

BARACA-PHILATHEA RECEPTION

One of the Most Enjoyable of Events At Kenly, In Honor of Dr. R. A. Turlington and Bride.

Kenly, Feb. 2.—One of the most enjoyable events of the new year was the reception given last Thursday evening, January 29th, by the Baraca and Philathea classes of the M. E. Sunday School. At the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Grizzard, in honor of the Baraca president and wife, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Turlington, who were married the preceding evening. The home was beautifully decorated in ferns, narcissus and potted plants.

The guests were met at the door by Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Grizzard. In the hall were Mr. C. F. Darden and Mrs. P. Godwin who ushered them to the cloak room. Returning to the hall Mrs. H. F. Edgerton presented the guests to the receiving line in the parlor which was composed of Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Turlington, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Benson, Prof. Sam Leonard, and Miss Emma Maathews, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. High and Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. Snipes. Miss Sallie Benson immediately pointed them to the punch bowl which was gracefully presided over by Mr. Sam Nash and Mrs. Mary Chase. After receiving punch the guests were invited to each write a toast in the toast book which was presented to the bride and groom by Mrs. D. J. Sanders.

The color scheme was carried out in the dining room where delicious ice cream and cake was served by the lady members of the social committee. Mints were served by Mrs. Z. V. Snipes. Reading by Miss Madge Keiter and Miss Francis Hales and music by Mrs. Grizzard and Miss Carrie Lawman added much to the pleasure of the evening.

Turlington-Underwood.

Earnest, Jan. 31.—A marriage of much interest to many friends throughout the State was that of Dr. R. A. Turlington and Miss Mallie G. Underwood which took place at Earnest, the home of the bride's father, Mr. A. E. Underwood, Wednesday, January 28.

The handsome country home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and at the appointed hour Miss Virgie Goodwin, of Raleigh, sang very sweetly, "Believe Me if All Those Enduring Young Charms," while Miss Dixie Underwood, a younger sister of the bride, presided at the piano. To the beautiful strains of the wedding march the bridal party entered the parlor in the following order:

Mr. Joe McPhail, of Fayetteville, with Miss Lottie Underwood, sister of the bride; Dr. Cleveland Turlington, of Dunn, with Miss Winnie Turlington, of Greensboro State Normal; Mr. Tyra Bailey, of Kenly, with Miss Lillie Howard, of Salem; Mr. Dennis Turlington, of Roseboro; Dr. B. F. Butler, of Faison, with Miss Bertha Newton, of Salem. The groom entered on the arm of his best man, Dr. James R. Butler, of Dunn, and the bride was led by Miss Rometa Cooper, of Earnest, maid of honor. The ceremony was most impressively performed by Rev. W. J. Jones, of Salem.

Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party left in automobiles for Roseboro where amid showers of rice and many hearty good wishes the bride and groom boarded the train for Kenly, their future home. The bride is one of Sampson County's most attractive and popular daughters, while the groom is a prominent young physician of Kenly.

Misses Menolar Creech and Laura Campbell, the popular teacher at Moore's School House, spent Friday night with Miss Mamie Hocutt and attended the box supper at Sandy Spring.

The box party and the debate at Sandy Spring last Friday night was a grand success. There were 15 boxes sold for $23.10 (if the writer was correctly informed), but the best of all was the debate. The query was: Is Prohibition a Success in North Carolina. The affirmative was represented by Spaine Bailey and Wade Edwards, while the negative was defended by Jennings Talton and Norman Narron. They all made good speeches, and we congratulate them all, but it was very easy for the judges to decide in favor of the affirmative. The judges were: Misses Menolar Creech, Laura Campbell and W. O. Hocutt.
