

Womans Realm

Telephone 10

Weddings, Social Functions,
Club Meetings, Local Happenings
Card Parties, Etc.

Dr. J. W. Whitehead spent the week end in Richmond.

Mrs. Wallace Coltrane, of Dunn, spent Thursday here with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hood.

Mrs. Bragsdon Johnson, of Dunn, spent a few days here last week with her mother, Mrs. Ella Baker.

Mrs. E. C. Fish has returned to Fuquay Springs after visiting relatives here.

Mrs. C. S. Powell, of Statesville, is spending some time in the city, the guests of relatives.

Little Miss Grace Oliver, of Selma, is spending a few days here with her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Daughtry.

Miss Jean Abell left today for Blowing Rock where she will spend some time.

Mr. J. L. Scotton will leave tomorrow for Sylvia where he will spend several weeks.

Mrs. J. L. Scotton will leave tomorrow to spend several weeks at Mebane.

Born to Dr. and Mrs. G. A. McLe-more on Saturday, July 4, a son, G. A., Jr.

Miss Virginia Upchurch, of Four Oaks, is spending the week with Miss Inez Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ross Pou, of Raleigh, visited relatives here Sunday afternoon.

Misses Ora and Ruth Johnson spent the week end in Dunn with relatives.

Messrs. Laddis Maynard and Rupert Wade of Dunn spent Sunday afternoon in town with friends.

Master Wilmer Johnson spent the week end in Dunn with his sister, Mrs. A. R. Maynard.

Miss Lorene Leonard, who holds a position this summer in Raleigh, spent Sunday here with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Coates and son William have gone to South Boston, Va. to visit relatives.

Mrs. S. S. Holt and children left yesterday to spend a few days in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Ellington left yesterday for White Lake where they will spend this week.

Mrs. C. S. Mathis, of Falcon, spent the week end in the city with her daughter, Miss Lucy Mathis.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert King, of Raleigh, spent Sunday here with Mrs. J. W. Phillips.

Miss Thelma Peedin spent the week end in Goldsboro, the guest of Miss Louise Wrenn.

Master Frank Johnson returned from Dunn Sunday after spending the week with his sister, Mrs. A. R. Maynard.

Mrs. Meta Abrams and little daughter, of Raleigh, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. W. Leon Johnson.

Miss Flossie Cole Lassiter, of Raleigh, spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lassiter.

Misses Ellen Patterson and Delia Ellington returned Monday from Richlands, where they visited the Misses Sutton.

Mr. Robert A. Wellons, of Charlotte spent the week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wellons.

Mrs. LeRoy Parker of Goldsboro has been spending a few days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Coates.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Calais and children left Saturday for Florence, S. C., and Miami, Fla., where they will visit relatives.

Mrs. L. H. Hauss has returned from a trip to Miami and Key West, Florida. She has been away several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Myatt and children, of the Polenta section, spent Sunday here with Miss Annie Myatt.

Mr. James H. Davis has accepted a position with the First and Citizens National Bank.

Little Miss Lillian Pou, of Raleigh, spent the week end here with little Miss Caroline Irie Wadden at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. W. Pou.

Mr. John William Wood, of Meadow township, was in Smithfield Monday. He stated that Mr. Littleton Hayes, an aged citizen of his community, died last Saturday and was buried near his late residence on the following day.

The Pension Board was in session here Monday. Several applicants, mostly widows of deceased veterans of the Confederate army, were before the board for pension allowance.

Mr. Zoe LeMay returned from Kingston Sunday night. He was accompanied home by little Misses Betsy and Olivia Hood, who are the guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Sanders.

Miss Margaret LeMay left this morning for Washington, D. C., where she will visit friends. While away she will visit a classmate in Harrisburg, Va., also.

Mrs. T. J. Lassiter and Miss Flossie Lassiter are leaving today for Asheville where they will attend the meeting of the North Carolina Press Association.

