

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE
The Week's Happenings Told by The Herald's Regular Correspondents

DOWN FOUR OAKS WAY.

Mr. Charlie Pierce spent Sunday at More Head City, returning home Monday.

Messrs I. M. Massengill and G. A. Thornton went to Asheville Tuesday on a pleasure trip.

Mr. W. E. Barbour is spending this week at Selma.

The Cullom School of Music closed here Thursday night 15th, with a splendid concert by the class. Miss Selma Cullom, sister of Mr. E. McIntosh Cullom, Musical director, from Raleigh, joined him here and recited a couple of the best recitations ever delivered here. Miss Blanch Cullom, another sister, deserves special mention as organist. The Culloms are doing a great work. The people of any community would make no mistake in securing them as music instructors.

The Masonic Order of this place gave their annual picnic Thursday 15th. There was, as usual, a large crowd that failed to carry baskets, but the good people near by carried enough, so there was plenty. Mr. L. H. Allred, of Selma, made a very fine talk on Masonry. After the picnic was over the crowd gathered at the ball ground to see Spilona and Four Oaks ball teams cross bats. Spilona went down in defeat, the score being 6 to 7 in favor of Four Oaks. The only feature of the game was the heavy hitting of Hall's balls by the Four Oaks boys.

We regret to note the sickness of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Sanders' little boy. It has a severe attack of acute indigestion.

Mr. J. W. Stanley is spending a few days in Norfolk, Va., this week.

Miss Ruth Adams has returned home after visiting friends in More Head.

HELLO BILL.
Four Oaks, July 21.

WENDELL NOTES.

A union meeting is now being held in the Star Warehouse, as it is more comfortable and the church is not large enough.

People of our section have started the curing of tobacco. It is looking nice too.

The Wendell tobacco market will open on the 6th of August.

Mr. George Cupp is off with his automobile on a trip to Oxford.

Mr. Thomas Allen has returned from Farmville.

We have some few cases of typhoid fever in our town. We hope they will soon be out again.

Mr. J. I. Lynch spent Saturday night and Sunday with his mother in Johnston.

Miss Annie Nowell, of Durham, is spending some time with her sister, Miss Lalla Nowell, who has been in the millinery business at this place for the past season.

Miss Pattie M. Richardson, of Johnston, is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Florence Cook, of this place.

There will be an excursion to Morehead on the 25th of this month.

Miss Maude Robertson is spending her vacation in Nash and Wilson counties.

They are preparing for 36 feet extension on to the freight warehouse which will add much to the convenience of the people of this place.

F. H. Robertson, H. N. Batten and Bud Gay were visitors in the Archer section Sunday. They report plenty of yellow peaches, red apples and watermelons.

On account of the rain the Wendell and Emit boys did not complete their game of ball Friday.

Mr. M. P. Hales and family attended the picnic at Emit Friday.

Among the sick list this week are little Ione Morris and Mr. Lee Nowell. We hope for them a speedy recovery.

Some of the visitors in our town last week were Riley R. Guiley and John I. Barnes, of Clayton.

Miss Viola Marshon is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Charlie Earp, of this place.

Mr. H. N. Batten and P. H. Robertson attended the ice cream supper at Mr. Charlie Whitley's last Thursday night.

Closing of Normal Music School.

The Normal Music school which is being taught at Blackman's Grove Baptist church by Prof. E. McIntosh Cullom, began last Friday, July 17, with good attendance. This is the third session of the Cullom School of Music at Blackman's Grove. Every body is well pleased with Prof. Cullom's work, and are giving him their best attention, towards the school. And we think it is going to be one of the best music schools that has ever been taught in this section.

Prof. E. McIntosh Cullom is one of the brightest young men of today. He has been teaching school through North Carolina for the past five years and his work has been greatly appreciated, every where he has taught. I don't think any young man of Prof. Cullom's standing could do a better thing than to teach the people to sing hymns and praises unto God's holy name. Prof. Cullom is the son of Prof. A. N. Cullom, of Raleigh, and is well educated in his profession.

The third session of Prof. Cullom's school now being taught at Blackman's Grove will close Tuesday, July 27, 1909, with an all-day singing which will be composed of choruses by the class, solos, quartets, sextets and speeches upon the subject of music. Every body cordially invited to come and bring your basket and be with us all day. Come and let us enjoy the singing of hymns and praises unto God's holy name.

PRINCETON NEWS.

Misses Lena Woodard, Lela Benton and Clara Finlayson left Tuesday for Goldsboro and More Head City where they will spend a week or so.

Mrs. D. E. McKinnis is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Capt. Hart, of Wilmington, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Massey, of Wilson's Mills, visited in town last week.

Miss Louise Massey is visiting relatives in Dunn.

Mrs. J. W. Perry is visiting in Henderson this week.

Mrs. M. McKinnis spent Saturday in Raleigh.

Mrs. Estelle DeArmond left Wednesday for several days visit in Durham.

