True Spirit.

He—"Your son did not graduate, after all?"

She—"No—Charlie has so much college spirit! You know there are so many graduating every year that it cripples college athletics."—Judge.

The great secret of all living is the persistent staying in the presence of the best—the great facts, the great truths, the great personalities, the one great Person, Christ. We come into the absorbing, passionate, and deepening interest in all things of value along so, and it is this persistent, passionate interest in the best that determines, ultimately, for significance and efficiency in life.—Henry Churchill King.

TANLAC TOOK MRS. F. S. LANCASTER RIGHT OUT OF BED.

Remarkable Story Told by Wife of Well Known Raleigh Contractor.

"Year by year I grew worse and worse until finally I was compelled to give up eating solid foods of any kind and just managed to exist on liquids. I was so rundown and nervous that even the quick closing of a door would make me scream. Of course, sleep seldom came to me and I was losing strength and weight from day to day. I was prescribed for by six different physicians and also tried everything I heard of, for I did want to get well, but nothing seemed to do me any good until I got Tanlac."

The speaker was Mrs. F. S. Lancaster, of 409 West North street, Raleigh, wife of a well known Capital City contractor. "I have just finished the third bottle and although I was in bed most of the time when I started to take it, I can truthfully say that from the first dose I started to improve. And now, I can eat anything I like and don't have to suffer. I sleep all night long and nervousness has left me. I am doing my own work, even the cooking; am hungry all the time and have gained six pounds. My husband says he must find something that will stop my eating now," ended Mrs. Lancaster with a smile.

The Man Who Advertises

There are two classes of merchants—those who ADVERTISE, and those who DO NOT.

The man who advertises has the BEST OF THE DEAL.

He keeps HIMSELF before the public—he keeps HIS WARES before the public—and he keeps their QUALITY and PRICE uppermost in the PUBLIC MIND.

People TALK about the man who ADVERTISES, because they know he has something WORTH advertising—or he wouldn't advertise.

Cobwebs never grow in the store of the man who advertises, because people buy his goods because he DOES advertise.

People READ the advertisements—they LOOK for them and EXPECT to find them—and often end in FORGETTING the man who does NOT advertise.

Advertising PAYS.

Get the habit, and GROW WITH YOUR ADS.