Mrs. N. B. Grantham and Miss Rose Grantham went to Raleigh Friday to see Miss Nell Grantham who underwent an operation in Rex Hospital. The friends of Miss Grantham will be glad to learn that she expects to return home this week.

We call attention to the advertisement elsewhere of Buie's Creek Academy, one of the best boarding schools for high school pupils anywhere in this section. Rev. J. A. Campbell, who is at the head of the school, writes us that Johnston County sent them sixteen students last year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Barham are leaving today for Ware Shoals, S. C., where they will spend the rest of the summer with their daughter, Mrs. F. W. Davis.

Mrs. W. W. Cole will leave tomorrow for Lake Junaluska where she will spend several weeks. She will make the trip through the country.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Stevens, accompanied by Mrs. W. A. Underwood and little son spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. James M. Creech in Wilson.

Engagement Announced of Popular Couple.

Mr. and Mrs. John White Ives wish to announce the engagement of their sister, Miss Helene Ives, to Mr. Dewey Carlton Stephenson. The marriage will take place the latter part of July.

To Attend Girls' Short Course.

Among the club girls from Johnston County who went to Raleigh yesterday to attend the Girls' Short Course at State College, we note the following: Jessie May Bailey of Corbett-Hatcher; Omega and Alma Creech of Creech's school; Vessie Stancil of Glendale; Eloise Liles of Archer Lodge; Gladys Ogburn and Thema Hawks of Ogburn Grove; Mabel Lee and Myrtie Strickland, of Poplar Grove. The course will last through the eleventh.

Books Still for Sale

The remainder of the books which were not sold by the Ham-Ramsay evangelistic party at the book room of the the tabernacle during the revival here will be left here for several weeks and any one who desires any of these books can get them by seeing or communicating with Rev. J. S. Irvine, of this city.

These books contain much valuable information and instruction for Christians and Christian workers, and the money spent for them will prove a valuable investment.

Business Meeting of Sans Souci Club.

There will be a business meeting of the Sans Souci Club Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Edw. W. Pou will be hostess from 4:30 until six o'clock. It is urged that all members send or bring their books for exchange.

JUNIOR BOYS AND GIRLS ATTENTION

A lawn party will be held on the Methodist church playground this afternoon (Tuesday) from five until seven o'clock. Everybody is invited to carry a dime to buy ice-cream and cake, the proceeds to be used for the Junior Department piano. Games will be played during the afternoon.

Prayer Meeting at Presbyterian Church

Prayer meeting will be held at the Smithfield Presbyterian church Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. Those who have signified their intention of uniting with the Presbyterian church are urged to be present at this hour.

Sunday School Picnic At Piney Grove.

There will be a Sunday school picnic at Jiney Grove, Johnston County, on Thursday, July 9. Everybody is invited to come and enjoy the day together. Do not forget to bring a well-filled basket, for that is what it takes to make a picnic worth while.

R. L. PITTMAN, Supt.

Mrs. Joe Davis Attends Conference.

Mrs. Joe Davis has recently returned from Asheville where she attended a meeting of the North Carolina Association of Jewish women at the George Vanderbilt hotel. Mrs. Davis reports a most interesting conference, mentioning particularly the address of the president, Mrs. J. L. Emanuel, of Raleigh. Mrs. Davis was made chairman for the membership committee for the state. She gave the report of work being done by Jewish women in this section of the state.

Kennesson—Horton

A quiet marriage took place at the Methodist parsonage here Saturday afternoon when Miss Lessie Horton became the bride of Mr. Noah Kennesson. Both of the contracting parties are from Clayton. The Methodist pastor, Rev. A. J. Parker, performed the ceremony.

Misses Ives and White In Maine.

Misses Cora Belle Ives and Frances White left Tuesday night for Harpswell Center, Maine, where they will spend the month of July. They went by steamer as far as New York.

