

County Correspondence

Pine Level

Pine Level, May 21.—Mrs. B. Godwin is visiting her son, Mr. C. I. Godwin of Raleigh.

Mrs. W. H. Stallings, who has been here visiting for a few days left Sunday night for Boston, Mass., where she will visit her mother.

Miss Marie Rae visited in Selma Sunday.

Mr. Bud Lynch, of Princeton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Stallings.

Mr. Jerry George, of Smithfield, was a visitor in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Godwin, of Raleigh, visited Mr. and Mrs. B. Godwin Saturday.

Mrs. M. Defora and Mrs. W. N. Hare, of Rocky Mount, were guest of Mrs. J. I. Stallings Thursday.

Miss Rosa Braswell spent Sunday with Miss Mae Lee Howell, of Selma.

Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Kornegay, of Selma, spent Sunday afternoon with their mother, Mrs. K. Kornegay.

Mr. Guy Holland, of New Bern, was in town Sunday.

Miss Sadie Stancil, of near Selma, was the guest of Mrs. D. T. Oliver Sunday.

Mr. Walter Baker, of Dunn, was in town Sunday.

Mr. Alvin Kornegay spent Sunday afternoon with friends in Princeton.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Poole, of Wilson's Mills, visited relatives here last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Fitzgerald, of Micro, visited Mrs. Kornegay Sunday evening.

Miss Mary Evelyn Parker, of Selma, was in town Sunday.

Mr. Joe Oliver and Miss Julia Fields of Princeton, were here a short while Sunday.

Mr. Hubert Aycock, of Micro, was a visitor in town Sunday.

Mrs. Florence Denning and Miss Lela Denning and Jessie Braswell attended services in Brogden section Sunday.

Little Esther Grey Braswell visited friends near Rosewood last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Braswell motored to Goldsboro Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Oliver attended the Memorial service at Rain's Cross Roads Sunday afternoon.

Miss Louise Braswell spent Friday night with Miss Malvia, of Selma.

Mr. Douglas Creech attended the play given at Selma Friday night.

Mrs. Ellen Taylor and children returned from a week's visit to Magnolia Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Wiggs, Mrs. W. H. Woodard and Mrs. W. S. Starling visited friends in Selma Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kornegay and daughter, Myrtle, visited in Clayton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fitzgerald, of Princeton, and little daughter, Marie, visited relatives in town Sunday.

Mrs. Cora Fitzgerald and daughter, Caroline, of Micro, visited Mrs. Floyd C. Price Friday.

Misses Lenna Greenwood, Thelma Creech and Mr. Douglas Creech spent a short while in Smithfield Sunday evening.

Mr. Emmitt Williams and Miss Louise Braswell motored to Wilson's Mills Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. Fitzgerald of Raleigh, visited Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fitzgerald Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Wellons, of Micro, spent today in town with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Crocker.

Miss Faye Oliver shopped in Goldsboro Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Fitzgerald and little daughter, Eunice, of Raleigh, visited Dr. Fitzgerald's brother, Mr. R. L. Fitzgerald Sunday.

Miss Mildred Creech, of Selma, spent Sunday with Miss Clara Fitzgerald.

Mr. Leon Brown, of Selma, was in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Creech spent Sunday with relatives at Royall.

Mr. Will Boyette, of Raleigh, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Holt.

Rev. Ben Jones and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Price Sunday.

Miss Zola Woodard, of Wilson, visited in town Sunday.

Miss Inez Gerald, of Raleigh, visited at home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Futrell spent a short while in Kinston Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. D. R. Peedin and little son, Thomas Ruffin, are spending a few days in town with parents.

Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Woodard spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, of Wayne county.

Mr. Leon Daughtry was a visitor in town Sunday.

Messrs Leslie White and Walter Godwin spent a few hours in Buies Creek last Thursday.

Miss Sallie White, of La Grange, is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. T. F. White.

Messrs W. B. Oliver, Leslie White and Noble Peedin were visitors in Princeton Wednesday night.

Miss Omega Watson and Mr. Jasper House spent a few hours at Plainview Sunday.

Misses Fannie Westbrook, Omega Watson, Irene Parker, Messrs Allard Creech, Jasper House, and Waverly Jones went on a fishing trip to Holt Lake. They reported splendid luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Baylock and little son, of New Bern, spent Sunday with Mrs. Nellie Woodard.

Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Woodard and Mrs. Nellie Woodard reported a delightful reception at the three-course dinner given by Miss Mildred Perkins, of Selma last Monday evening at 8 o'clock in honor of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Perkins.

Mr. Emmitt Williams, of Pikeville, was a caller in town Sunday.

