The rain Saturday and Sunday did much damage through our section.

Mrs. J. E. Pittman and children spent Saturday night and Sunday at Mr. J. W. Pittman's.

Miss Mamie Pittman spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Frances Wilkins.

On last Thursday, June 9, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brassie Adams and took from them their little baby about one year old. It was laid to rest Friday to await the resurrection morn.

The little crib is empty now, the little clothes laid down, a mother's hope, a father's joy in death's cold arms doth lie.

Go little pilgrim to thy home
On yonder's blissful shore;
We miss thee here, but soon will come,
Where thou hast gone before.
Princeton, June 14. R. J.

We are sorry to report Mrs. R. D. Creech on the sick list this week, but pleased to note that she is improving very nicely.

Mr. J. Rufus Talton and family have moved back to their country home. We are pleased to have them back with us again.

Messrs. Aquilla Narron and W. Oscar Hocutt spent Saturday and Sunday with a friend in the Parrish Memorial section.

Mr. W. O. Hocutt has returned from some of the northern points where he had an operation of the head made. We are pleased to say that he is getting along very nicely.

Troy D. Godwin took his wife home with him Sunday. It was a very quiet affair as it was a run away match.

Mr. Joe Talton has been arranging some new nets making preparation for a fishing party that he is to give some of his Selma friends on the 4th of July.

Mr. Ed W. Narron has been suffering very much lately with a crushed finger, but is improving.

Hare's Store, June 14.

Death of Little Melba Talton.

Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Smith last Thursday, June the 9th, and took away their little granddaughter, Melba Elizabeth Talton, aged about nine months. The child's mother died when she was only three weeks old.

She was taken Tuesday with that dreaded disease cholera infantum, living only two days.

All that kind physicians and loving hands could do was done to make her stay on earth longer, but the Master said, "suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

Little Melba possessed all the graces of childhood—beautiful and bright, and by her sweet and winning ways had endeared her to the hearts of all who knew her.

The little one was the pride of the home, no pains were spared; everything that need be was sacrificed to little Melba.

Loaned to them for only nine short, happy months, they passed away oh! too quickly. It is almost impossible to realize the change.

This sweet little bud was not left to grace earth with its beauty and fragrance, but called for the Master's use.

Her place in that home is vacant, and while our hearts are crushed and bleeding, we know it was God who gave her, and now that He has taken her away, heaven is the dearer.

The little body was laid to rest Friday, by the side of her mother.

The beautiful little casket was covered with many beautiful floral offerings.

She leaves a father, one little brother and sister, and a host of relatives and friends.

"Death came with friendly care,
The opening bud to heaven conveyed,
And bade it blossom there."

N. B. Hales for Register.

To the Editor:

I am writing to endorse an article in The Herald, recommending N. B. Hales to the Democratic Convention, for the office of Register of Deeds, of Johnston County.

The importance of the position and the onerous duties attaching to it, call for the services of a man, who has the courage to do right.

After several years of faithful and efficient services, in the discharge of his duties, in business, which has eminently fitted him for the position, to which he aspires.

I know of no man better qualified and equipped to discharge the duties of this important office, than N. B. Hales.

I confidentially believe that when the voters of Johnston county meet in convention in Smithfield, they will feel as I do and nominate Mr. Hales for Register of Deeds.

Give us Mr. Hales for Register, and W. S. Stevens for Clerk, and we will have a winning ticket.

W. F. GERALD.

An Englishman thirty years old may expect thirty-three years two months more of life; a woman, thirty-four years one month.

FOUR OAKS NOTES.

Four Oaks, June 15.—Miss Annie Thrie Pou, of Smithfield, is the guest of Miss Ruth Adams this week.

Mr. Robert Lee and family, of Falcon, returned home Tuesday, after spending some time with Mrs. Lee's father, Dr. J. D. T. Wellons, and brothers, Messrs. C. H. and A. B. Wellons.

Miss Alma Beasley, of Beasley, passed through Monday en-route for Lillington and Raleigh to spend some time.