FOUND IN TABERNACLE DURING Ham-Ramsay meeting, one light-colored cap, "Surefit"; one medium blue cap, size 6 3-4; one brown cap with lining torn out; also straw hat with brown band. Owners can get same by applying at The Herald office and paying proportionate part of the cost of this ad which is 30 cents each.

Miss White, who is the voice teacher in the Smithfield schools, will take a special course in voice in the summer session of the Boston Lyceum School, which is held at Harpswell Center. While away Miss Ives will attend the national convention of Business and Professional Women's clubs to be held in Portland, Maine, July 13-15 as a delegate from the Smithfield Club.

W. J. Ramsay, A Grandfather.

Mr. W. J. Ramsay, who was called to Sumter, S. C., Thursday night, sent the following telegram to Rev. M. F. Ham, Friday, July 3: "Miss Rosomonde Ramsay Wimberley, weight seven pounds, arrived in Sumter, S. C., this morning twenty minutes ahead of her grand-daddy. Mother and baby both doing fine."

Mrs. Alvin Price Dead

Mrs. Susanna Price, wife of Mr. Alvin Price, died at her home near Wilson's Mills Sunday, July 5, after an illness of nine months. She was seventy-one years old.

The funeral was held at the home yesterday afternoon, conducted by Rev. S. M. Lamb, pastor of the Wilson's Mills Baptist church, and interment was made in the cemetery at the old Gay place.

The deceased is survived by her husband and six children: Messrs. W. A. and Richard Price, of Wilson's Mills; J. A. Price of Coats; Mrs. Sarah Smith, of Raleigh; Mrs. I. T. Byrd and Miss Annie Price of Wilson's Mills.

The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the community in their loss.

ERROR CORRECTED
After we had gone to press Mr.

W. P. Aycock called and asked us to change the date in the legal notice entitled "Cicero Barber and Maud Barber to P. E. Whitehead and St. Julien L. Springs" which he gave us several days ago. The date was June 27 but should have been June 25. It is corrected on page eight of this issue.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE HERALD
SUBSCRIBE TO THE HERALD

A Dainty Home for the Things You Eat.

Well Kept Food

The health of your family depends upon keeping food in a fresh, sanitary and wholesome condition. The

WHITE FROST REFRIGERATOR

with its double insulation and its metal non-warping, tight-fitting doors, gives you a dry cold at a lower temperature than heretofore thought possible.

Get our booklet, "What You Should Know About a Refrigerator."

Austin-Stephenson Co.

Pay Cash At Austin's and Bank the Difference"
AUSTIN'S
Everything for Everybody"

"Now, I always have a clean shirt when I want it."

"I've learned that it doesn't cost a penny more in the long run to have plenty of shirts on hand—enough so I can be sure of having a clean one when I want it.

"Why not buy your season's supply NOW—for, at AUSTIN'S this is and you have bigger assortments to pick from than at any other time. Every size in all the popular patterns, color combinations and fabrics."

SHIRT WEEK

"The shirt I wear for Sunday, or business, is a woven madras, with a neat pin stripe of blue, green, tan or brown. Wear?—they surely do!"

$1.00 to $3.75

MANHATTAN AND WILSON BROS.

Shirts for Play, shirts for Sunday, in fact shirts for every occasion, this week—at

AUSTIN'S

"Everything for Everybody"
SMITHFIELD, N. C.

Have You a Fish Pond?

If so please fill out the following blank and mail to the undersigned address:

1. Name of lake or pond
2. Public or private
3. If privately owned, give name of owner
4. Size
5. Depth
6. Is bottom muddy or sandy
7. Highest summer temperature
8. Principal kinds of fish in lake or pond
9. Has lake or pond ever been stocked with fish
10. If so, kind
11. When
12. What result
13. What kind of fish is suitable for pond or lake

GRADY & GRADY, Attorneys
for Fisheries Com. Board
SMITHFIELD, N. C.