt with. This badly abused wife says that her husband is kind and provides well for his family when sober. This shows that there is some good in the man. Now let every man answer this question. Which is the most humane way himself?

Lost Large Part Of Their Insurance.

Mr. I. M. Massengill, of Four Oaks, was here Tuesday and told us of the heavy loss his firm sustained in the recent fire in his town. He is a traveling salesman for a Norfolk hardware house

Early this year he and his brother, Mr. W. A. Massengill, and Mr. J. E. Allen formed the Massengill Hardware Company and bought a good stock of One year, cash in advance, - . . $1.00 hardware amounting to $2,800. 00. Their invoices, with three or four small ones lost, amounted to $2,743.66. They took with the Dixie Fire Insurance Co. of Greensboro insurance for $1,-000,00, and with the Atlantic of Raleigh, $800.00.

They had sold a few goods beknown journal published at fore the fire and taken in cash Louisville, Ky. In its issue for amounting to about $175.00. March 1, 1908, there appeared in After the fire occurred they its Woman's Column the follow- naturally expected to collect ing letter of inquiry which carries $1800.00, the amount of insurance they had paid for but they "Dear Aunt Jane:- I have found no such settlement. This was a new experience to to the sorrowing wife's question.

The first answer says "leave of others have lost money in him," but she had no where to these, or similar ways. Men rest much better with their property insured, but they often think go and then there were her three much better with their property Another suggested that "the their policies worth much more before a fire occurs than they it should pay that amount if Economical Buyers Will Gather!

This Fact was Fully Demonstrated Yesterday at the Great Money-Saving

Fire, Water And Insurance

Opened by Davis Brothers, When the big stock of the Will H. Lassiter Dry Goods Co. was placed on sale at prices that appeal to you and your neighbors as nothing has ever done before. The reason for this great fire sale is as follows: Fire broke out in the rear of The Lassiter Dry Goods Co's big store---Fire alarm turned in---Fire engine quickly on the scene---Store filled with smoke---Firemen unable to locate fire--Large streams of water turned in store---Fire quickly extinguished---Water and smoke slightly soiled and damaged goods---Insurance adjuster arrived---Satisfied Mr. Lassiter --- Goods sold by adjuster to highest bidder ---Davis Bros. the buyers---Goods moved to Boyett Bros. old stand where they have been rearranged and marked down lower than low, and will be distributed among the people of Johnston and surrounding counties