Mr. R. B. Strickland went to Elm City Saturday to visit friends returning Sunday.

Messrs. A. B. Adams and J. E. Parker left for Richmond, Va., on business Tuesday.

Mr. Jno. S. Stroup is visiting his parents at Fallston, Cleveland county this week.

At last meeting of Town Board Mr. G. F. Bizzell was elected chief of police to succeed Mr. W. D. Stanley.

Mr. J. B. Adams has returned from the University of Virginia where he has been for the past year taking a course of law.

Lis'en for wedding bells—this is the right month.

Mr. K. E. Massengill, who for the past 12 months has run a blacksmith shop here, has moved to Potomac section to accept a position with Mr. Garland Smith. Although we regret to lose him, we wish him much success in his new home. He is succeeded here by Messrs. Robert and Lydia Lee, who are very good workmen.

Mr. J. R. Barbour, of Benson, and Mr. R. H. McGulre, of Smithfield, were in town for a short while Tuesday.

There are several nice stores and dwellings nearing completion here now.

Mr. I. M. Massengill, who travels for Waters & Martin, wholesale hardware dealers, is in Norfolk spending his vacation.

Rev. Mr. Sutton delivered able and instructive sermons at the Methodist church Sunday morning and evening.

There is prayer meeting at M. E. church each Wednesday night and song service at Baptist Church each Friday night. There is enough young people near here for a large regular attendance at each place. Your presence will be appreciated.

Alex Wiggs for Treasurer.

I want to recommend through the columns of your Herald Mr. Alex Wiggs, of Pine Level, for the Democratic nomination for the office of Treasurer of Johnston County. Mr. Wiggs is well known throughout Johnston as he was our Treasurer during the years of 1903 to 1907.

While in office he discharged his duties to the greatest extent. He was ever in his office during court weeks and would stay until court adjourned at night, so the jurors would have no trouble in obtaining their money. He was present on each Saturday and Monday for anyone to inspect his books or get any information that was required. He is in every respect a trustworthy and energetic man, and is fully competent to fill the office again.

Mr. Wiggs is also one of our strongest Democrats and is ever ready to do anything he can to assist his party in any of their undertakings. He is a hard worker and ranks high among his fellow-citizens.

I trust that the Democrats of Johnston county will think over this matter and nominate him again. I don't think we would make any mistake in doing so.

I hope to hear from some one else in regard to the matter.

Respectfully,
JESSE DAUGHTRY,

Stomach Dead Man Still Lives.

People who suffer from sour stomach, fermentation of food, distress after eating and indigestion, and seek relief in large chunks of artificial digestors, are killing their stomachs by inaction just as surely as the victim of morphine is deadening and injuring beyond repair every nerve in his body.

What the stomach of every sufferer from indigestion needs is a good prescription that will build up his stomach, put strength, energy and elasticity into it, and make it sturdy enough to digest a hearty meal without artificial aid.

The best prescription for indigestion ever written is sold by druggists everywhere and by Hood Bros. and is rigidly guaranteed to build up the stomach and cure indigestion, or money back.

This prescription is named Mi-o-na, and is sold in small tablet form in large boxes, for only 50 cents. Remember the name, Mi-o-na stomach tablets. They never fail.

RIVERSIDE WAVES.

Mr. Walter Gray was a visitor in this community a few days ago.

Mr. Silas Powell of this section, was a visitor near Princeton Saturday night and Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Casey, of Goldsboro, filled his regular appointment at Riverside Sunday.

Mr. Isaac Martin, of near Princeton, was in our section Sunday.

Mr. M. H. Pennington made a business trip over in Wayne last week.

Mr. Woodard and family of F. C., were in our neighborhood Sunday.

Squire Rose, of Mill Creek section, was in our burg a few days ago.

Dr. J. H. Kennedy made a business trip in our community a few days ago.

We are sorry to note that Mrs. Mary Britt is on the sick list.

We are glad to chronicle that Mr. Willford and Mrs. Rhodes, who have been very sick, are convalescent.

The Rev. Mr. Moore holds the fishermen's flag, since he caught a seventeen pound carp with hook and line.

Our boys will cross bats with the Rockfield boys Saturday. Look out Rockfield.

The Free Will Baptist Sunday-school at Riverside is progressing finely.

Our farmers, up until the recent big rains, were pleased with the prospects for a good crop, but now they are looking for a large freshet.

June 13, 1910. "CATFISH."

In Memory of Our Mother, Columbia A. Johnson.

On the afternoon of June the 4th, 1910, at one thirty o'clock, the death angel came into our home and took the sweet spirit of our darling mother, and transplanted it in the beautiful Haven of Rest to await the Resurrection Morn.

She died suddenly with apoplexy. We feel the loss of our darling mother, but know that God in his infinite wisdom doeth all things well.

Some day we shall know and understand why God so suddenly took our darling mother, without a moment's warning. Her sleep in death was so peaceful and calm. O peaceful sleep that knows no waking!

Her life was well spent in everything that goes to make a beautiful Christian character. Her loved ones will, oh so sadly, miss her, her vacancy never more be filled. God saw that her mission here was complete and said, "my child, come home." She was ready, willing and waiting for the Master's call.

The sweet memory of her beautiful life will ever linger before us and will be an inspiration for her children to lead us on to higher and nobler things of life.

We trust that some day we will be re-united in that beautiful home prepared for those who love Him, oh blessed thought. Her kind and loving companion will miss her so much, and may God's richest blessings abide and comfort him. Her neighbors have lost a kind and sympathetic friend. She was always willing to do all that she could for those around her, speak a word of cheer to the bereaved.

Yes, mother we shall miss you.
ALICE SANDERS MOORE.

W. Lester Stancil for county Treasurer

To the Editor:

Seeing in almost every paper some one suggests the name of some man as being a self-made man, I present to the voters of Johnston county what I consider a self-made man in the person of W. Lester Stancil, of Clayton township. He was raised a poor boy on the farm without a mother, with an afflicted father, a cripple and has to use crutches himself, has worked and acquired a good education under these trying circumstances. Helped to support his father and sister, he taught in the public schools for several years, took a business course in King's business College at Raleigh, N. C., and is thoroughly qualified to fill the position with credit to himself and the county. He is a Democrat of the true blue type, his character is above reproach. To know him is to esteem him, the writer has met him almost daily for the past three years. His social manner and pleasant appearance makes him liked by all those who meet him. I do ask the Democratic voters of Johnston county to consider this honest Christian gentleman and at the County Convention let us nominate him for county treasurer. He lives now in Clayton where he has a position with Messrs. John I. Barnes and Brother, but he was reared in Wilders township and lived there until recently.

JAMES H. PRICE.

In Memoriam.

On Saturday morning, June 4th, at one o'clock, this community was shocked to hear of the death of Mr. Lee Woodard who died after several days illness of typhoid fever. In every duty it may be said of him, "he hath done what he could."

Thus in the prime of young manhood when life was so beautiful and bright and seem so much to live for what he thought was right, and we believe God has called him to his heavenly home.

It was one of the fairest summer days amid singing flowers they laid his tenderly loved body in its last earthly resting place.

We know God has said, "I will not leave you comfortless," and all things work together for good—not one thing, but all things.

For the precious promise reaches to the depths of human woe, that however deep the waters, they shall never overflow.

It may seem to our aching hearts that the ones we love most are taken let us also feel that God loves them more.

While we turn our faces away and no more, never no more, we can see his face and grieve for the loved ones who must live for the parents left so desolate and lonely.

He was faithful to his parents and we believe his spirit is transplanted to the gardens of God, there to bloom and bear eternal fruitage.

Fond parents, look up at the longest life, is fleeting and soon we shall meet in that home where death can never, and the midnight vigil by the side of the sufferers is never kept let us, also feel that there is one more to welcome us when we shall cross that intervening space between this land and that one over there.

One more to make the strange beyond seem unfair.

June 6, 1910.

A FRIEND.
