FATHERS, MOTHERS, TEACHERS

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held Tuesday night at seven-thirty in the high school auditorium. Reports will be given by the various committees. In addition, a program of profit to both parents and teachers is being planned.

The attention of fathers is called to the fact that the night meetings are held alternate months so that fathers as well as mothers will have an opportunity to attend.

Negro Children Sing To A Large Audience

More than half a thousand people, white and colored listened to a fine program of song last Sunday afternoon at the Johnston County Training School. The large audience sat for more than an hour, listening to splendid renditions of Negro melodies that were sung with the distinctive interpretation which only Negroes can give to them.

"Swing Low Sweet Chariot, Couldn't Hear Nobody Pray, Its Me Its Me O Lord, and other melodies were rendered with feeling and to the entire satisfaction of the large appreciative audience.

While the melodies filled most of the program, there were other numbers of a classical nature that showed the range of the Negroes' adaptability for musical accomplishment. Special mention should be made of the type of training the Choral Union is getting.

UNUSUALLY LARGE EGG

Ms. D. D. Barbour, of Benson, Route 1, told us of an egg which one of his Rhode Island Red hens laid that ought to bring double price if he had them by the dozens. The egg was three and a half inches long, seven inches around, and weighed four and a half ounces.

Surprise Birthday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Grantham delightfully entertained at a dinner party Monday evening in honor of their son, Norman, the occasion being his fifteenth birthday. The party which was arranged as a surprise to the honoree was thoroughly enjoyed. The dinner was served in four courses. The centerpiece was a handsome birthday cake with fifteen gleaming candles, and at the close of the dinner every one enjoyed cutting it. Mr. W. L. Rice cut the ring; Bill Hooks the dime; Thad Young the penny, and the button was left in the cake. Others invited on this happy occasion were Hugh Ragsdale, William Lassiter, Zoe LeMay, Edward Lee Parrish, Irving Gillett, Bill Smith Stevens, Herman Jones, Worth Boyett, and Willis Stevens. The young ladies serving were: Misses Nell and Rose Grantham, Mattie Lassiter, Hilda Peedin and Elizabeth Aycock.

LYCEUM COURSE AT WILSON'S MILLS

The Wilson's Mills school is putting on a Lyceum program this winter and on next Saturday evening, January 31, one of these entertainments will be given. The Lombard entertainers including Harry Lombard, baritone soloist and opera singer, and two assistants give a program of compelling power and fascinating popularity.

The program itself includes costumed sketches from popular operas and is brimful of character and novelty songs, duets, trios, readings whistling solos and rollicking pianologues. It is a program complete with good musical material given in an entertaining and delightful way. Harry Lombard himself is an actor of exceptional ability and has few equals in musical comedy among lyceum artists.

An admission price of twenty-five and fifty cents will be charged. The program will be given in the school auditorium and will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Literary Department to Meet

Mrs. A. S. Johnston, chairman of the literary department of the Woman's Club, requests the members of her department to meet in the club room Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock for the first meeting of the year. An interesting program will be rendered and plans laid for a joint meeting of the music department at an early date. The members are requested to regard this as their notification to be present, instead of the usual method of being notified by telephone.

An Enjoyable Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Gillett entertained a few friends at a dinner party Tuesday evening at their lovely home on North Second Street. The dinner was served in three courses, wild duck forming a part of the menu. The host has just returned from a hunting trip in Eastern Carolina, where he bagged a number of wild ducks. After dinner, the guests played progressive rook. Those enjoying Mr. and Mrs. Gillett's hospitality on this occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Lassiter, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Abell, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ragsdale, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Scotton, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gray.

May Heat Houses With Gas

According to F. W. Steere, engineer of Detroit, our grand-children will look upon a coal stove much as we now think of a spinning wheel. "Gas will be the universal method of heating houses in the not far distant future is the prediction of this expert.

Mistake to Change Brands of Fertilizer Each Year—Stick to One Best Suited For Growing Need

By J. G. McCORMICK
Secretary and Treasurer Acme Manufacturing Company

Every year at this time, you are beset by a score of bidders for your fertilizer business. All sing more or less the same song, praising their own product. You don't know which brand to buy.

Now it's a mistake to change from brand to brand every season. When you find the fertilizer suited to your need—one that brings the results you want, STICK TO IT.

Never be influenced by any slight difference in price. What you are after is not hopes or promises, but CROPS. You want quantity and high grading, too. A fall-down in either quantity or quality will soon wipe out any small difference in fertilizer cost.

There isn't any need to guess about Acme. This company has been making fertilizers for 42 years. It is right here in North Carolina, at Wilmington, a home institution, owned and operated by North Carolinians, with a newly-rebuilt factory equipped with the most modern machinery at Acme, N. C. You are invited to inspect this plant. The formulae are open to all. You can see the ingredients, the best obtainable in the world, kept in perfect condition, and always properly manipulated.

In dealing with the Acme Company, you are dealing directly with Mr. Gilchrist and myself. There is nobody "higher-up." If there's ever any trouble, you can get right to us, without addressing or talking to anybody "in between." You are dealing with neighbors.

You can find out all about Acme from your own local growers.

Now, for goodness' sake, if you have been using other fertilizers and ought to get better results, settle on Acme for this year; and if you are using Acme, don't let anybody talk you into substituting something else unless he will back up his talk with a cash bond to cover any amount you may lose through an inferior crop!

Old reliable Acme will always "come clean" with you. Remember that when anybody tries to shove a substitute on you.

H. L. Boon, well-known tobacco planter of Stokesdale, N. C., wrote this last fall about Acme fertilizers:

"I have been raising tobacco for 25 years, using many different brands of fertilizer. Last year I used Acme fertilizers and had the best crop I have ever grown. This year I used Acme fertilizers and have a fine crop—is curing bright and smooth. Am well pleased with results of Acme."

Acme fertilizers will give you good results, too.

If you want any specialized or technical advice, write me, care of Acme Manufacturing Co., Wilmington, N. C.

before they are admitted or are able to pass a satisfactory examination. Of late some of the examinations especially for the boys and girls from the schools have been held in writing. A picture of the whole group that was admitted was taken, for out here it is not infrequent that a man changes his name, and therefore the face is more important as a means of identification than the name.

We hope that you will pray for those who have just come into the fold and for the many others who are thinking about it. Pray also that an opening may be made for some Christian teaching in the government schools here, for they are hostile towards Christianity.

The biggest value in a winter car for the family

The Fordor Sedan provides room for the whole family. Yet it is a light, easily handled car—the kind you want for the months of changeable weather and difficult driving conditions.

It is fitted with carpet and curtains that harmonize with the color tones of the two wide, deeply upholstered seats. It enables you to keep comfortably warm, yet have plenty of fresh air since the Fordor Sedan is equipped with Cowl Ventilator and windows that lower by revolving regulators.

You cannot own a car that offers you better value or more widely useful service. And the greater economy of operating a Ford lends emphasis to the practical worth of this car to you.
