Exposition Burlesque Pleases Crowd.

The burlesque on the Eastern Carolina Exposition given at the opera house Thursday evening by the Business and Professional Women's Club was quite a success. Each feature caused a laugh and there was not a dull moment from start to finish. The performance included Victor's band, impersonated by the Riverside Serenaders, and directed by Mrs. Joe Davis; Miss Gertrude Van Diense, this role being played Miss Irene Myatt; Billy Sunday, taken off by Miss Mary E. Wells; stage manager F. H. Brooks, impersonated by Miss Vara Sanders; the baby show, the style show, the beauty queens contest and coronation, and the rooster act.

The club cleared a neat little sum for its treasury.

Baptist Sunbeams Enjoy Picnic at "The Pines".

The Sunbeams of the Smithfield Baptist church enjoyed a delightful picnic last Friday afternoon at "The Pines", on the Raleigh road a mile from town. About 60 boys and girls went attended by their leaders and a few mothers, and by Mr. W. H. Lassiter, superintendent of the Sunday school, and by Rev. and Mrs. S. L. Morgan, these feeling a special interest and pride in the missionary organizations of the church. Some of the party drove, and some preferred to hike to this beautiful spot known as "The Pines", at the intersection of the Wilson's Mills road with the highway. The entire party felt grateful that Mr. W. M. Gaskin, with an eye to the beautiful, has seen fit to spare these lovely trees. To the older members of the party, the children seemed indeed like sunbeams, lovelier than those that filtered down through the green and fragrant pines to the beautiful brown carpet below. Like real sunbeams the girls in their colors fitted about on their playground, while the boys on their ground were enjoying in turn baseball, stories and lemonade.

Ending the happy afternoon, all enjoyed a delicious supper together. The other members of the party felt special thanks were due their leader, Mrs. Henry Johnson, and her assistants, Mrs. R. S. Fleming and Miss Lucy Rhodes, and also to Mr. Johnson and Mr. Lassiter, who quenched the thirst of the tired hikers with such an abundance of lemonade.

(The party venture to suggest to Mr. Gaskin, owner of "The Pines" that he would render Smithfield a very grateful service, both in his own and succeeding generations, if he would plant more trees and enlarge and beautify the present little grove into such a park as is one of the real needs of our town at about this distance. Doubtless the town, if at all alert to its needs, could be interested in helping to finance such an enterprise.)

Miss Talton Wins Medal

Another name was added to the long list of Johnston County girls and boys who have won high honors at college, when Miss Lucy Oliver Talton, accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Talton, of Smithfield, was awarded the coveted "Bryant Medal" at the Conservatory of Music in Durham, this medal being awarded Miss Talton for best all round work and accomplishment in voice during the past year.

From early childhood Miss Talton has taken a deep interest in music, singing in the choir of her church since she was eight years of age. Upon completing her studies at the High School in Selma last year, she was found capable of taking third year work at the Conservatory, and in the contest won out over those who had had the advantage of two years college work.

Not only in music, but as an all round student, Miss Talton has always stood at the head in all phases of school life. At the Selma High School, from which she graduated in 1924, she was the winner of the Declaimer's Medal in 1922 and the Debater's Medal in 1923; and represented her school as a debater in the Tri-angular High School Debates in both 1923 and 1924.

In addition to her school activities Miss Talton has always found time to devote herself to social and religious duties and to the welfare work of the community in which she lived. It is the girls of this character that Smithfield and Johnston County are justly proud of.
