The News of the Week in and Around Town.

Mr. W. S. Stevens went to Raleigh Monday.

Mayor J. M. Britt, of Benson, was here Tuesday.

Prohibition is gaining ground daily in Johnston County.

Congressman E. W. Pou was here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brady and children spent Sunday in Boon Hill.

Mrs. C. W. Harper spent a part of last week with relatives in Wilson.

Mr. Jesse Crocker, of the Bizzell Grove section, was in town Saturday.

Mr. Howard Radford spent Tuesday in Wilson with his father at the Sanatorium.

Attorney J. M. Morgan, of Benson, was here Tuesday on professional business.

Mr. T. J. Lassiter, of THE HERALD, spent Sunday at his old home in Bentonsville.

Mr. W. P. Hines, of Bentonsville, was in to see us Wednesday and renewed his subscription.

Miss Mamie Parker, of Graham, came Tuesday to attend the funeral of little Nathan Lawrence.

Judge Pritchard will speak in Smithfield Thursday, April 30, on the great subject of Prohibition.

Mrs. C. Radford, Mrs. J. E. Marler and Miss Anna Underwood returned Monday from Wilson.

Messrs. Riley R. Gulley, Donald Gulley, L. H. Champion and J. L. Godwin, of Clayton were in town Wednesday.

Miss Bertha Lee Stevens left Saturday to spend several weeks with her sister, Mrs. J. E. Stevens, at Richmond, Va.

Mr. Junius P. Hall, of Benson, representative of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company, was in town Tuesday.

Mr. J. M. Oliver, of Boon Hill, and Mr. R. D. Dunn, of Bentonsville, called in Saturday and renewed their subscriptions.

As a result of the recent meeting eleven new members were added to the Methodist church at the morning service last Sunday.

Mr. R. H. Gower has agreed to go with Rev. T. H. Thornton to speak on temperance at White Oak church the third Sunday in April at 3:30.

Mrs. J. D. Underwood went to Wilson yesterday to see her father, Mr. C. Radford, who is receiving treatment at the Wilson Sanatorium.

The cause of prohibition is steadily growing in Johnston County. The people, as they see the question in its true light, are turning more to the cause of righteousness.

Polk Miller, with his colored quartette, gave an entertainment at the Opera House Tuesday night. The entertainment was good and elicited much applause from the audience.

We regret to chronicle the illness of Mrs. A. W. Harrison, who has been confined to her room for several days. She is slowly improving and her friends hope to see her out again soon.

Mr. Spies has secured the services of Mrs. Beckley, of Randolph, to assist in the military department of his store. She is an experienced tripper and comes highly recommended. She will be here Monday.

When our convention meets on April 25 let's give Johnston's solid vote to Mr. Pou. He has done much for the County. Let's show our appreciation by voting unanimously for his re-nomination.

Rev. D. P. Bridges is holding a protracted meeting at the Baptist Chapel at the Cotton Mills this week. He is assisted by Rev. O. R. Mangum, of Selma, who is doing the preaching. Services each night at 7:30.

The Singing Class of the Oxford Orphan Asylum will give a concert in the Opera House tonight. Prices 15, 25, and 35 cents. The concert is given under the auspices of Fellowship Lodge, No. 84, A. F. & A. M. Proceeds to go to Oxford Orphan Asylum.

Mr. James N. Cobb left Friday for Jacksonville, Fla., where he went to accept a position in the general offices of the Superintendent of the Fourth Division of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Co. Mr. Cobb is one of Smithfield's bright and energetic young men and we wish him much success in his new position.

Mr. Harry P. Stevens, General Manager of the Johnston County Telephone Company, went to Clayton Wednesday in the interest of the phone line between that place and this. He says that Mr. Chas. W. Horne, President of the Clayton Telephone Co., informed him that work would be begun on the line from Clayton to Mr. S. V. Smith's as soon as the material arrives.

Called To The Life Above.

Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Lawrence, Jr., of this place, last Monday and took from them their little boy, Newton, aged 18 months. The child was sick but a few days. The little form was laid to rest in our Silent City Tuesday afternoon. The funeral services were conducted by E. W. Souders, of Fayetteville.

Thus over the happy home the shadow of a little grave has fallen; and as another has said, "it is wonderful how long a shadow a little grave can throw." But beyond and above all, the sad parents may see the sunshine of a Father's love brightening the angelic face of the boy they loved here. May He comfort and console them in their hour of sorrow.

A new egg at Easter in the shape of a snug bank account is a mighty comfortable possession.

THE BANK OF SMITHFIELD has many depositors with good balances, who previously never seemed able to get a dollar ahead. The minute they began to deposit their funds, they became more careful about what they spent. That carefulness has resulted in a substantial saving of money they formerly would have practically wasted. Why don't you start an account?
