Mother and Daughter Banquet

Thursday evening a mother and daughter banquet was given in the basement of the Methodist church, young girls of the Senior-Intermediate Department of the Sunday school and their mothers participating. Covers were laid for more than fifty guests but only about forty were present. A delicious menu in three courses was served by the Volunteer Wesley Class.

The program of the evening opened with an invocation pronounced by Mrs. T. R. Hood, this being followed by a song, "To our Mothers," rendered by the girls. After the first course, Mrs. Thelma Hooks made a talk on the "Physical Development of Adolescent Girls." Miss Thelma Peedin then read a paper which had been prepared by Mrs. J. J. Broadhurst, who was unable to be present, on "Mental Development." After the second course, Miss Lorene Leonard talked on the spiritual side of a girl's life, presenting a picture of an ideal woman with a well-rounded character.

The program closed with a most impressive candle-lighting service. Miss Arah Hooks representing the Light of Truth give light to helpers who in turn lighted candles at each mother's plate. The mothers then repeated together a pledge of renewed helpfulness toward their daughters. The daughters then lighted their candles from those of their mothers and also gave in concert a pledge of love and loyalty. Mrs. T. J. Lassiter, who was in charge of the program, proposed just before the banqueters were dismissed, a toast to the Volunteer Class for making the evening possible.

It was a disappointment not to have Mrs. T. W. Bickett present, as had been planned, but due to sickness, Mrs. Bickett was unable to attend.

Week of Prayer at Baptist Church

This week is being observed as the week of prayer by the ladies of the Baptist Missionary Society. The program for this afternoon will begin at three o'clock instead of 3:30 on account of the Parent-Teacher Association which meets at four o'clock at the school auditorium. The meeting tomorrow afternoon will be held at 3:30. On Thursday afternoon the two circles, Judson and Yates Circles, will be entertained by Mrs. D. H. Creech at her lovely home on Seventh street.

Her toils are past, her work is done, And she is fully blessed; She's fought the fight, the victory won, And entered into rest.

Mr. and Mrs. THOS. G. PITTMAN.

Mrs. L. G. Alford Passes Away

Mrs. L. G. Alford, after several months of suffering, passed away on February 19th at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. K. Hartley.

Dr. Zollicoffer Very Ill

Mrs. Ella Baker has returned from Weldon where she was called on account of the serious illness of her son-in-law, Dr. D. B. Zollicoffer. Dr. Zollicoffer was taken suddenly ill Monday afternoon while en route to Northampton County. Realizing his critical condition he instructed his chauffeur to take him to the home of his daughter in Roanoke Rapids. The news of the alarming condition was learned with keen regret not only in eastern North Carolina, but also in Virginia, where he is quite prominent. Mrs. Baker, who spent last week with her daughter, reports Dr. Zollicoffer as being somewhat better at present.

Death of Mrs. Lillie Sellers

It is with a sad heart that I attempt to write a few lines, in memory of our dear sister, Mrs. Lillie Mae Sellers, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Pittman. Her father preceded her to the grave about two years ago and her mother only about a year ago. She was born November 3, 1891 and died February 8, 1925, making her stay on earth thirty-four years three months, and five days. She was married to Mr. John Sellers several years ago. To this union were born six children, five boys and one girl, all of whom are living.

She was a kind and loving mother and wife, a good friend and neighbor. To know her was to love her. She was in declining health for several months but never gave up until about a week before she died. She suffered more than anyone knew. All was done for her that loving hands could do but none could stay the icy hand of death. God knew best; he giveth and he taketh away, blessed be the name of the Lord. Weep not, dear ones, as those that have no hope for we truly hope that she is resting in the arms of Jesus. We know she can not come to us but if we will be prepared when our time comes we surely can go to her. Oh, what a blessed thought! She was not a member of any church, but was a strong believer in the Primitive Baptist faith. She attended church as long as her health would permit it.

She leaves to mourn their loss a husband, six children, one sister, six brothers, other relatives, and a host of friends. The funeral services were conducted at Yelvington's Grove by Elders Wyatt and Cochran, after which her body was laid to rest in the cemetery at the church.

Why should we mourn departed friends, And fear at death's alarm? 'Twas but a voice that Jesus sent

We all loved her so much and regretted to give her up, but we feel that our loss is her eternal gain, as she said just before she passed away that she was going home. She bore her suffering patiently and with all hopes of eternal life. We feel that we will meet her again in that Happy Land, where we will never say good-bye to our loved ones again.

She was twenty-three years of age and united with the Pentecostal Holiness church when she was eleven years old, and has lived a straightforward Christian life since. She is survived by a husband, two children, a father, mother, one sister, and four brothers besides a host of friends, who will learn of her death with sorrow, for to know her was to love her.

She was tenderly laid to rest in the Woodall burying ground, Friday, February 20. No funeral services were held.

Why should we mourn departed friends, And fear at death's alarm? 'Twas but a voice that Jesus sent

To call her to his arms. And he will some day call for us To live with her on high, Where there's no sickness, pain or woe, And we shall never die. A COUSIN.

"The Flapper Grandmother"

To Be Given In Kenly Kenly, March 6.—"The Flapper Grandmother" is an excellent show and will be put on by the best local talent. It is not only spectacular and spontaneous but full of screams in the form of uncontrollable laughter. In fact, it is so funny that even the Old Hard-boiled Folks wind up the evening by calling for "Pain-Killer" to rub on their aching sides.

This play, which has given so much satisfaction in the way of good entertainment where it has been presented, will be given in the auditorium of the Kenly High School on Tuesday evening, March 17, under the auspices of the Woman's Club. The director of the comedy will arrive Saturday, March 7, and intensive practicing will begin at once.