Miss Norma Ramsey and Mr. James Woodard spent the day in Farmville last Sunday.

Miss Linda Davis spent Saturday in Smithfield with her students from the seventh grade, who were on examination.

Mr. Waverly Jones had as his guest for dinner last Thursday Prof. Jones, of Raleigh.

Mr. Phil Lancaster, of Selma, was in town Sunday.

Miss Sallie D. White and Mr. Leslie White visited friends in Selma Sunday evening.

Little Elizabeth Schere gave a very unique little birthday party Friday afternoon celebrating her 9th birthday. Quite a host of her little friends assembled at the home of Mrs. E. R. Settle where she gave her party. There much amusement and pleasure awaited them and the few hours passed rapidly. Refreshments consisting of ice cream, candy and lemonade were served and enjoyed by all. Her young friends wish her many more happy birthdays.

Misses Winoma Brown, Verona Creech and Messrs Herbert Aycock and Johnnie Borden attended church in Micro Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Braswell spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Williams of Pikeville.

Polenta

Miss Lena Booker has returned to her home in this section after teaching in Red Springs for the last nine months.

Mr. and Mrs. McClous Barbour, of Benson, spent last week end at the home of Mr. B. A. Barbour.

Miss Carrie Parrish, of Smithfield, spent last week end the guest of Miss Mary Barber.

Mr. Walton Booker attended the ball game in Chapel Hill last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Barbour, of Clayton, spent a few hours the guest of Mr. and Mrs. McNeal last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Austin, of near Clayton, spent last Sunday with Mrs. Austin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Myatt and children spent last Sunday afternoon in Benson with Mrs. Myatt's sister, Mrs. Harvey Ryals.

Several of this community are attending commencement at Clayton this week.

Mrs. B. A. Barbour and daughter, Miss Moneva, Mrs. D. M. Wallace and Mrs. I. V. Barbour spent last Wednesday afternoon in Pine Level on business.

Clayton, Route 1, May 22.

Princeton

Princeton, May 21.—Miss Lissie Pearce and Mr. Edgar Boyette, members of the Glendale faculty, came to spend the week end at their respective homes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ben Howell and family, from Black Mountain, have been visitors in town for several days.

Miss Ophelia Pearce and Mr. Caspian Holt, from Chapel Hill, were visitors in town a short while Friday en route from Buies Creek, where they attended the closing exercises at the high school.

Misses Mary Massey, and Teresa Holt, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Cox and Doris and C. H. Holt were among those who went to Buies Creek last Thursday.

Mr. Edgar Boyette, from Chapel Hill, was at home Sunday.

Mrs. Rosa Smith, age 67, died at her home here Wednesday morning about one o'clock. She had been in declining health for the last few months, but was well enough to come out to the election and vote. Tuesday evening. Burial services were held at her home Thursday morning and she was laid to rest in Woodman cemetery. Mrs. Smith was a good woman and had been a faithful member of the Methodist church for many years. The services were conducted by Rev. G. B. Perry, pastor.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church entertained the Senior class Thursday night at the home of Mrs. John Woodard. The color scheme was pink and lavender. Ice cream and cake were the refreshments. All the senior class and all the graded school teachers were present and had a delightful evening.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John I. Pearce A. E. Phillips, a girl, on Sunday and to Mr. and Mrs. Harrell, a boy, on Saturday, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. Wednesday. Mothers and babies are getting along nicely.

The many friends and relatives of Mrs. L. D. Mitchell will regret to learn that she has been seriously ill for the past week. She is much better today.

Boon Hill township has completed the embankment at the approach to the new Howell bridge on Little River, and it is said that as soon as Pine Level finishes the other side the bridge can be used.

Selma

Selma, May 21.—Messrs E. V. and W. T. Woodard, Luther Richardson and Dr. Geo. D. Vick attended the ball game last Friday in Chapel Hill between the University of North Carolina and the University of Virginia.

Mrs. J. T. Creech, who has been quite ill at her home here, is much better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Blackburn, spent last Sunday in Princeton with Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray Waddell have moved into their handsome new bungalow on Sumner Street.

Miss Nola Price, who is teaching at Meadow school, spent last week end here with her parents.

Little Jessie Fuller O'Neal, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is rapidly recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Biggs, of Wilson, were the guests of relatives in the city Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Fulghum, Mrs. T. R. Fulghum, Sr., and Miss Ruth Fulghum visited relatives in Garher Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleming Black and children, of Clinton, spent Sunday in the city with relatives.

Mr. Rand Wall spent last week end at his home near Archer Lodge.

