Sunday Church Services.

Methodist Church—Morning and night services, by the pastor, Rev. R. B. John.

Baptist Church—Sunday night only, by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Lanier. Primitive Baptist Church—Saturday and Sunday at 11 o'clock each day.

Episcopal Church—Sunday morning and night, by Rev. N. C. Duncan. Beginning next Sunday, all night services at the Smithfield churches will begin at 8 o'clock until further notice.

School To Open Monday.

On Monday, September 6, the Turlington Graded School will open for the Fall term. It is important that parents do what they can to have their children in school the first day and keep them there each day of the term. The school will open at nine o'clock Monday morning, and the Superintendent and teachers are anxious that all pupils be there on time. The patrons of the school are given a cordial invitation to be present at the opening of the term.

The school will have the following faculty:

Superintendent, Mr. A. Vermont, who will have charge of the classes in Foreign Languages and Science.

Principal, Mr. George T. Whitley, who will have charge of the classes in Mathematics in the high school department. Mrs. T. J. Lassiter will assist in the high school work, teaching the classes in English and History.

Seventh Grade—Mrs. D. T. Luncford.

Sixth Grade—Miss Susie Dickson.

Fifth Grade—Miss Blanche Lancaster.

Fourth Grade—Miss Willie Ragsdale.

Third Grade—Mrs. R. B. John.

Second Grade—Miss Bessie Coats and Miss Mattie Wellons.

First Grade—Miss Mattie Hudson and Miss Irene Myatt.

The Music Department will again be under the management of Miss Hazel Doles.

Next Monday a Holiday.

Next Monday, September 6th, is Labor Day and is a National Holiday. On that day both The Johnston County Bank and Trust Company, and The First National Bank of Smithfield will be closed. The Post Office will also observe Sunday hours.

A Surprise Marriage.

Wednesday evening at 9:30 o'clock, Miss Pauline Ennis and Mr. W. M. Kilpatrick, of Grifton, were happily married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. E. R. Norton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. L. Smith in the presence of only the family and a few friends. The happy couple left for the home of the groom near Grifton, Thursday, where a sumptuous dinner was given them in the evening. Thence they will go to New York City and to the Panama Exposition.

Mrs. Kilpatrick has been one of the efficient telephone operators here for some time and has many friends who will miss her from their midst.

The groom, who formerly lived here, is a prominent farmer who lives near Grifton.

Mrs. T. H. Spence Entertains.

The Round Dozen Book Club met with Mrs. T. H. Spence, Wednesday afternoon and was very pleasantly entertained at Rook. The home was especially attractive for the occasion, bowls of zennias and asparagus fern being used quite effectively. The tables were numbered by means of zennias and the guests matched for partners with zennias. At the close of the games delicious ice cream and cake was served. Before the guests departed, new books were selected to be put in at the next meeting. Those present, besides club members, were Mrs. A. S. Johnston, Mrs. Ella Baker, and Mrs. A. Vermont.

A Fine Lot of Meat.

Mr. J. H. Lassiter, of Elevation township, was here yesterday with one of the nicest loads of bacon brought to town this season. He had 117 pounds of hams and 455 pounds of shoulders and sides. The entire load was bought for cash by our enterprising grocer, Mr. S. C. Turnage. Farmers who can bring such nice meat as this to town are not so very familiar with Old Man "Hard Times."

Mrs. C. H. Johnson is on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Y. J. Coats, in Cleveland township this week.

TOWN AND COUNTY TOPICS.

Miss Pearl Underhill is visiting friends in Selma this week.

Mr. J. M. Kennedy, architect of Raleigh, was here yesterday.

Mrs. A. G. Stephenson is visiting friends in Kenly this week.

Dr. R. L. Tomlinson spent Wednesday afternoon in Wilson.

Miss Jessie Phillips returned Wednesday from a visit to Salisbury and Raleigh.

Misses Ruth and Lucile Bullard, of Durham, are here on a visit to the family of Prof. L. T. Royall.

Mrs. J. W. Dillahunt and little son, Roland Lee, returned yesterday from a visit to relatives in Washington.

Mr. J. B. Coats, at the Burket Jones place, lost a barn of tobacco by fire Thursday morning, September 2nd.

Miss Martha Taylor has returned to her home in Goldsboro, after spending a few days here with Miss Mattie Wellons.

Miss Louise Sills, of Nashville, and Miss Georgia Scruggs, of Richmond, are spending a few days here this week with Miss Erma Stevens.

Miss Sallie Hooks returned Wednesday from a visit to Morehead City and other points in the Eastern part of the State.

Mrs. F. H. Brooks and children have returned from a several weeks' stay in Asheville with Mrs. Brooks' mother, Mrs. A. L. Parker.

Miss Dora Coats leaves this morning to assume her duties as teacher of the second grade in the Reidsville Graded Schools.

Mr. Clenon Boyett has returned to Chapel Hill to resume his studies in the State University. He is a sophomore this session.

Mr. Gardner Hudson went to Chapel Hill Wednesday to take up his work in the State University as a member of the Senior Class.

Mr. Albert Coats left Tuesday afternoon for Chapel Hill where he goes to enter the State University as a member of the sophomore class.

Mr. J. B. Yelvington, who has been living in the Clayton section for some time, was here yesterday. He now lives beyond Selma on Route No. 3.

Rev. R. L. Smith will begin a series of meetings at Benson Grove Baptist church the first Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. N. H. Biddell, who has been here several days as relief agent at the Coast Line, while Mr. J. A. Campbell was off on his vacation, left Wednesday night for South Carolina.

Mr. J. A. Campbell, who has been away on his vacation and spent some time at Raeford in Hoke County, says the crops of both corn and cotton there are very poor.

Mrs. F. H. Brooks, the President, asks us to state that there will be a meeting of the Woman's Club next Wednesday, September 8th, at 4 o'clock.

Mr. Jasper L. Stuckey, of Boon Hill, was here yesterday. He will return to Chapel Hill Monday to begin his work as a member of the sophomore class.

Mr. Leon Bailey, son of Mr. J. R. Bailey, has gone to West Raleigh to take up his studies in the A. & M. College. This is his second year at A. & M.

Miss Eleanor Morgan, of Goldsboro, who was one of the teachers in the Graded School here last year, is spending a few days here, the guest of Miss Erma Stevens.

Messrs. Ben Wellons and George R. Pou are at home from Wake Forest College where they took the summer law course. They took the examination before the Supreme Court Monday.

Mr. Will D. Avera, whose reputation for raising the finest watermelons grown in Johnston County is known far and wide, favored The Herald force with one of his nicest this week, for which we all extend thanks. When it comes to raising melons, he beats them all.

Miss Sudie Johnson, who has been with the Davis Stores for several years, left Tuesday night for the Northern markets to assist Miss Blanche Mizell in buying the fall and winter stock of millinery for the Davis Stores. Mr. Davis says they will no doubt buy the largest and most elaborate stock ever shown in Smithfield.

Mr. W. E. Smith, President of the First National Bank of Selma, was here Tuesday. Mr. Smith is a live and wide awake banker who believes in a liberal use of printer's ink. He left with us a series of interesting and timely ads, the first of which appears in this issue.

Mr. S. C. Turnage and family, accompanied by Mrs. Charlie Eason, spent Sunday with the family of Mr. W. H. Pittman beyond Selma. Mr. Turnage brought back two ears of corn which he gathered from Mr. Pittman's field which are the finest we have seen this fall.

Quite a lot of tobacco was sold on our warehouse floors yesterday. So far the farmers have been so busy with finishing curing the tobacco crop and pulling fodder that they have not had much time to get their golden weed ready for the market. The prices have been satisfactory and the next few weeks will see much tobacco sold here.

Misses Myrtle and Fannie Harper are spending a few days with their brother, Mr. W. C. Harper, at Piney Grove Farm, on their return trip from attending the Summer School at Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass. They will go to Wilson Saturday to take up their work as members of the faculty of Atlantic Christian College which opens its fall session next Tuesday.

KENLY NEWS NOTES.

Kenly, Sept. 2.—Misses Lessie Guley and Iona Richardson left this week to enter Elon College.

Miss Gladys Kirby, who has been visiting Miss Stella Etheredge in Selma, returned home Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Faye Barnes spent several days last week visiting Miss Blanche Bailey in Smithfield.

Miss Pansy Peacock returned home Saturday, after a very pleasant visit to Wilmington, Raleigh and other places.

Rev. R. F. Kirkpatrick, D. D., of Memphis, Tenn., brother to the Pastor of the Presbyterian church, preached here Sunday night and at the same time baptized the Pastor's baby. The entire service was very impressive and the sermon full of good thought and well delivered. He was in this section primarily to preach the dedication sermon of the Selma Presbyterian church on Sunday morning. He left for Memphis Monday morning.

Miss Mary Alford has returned from an extended visit to her brother, Mr. R. H. Alford, in Smithfield.

Mrs. Holland from Clayton, formerly Miss Nell Richardson, has returned home, after a visit to her mother.

Miss Creel, of Dunn, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Grizzard.

Rev. J. M. Benson, the former pastor of the Methodist church here, but now pastor of the Carthege church, together with his wife, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sauls. Miss Sallie Benson was also a visitor to our town last week. They are receiving a hearty welcome from their many friends.

Miss Pansy Peacock has accepted a position with the Watson Company. She has charge of the Ladies' Department.

Quite a crowd from Kenly attended the Quarterly meeting at the Beulah Primitive Baptist church Sunday.

Mrs. D. H. Gilbreath has gone North to buy her winter goods.

A FRIEND IN NEED

Did it ever occur to you that surplus earnings, steadily saved, could be converted into "a friend in need"? By placing odd dollars in a Savings Account here, they will develop into a substantial sum that will prove its worth in emergency. Absolute safety is afforded and savings earn interest at the rate of 4 per cent. compounded quarterly. At any time we will gladly discuss the advisability of opening a Savings Account in this Institution.