We are sorry to note that master Logan Hastings is sick with fever.

Mr. A. F. Holt is placing brick, etc., on his lot for the erection of two stores.

Mr. W. S. Joyner keeps on the sick list.

Rev. Mr. Horrell filled his pulpit last Sunday and left Sunday afternoon for Pinckney where he will carry on a revival this week.

W. H. Massey took a business trip to Durham last week.

Mr. George Howell, of Norfolk, has accepted a position with Princeton Lumber Co. as lumber grader.

W. M. Rose has bought out the stock of goods of A. D. Pearce and will continue business at the same place.

Mr. Jack Mitchell on last Tuesday evening killed (a supposed to be genuine) wild cat. If not of the wild cat species it was among the largest of cats we ever saw.

Mr. Mitchell says it whipped his two dogs and he had to dispatch his cat with his gun, or at least one of its lives—eight more to hear from.

In Memory of Little Clyde Omax.

On Saturday night, July 10th, at 8 o'clock the death angel entered our home and took from time to eternity, the sweet spirit of little Clyde Omax, our 8-months old baby.

He was sick for a month or more and his death was not a surprise.

All that his kind physician, loving parents and fond friends could do was done to save him, but God, who never makes any mistakes had need for another little jewel in heaven and he called little Clyde to fill that place.

It is hard to give him up, but we must submit to the will of Him who goeth all things well. He was laid to rest on the following evening in the family grave yard at Mr. J. C. Bass' in Sampson county, by the tender hands of loved ones, who had gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to the little one gone to rest.

He had never learned to speak but one word and that was "mama" and during his sickness he would often call "mama, mama," and he clung to mama even until the last.

Dear little Clyde,
We'll miss him when the morning dawns,
We'll miss him when the night returns,
We'll miss him here, we'll miss him there,
Dear little Clyde, we'll miss him every where.

Gone to rest our little darling,
Here no more we'll see his face,
But we'll meet again in Heaven,
When we've run life's rugged race.
May the Heavenly Father comfort our family in this hour of deepest gloom.
MAMA.

Tortured on a Horse.

Infallible for Piles, Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Boils, Fever-Soreness, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Corns, 25c. Guaranteed by Hood Bros.

Celebration at Hopewell.

On Saturday, July 17th, at 10 o'clock A. M. the congregation was called to order by the president, Rev. J. R. Wallace.

The Hopewell choir was asked to sing the welcome song, after which the Bible lesson was read and prayer was offered by the president.

Several choirs had been invited to sing but failing to be present the people were entertained by the following program by the Hopewell choir:

Songs—Will you Hear? and God Giveth the Harvest.

Essay—Music and Its Power, by Vida Munden.

Songs—Fear Not, And the Mighty Arm of God, after which a short recess was given to wait for a visiting choir from Bethel to arrange their program.

At 11:15 o'clock the people reassembled in the house and the program was continued as follows:

Songs by Hopewell choir—The Life That Never Ends, and I'll Go All the Way.

Song by Bethel—In the Dawning of the Morning Bye and Bye.

Song by Hopewell—We'll Rest, after which they adjourned for dinner which was spread on the ground. The people remained on the grounds passing off the time pleasantly until one o'clock when they again were called to order and were entertained by the Bethel choir as follows:

Songs—'Tis Sweet to Know, Marching On, The Army of the Lord, Over There no Fear Will Fall, Will My Mother Know me There, and Good Bye.

The exercises closed for the day. The congregation departed declaring a pleasant time.

HICKORY CROSS ITEMS.

Mr. Ira Edgerton spent Saturday night with Mr. Jodie Sasser near Pike's Store.

Mr. George Langston spent Saturday night with his sister, Miss Lettie Langston, who has been sick for quite awhile. We are glad to know that she is improving.

Mr. W. M. Howell preached a sermon here last Sunday evening on the text, "What manner of love bath the Father bestowed upon us."

There will be a basket picnic on the 30th of July at this place. Everybody is invited in the neighborhood with a well-filled basket.

Our second term of singing will begin July 30. We want all the choir to be present.

ARCHER NEWS.

Rev. J. A. T. Jones failed to fill appointment at Salem Sunday.

There will be services at Barnes school house Sunday by Rev. Mr. Simmons.

Quite a number of the young people of this community attended the picnic at Wadkins Friday.

The ice cream supper given by Miss Iva Hinton Saturday night was a complete success. There was a good crowd and a plenty of cream. Every body seemed to enjoy it.

Miss Corinna Sewell, of Emit, is visiting her relatives and friends around here this week.

Mrs. E. L. P. Barnes, of Clayton, is visiting the family of Mr. J. R. Barnes near here this week.

Miss Nellie Carroll who has for some time been in our community, returned to her home near Wakefield Sunday.

Among the visitors from Clayton Sunday we note Mr. L. M. Barnes and Mr. W. L. Stancil.