Mrs. N. B. Hinnant was taken to the Carolina General Hospital in Wilson last Saturday for treatment. Her friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Grant returned to the city Tuesday after spending several days with relatives in Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gardner, of Smithfield, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Woodard Sunday.

Misses Agnes Rose and Lula Munn, teachers in the Rosewood school, spent last week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rose.

Mr. J. C. Whitley, of Florence, S. C., spent a short while with relatives here Wednesday.

Mr. Roberts, of the Princeton graded school faculty, was the guest of friends in Selma Friday.

Miss May Straughn attended a musical recital at the I. O. O. F. Home in Goldsboro Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Creech and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Straughn attended the Japanese operetta in Princeton Friday evening.

Miss Eunice Boyette, of Smithfield, visited Misses May and Lelia Straughn Friday.

Mr. H. T. Moye and Mr. Howard Bunn, of Goldsboro, were the guests of friends in the city Sunday.

Mrs. E. J. Watson and children, of Gibsonville, are visiting Mrs. T. M. Benoy this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McMillan spent last week end in Red Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Younger visited friends in Pikeville Sunday afternoon.

Miss Leslie L. Snipes, of New York City, spent last week with her sister, Mrs. R. C. Mozingo. Miss Snipes holds a very responsible position with the Western Union Cable office in New York.

Mrs. Milo Miller and two little sons, of Charleston, S. C., are visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. Melvin S. Truesdale and little daughter, Elsie Lee, of Kershaw, S. C., spent last Wednesday with Mrs. R. C. Mozingo.

Mrs. H. T. Brown, of Portsmouth, Va., and Miss Mollie Brown spent last week end in Smithfield with Mrs. R. C. Mozingo.

Capt. C. B. Waddell spent a few hours in Wilson with relatives last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. O'Neal spent Tuesday with Mrs. N. B. Hinnant at the Carolina General Hospital in Wilson. They report her condition unchanged.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Fitzgerald and Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. Fitzgerald, of Raleigh, spent Sunday afternoon in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Pearce and son, Billy, visited relatives in Bagley Sunday.

Miss Zemora Stallings, of Zebulon, is visiting Mrs. Carl Worley.

Little W. G. Ricks, Jr., was taken to Rex Hospital Tuesday for treatment.

Mr. P. C. Worley went to Rex Hospital Wednesday to have his tonsils removed.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Worley and Miss Zemora Stallings spent Sunday in Raleigh with relatives.

Polenta

Messrs. B. A. Barbour and Dalma Wallace attended church at Benson last Sunday morning.

Miss Hattie Jones has returned to her home in this section after spending some time with her sister, Mrs. B. B. Williams, of Fuquay Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Barber and daughter spent last Saturday in Raleigh on business.

We welcome Mr. McNeal and family, of Clayton, to our community. They will occupy the Presbyterian manse at Oakland-church. They are expected to move on the 15th.

Miss Moneva Barbour and Mrs. J. L. Myatt and children, of this section, accompanied by Mrs. Tommie Penny, of the Smith school section, spent last Monday in Benson with Mrs. Myatt's sister, Mrs. Harvey Ryals.

Several of this community attended the play "The Flapper Grandmother," given by the Woman's Club in Clayton last Friday night.

Mr. Willie Stephenson and family from near Benson visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Barbour recently.

Sunday school at Oakland every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Everybody is invited to come.

Clayton, Route 1, May 14.

Wins Prize For Poultry

Pine Level, May 22.—Mr. James L. Peedin, one of Pine Level's most industrious farmers and poultry raisers, reports that he won first prize in a contest in the Poultry Tribune on his Jersey Black Giant chickens. The prize is a $15 setting of Black Giant eggs.

Delinted cotton seed in Hertford county came up nicely and evenly before the ordinary, untreated seed had cracked the ground, found county agent C. A. Rose as a result of some demonstrations made this spring.

Putting NASH on the Map

"NASH LEADS THE WORLD IN MOTOR CAR VALUE"

44

New NASH Cars

Sold In Raleigh Territory In Two Months

A New Record

MARCH and April sales of NASH cars in the Raleigh territory established an unprecedented record—22 cars in March, and 22 in April—44 cars in 52 working days—nearly a car a day.

Public Recognition

THIS remarkable record testifies to the hard work and honest effort of our organization to render the most satisfactory service to the public. It is also an outspoken public recognition of NASH value.

55 used cars were sold by this organization during the same period—more than one used car each working day. This means a total of 99 cars sold during the 52 working days—nearly two cars per day.

Raleigh is "Another NASH" Town

Phone 2440

NASH MOTOR SALES CO.

BLOUNT AND DAVIE STREETS RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA