

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

POLENTA NEWS.

The Sunday school picnic at Oakland last Saturday was the most successful in its history—a tremendous crowd, whose conduct was the very best, great enjoyment by all and plenty to eat.

Rev. Mr. Wallace, in the absence of the pastor, filled the pulpit at Oakland Sunday morning and night, and preached two good sermons.

The following visitors are in our neighborhood: Misses Pearl and Maggie Myatt, of Raleigh; Miss Smith, of Wake; Misses Lucy Pool, Floy Baucum, and Messrs B. B. Stallings and Byron Pool, of Clayton; Miss Maud Stallings and Mr. Walter Stallings, all at Mr. J. W. Myatt's; Misses Lillie and Mary Ryals, of Benson, at Mr. H. V. Faulkner's; Miss Mary Sherrin, of Rocky Mount, at Miss Susan Tomlinson's; Miss Margie McLemore at Dr. McLemore's; Misses Jessie Yelvington and Maud Gulley, of Clayton, and Messrs Abram Lassiter and Bernice Jones, at Mr. J. W. Yelvington's; Misses Bessie Coats Dora Coats, Floy Johnson, of Smithfield, at Mrs. Lizzie Johnson's; Misses Norma Gower, Mary Taylor, of Garner; Misses Pearl Austin and Claud Vinson, at Mr. H. M. Barber's.

Mrs. S. C. Leeson and daughter, Francis, after spending ten days with Mrs. F. T. Booker, sister of Mrs. Leeson, returned to her home in Raleigh Sunday evening.

Shiloh church is being repaired and otherwise improved. The protracted meeting commences there the second Sunday in August.

The young people enjoyed a sociable at Mr. J. W. Yelvington's Tuesday night and at Mr. Huel Stephenson's Monday night. A social gathering of the young people will be held at Mr. J. W. Myatt's Thursday night of this week.

Most of the farmers have laid by their crops. Cotton has failed considerably of late, the crop will be smaller than last year. Other crops fairly good.

Preaching at Mt. Zion next Sunday by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Starling. July 27. T.Y.P.O.

Look Out Road Overseers.

We the supervisors of Wilders township request every overseer of said township to work his road at once and report to us at Archer the first Saturday evening in August at 2:00 P. M. The law says each and every overseer shall, at every meeting of supervisors, make report to them of present condition of his road.

Very respectfully, W. M. NOWELL, W. M. ESTRIDGE, W. B. EASON, J. R. BARNES, Supervisors.

Sees Mother Growing Young.

"It would be hard to overstate the wonderful change in my mother since she began the use of Electric Bitters," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick of Danforth Me. "Although past 70 she seems really to be growing young again. She suffered until 1907 from dyspepsia for 20 years, at last she could neither eat, drink nor sleep. Doctors gave her up and all remedies failed. 'H. Electric Bitters' worked such wonders for her health. They invigorate all vital organs, cure Liver and Kidney troubles, induce a healthy sleep, and appetite. Only 10c at HOOD BROS., Druggists.

NOTES FROM WENDELL.

Miss Nellie Carroll, of Wendell, spent Saturday here.

The condition of little Ione Morris is improved today. Her many friends hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. E. V. Richardson happened to the misfortune to get his tobacco barn burned Friday night.

Dr. Douglas, of Raleigh, is in town this week.

Mrs. Tempie Richardson and Miss Lillie Anderson will leave for Wilson Thursday where they will spend a week's vacation.

A Delightful House Party at Garner.

The little town of Garner was alive with young folks from last Wednesday afternoon till Sunday afternoon.

The liveliest house party of the season was given by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Broughton. The entire time was spent in merriment and pleasure not only by the attendants, but by all who lived near enough to look on and hear the happy voices and laughter of the boys and girls.

On Wednesday evening, Mrs. Broughton opened the party with a beautiful "porch party." Miss Elsie Penny and Mrs. Geo. M. Williams, both sisters of Mrs. Broughton, received at the door and gave all a hearty welcome.

The pretty Jap lights and decorations added to the happy faces, and after refreshments were served all said "good night," to last but a short while.

Thursday an enjoyable hayride to a picnic; that evening many amusements brought the day to a close.

Friday a trip to the capital city; Friday evening might be termed as a musical, Misses Williams, Baucum and others rendered piano selections. Vocal solos and duets were enjoyed, especially those sang by Miss Norma Gulley and Mr. Sion Williams.

After fruits and melons were served all parted till Saturday when they went to a picnic at Bethel, Saturday evening they were still in the midst of enjoyment. In the parlors and on the porches were couples here and there. Little cantaloup saucers of ice cream were served. All too soon the lights on the porches began to grow dim and the sashes from the "old time-piece" sounded the first hour of the Sabbath, so goodnight was again heard.

Sunday church was attended. In the afternoon good-byes were said as each train came. As each left they expressed their greatest appreciation to Mrs. Broughton and assured her the party had been a success from beginning to end.

Those who constituted the party were: Miss Norma Gulley from Clayton; Miss Irma Gulley, Clayton; Miss Leola Smith, Benson; Miss Lula Wrenn, McCullers; Miss Foy Baucum, Clayton; Miss Mary Williams, Raleigh; Miss Margaret Betts, Raleigh; Miss Elsie Penny, Garner; Miss Jeter Penny, Garner; Miss Bessie Bullock, Oxford; Messrs. Otha Wrenn, McCullers; Roy Baucum, Clayton; Sion Williams, Raleigh; W. D. Tomlinson, Smithfield; William Turner, Roy Banks, Clyde Whitaker, Will Banks, and John Hobby from Raleigh; Needham Broughton, J. A. Weathers, Numa Broughton, Phil Tomlinson and Hubert Bryan from Garner.

A Night Rider's Raid.

The worst night riders are calmed, croton oil or aloes pills. They raid your bed to rob you of rest. Not so with Dr. King's New Life Pills. They never distress or inconvenience, but always cleanse the system, curing Colds, Headache, Constipation, Malaria, 25c. at HOOD BROS., Druggists.

A Note of Thanks.

We wish to express our most heartfelt thanks and gratitude to our many friends for their kindness and everlasting faithfulness during the recent illness and death of our little son, Felton Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Canaday. Benson, July 26.

Life 100,000 Years Ago.

Scientists have found in a cave in Switzerland bones of men, who lived 100,000 years ago, when life was in constant danger from wild beasts. To-day the danger, as shown by A. W. Brown of Alexander, Me., is largely from deadly disease. "If it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, which cured me, I could not have lived," he writes, "suffering as I did from a severe lung trouble and stubborn cough. To cure Sore Throats, Colds, obstinate Coughs, and prevent Pneumonia, its the best medicine on earth. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by HOOD BROS., Druggists. Trial bottle free.
