Interesting Shower For Young Bride.

Mrs. Graham Smith and Miss Alma Smith entertained a large number from both the older and younger sets Thursday evening in honor of their niece, Mrs. Charles L. Beasley, a recent bride. The matrons gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Smith and the younger girls at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Beasley to await the coming of the young bride, who had been spending the day in Raleigh. Following her arrival, all the guests assembled in the living room at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Beasley, where a number of musical selections were enjoyed and Mrs. H. H. Radford read several selections from Tom Meacham's "Rhymes of a Cross-Roads Man."

The party then moved to the lawn where much pleasurable conversation went on until the climax of the evening was reached. Young Mrs. Beasley was beguiled into the house and immediately a huge clothes basket appeared upon the scene. This bulky receptacle was mysteriously covered and was carried by two little boys, Buster Creech and Edward Lee Parrish, who deposited their burden upon the side of the porch and called to the young bride that her clothes had come home from the washerwoman. Young Mrs. Beasley came out at once to investigate and found the basket full of beautiful and useful gifts. After she had made delighted inspection of each gift, the guests were served delicious refreshments of block cream and home-made cake.

Miss Ives Writes From Maine.

Miss Cora Belle Ives, who is spending the summer in Harpsville Center, Maine, writes that she is greatly enjoying her stay in a "typical New England country." She says it has been so cold there they have worn coats and had fires.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Parrish Open New Home

Benson, July 10.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Parrish were at home to their friends on Thursday evening from nine to ten o'clock at their new residence on Parrish Drive in honor of Miss Marguerite Robertson of Brevard. The guests were greeted on the porch by Mr. and Mrs. Parrish. Misses Laland Fry and Blanche Martin poured punch from an attractively decorated table on the broad veranda, where the Benson orchestra furnished music for the evening. Assisting in receiving and showing the guests over the lovely and attractively decorated new home were: Mesdames M. T. Britt, H. A. Parker, L. L. Levinson, M. A. Peacock, A. S. Oliver and J. B. Faircloth. Baskets of bright colored garden flowers were used effectively in the decorations. The centerpiece for the dining table, which was covered with a madeira tea cloth, was red and white dahlias. Serving a dainty ice course with cake was Misses Velma Brady, Esther Morgan and Mesdames W. T. Martin and C. C. Canaday.

Subscriber for 43 Years

"Uncle" Ashley Smith, one of the oldest and best known colored men in this town, was in our office yesterday to subscribe to The Herald. He stated that he had been taking the paper ever since it began publication forty-three years ago. He also said that for about six years The Herald had been sent to him free of charge because he brought paper, on which The Herald was printed, from Selma on his dray in the days before a railroad was here. He says he couldn't do without his home-town paper. Uncle Ashley has been living in Smithfield more than forty-five years.

This Week Ford Truck Week

The week July 13th to 18th has been set for "Ford Truck Week." The Young Motor Company, local Ford dealer has planned a big parade for Ford trucks Saturday afternoon. The parade will start at 2 o'clock from Young Motor Co. (formerly Sanders Motor Co.) and parade thru Smithfield, Selma and Pine Level. All owners of Ford trucks are asked to bring their trucks and join in the parade.

DENTAL CLINIC HELD AT PRINCETON AND PINE LEVEL

Dr. J. S. Moore, who has been working in this county for the past few weeks under the State Board of Health, will be at the Princeton school building Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 13, 14 and 15, to conduct a dental clinic. It is desired that as many children as possible between the ages of six and twelve take advantage of this clinic and have dental defects remedied.

A similar clinic will be held at the Pine Level school Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 16, 17 and 18. Dr. Moore begins his work each morning at 9:30 and closes at 5:30 each afternoon except on Saturday when he closes at 12:30.

MR. CALVIN MASSENGILL SUFFERS LOSS BY FIRE

Barn and stables belonging to Mr. Calvin Massengill, Elevation township were completely destroyed by fire late Saturday night. None of the feed stuff was saved, but the stable door was fortunately left open and all the stock escaped without injury, except one horse which was slightly scorched and a few chickens which were cut off from the exit by the flames.

No one knows how the fire originated and the conflagration was not discovered until too late to save any of the buildings. The amount of insurance carried, if any, was not known by the reporter.
